

Student Senate to Interview, Pick Dad's Day, Duck Preview Leaders

Interviews with petitioners and selection of two for the general chairmanships of Dad's Day and Duck Preview make up just about all that's scheduled for tonight's ASUO senate meeting.

ASUO president Pat Dignan hopes to have the business wrapped up in an hour's time so that fraternity members of the group won't miss the evening rushing date. But he said that he would like to see everybody there for that one hour.

Styles, Food At YWCA

The YWCA sponsored annual waffle breakfast and style show will be held Saturday in Gerlinger hall from 9:30 to 11 a.m.

Under the direction of the four freshmen commissions in the YW, the style show will feature fashions from Kaufman Brothers store in Eugene. The style show is scheduled to start at 10:15 a.m.

Tickets are 50 cents and are on sale in sororities, dormitories and will be on sale Saturday morning at the YW. Gale West and Patty Teal, ticket chairmen, request that all unsold tickets be returned to the YW Friday afternoon or Saturday morning.

Other chairmen for the event are Phyllis Pearson, arrangements; Jeanne Kopp, Anne Ritchey and Janet Westphal, promotion and Geri Porritt, fashion show.

Tickets Brought Before Court

Two tickets were brought before the student traffic court last night and were voided. These were the cases of Jerry Nudelman, junior in business, and Marshall Atherton, liberal arts freshman.

Students who failed to appear in court at the session were, Fred Lanoman, sophomore in liberal arts, who ignored a summons, and several whose names will be turned into student affairs office because they failed to answer second notices. These include, Stanley Lynch, graduate in physics, David Bouchet, freshman in liberal arts, Jim Haycox, journalism senior, Bob Altmann, junior in law, and Allen Cross, junior in business.

Those receiving one notice which was ignored are Jim Jones, sophomore in speech, Robert White, junior in history and Billy Burrell. Second notices were sent to these students.

Research Emphasized

The first issues of a new general science publication, "Wissenschaftliche Annalen," published by the Akademie der Wissenschaften zu Berlin to disseminate the results of recent research, are now in the science reading room.

SU Board Okays Selection Change

At its weekly meeting Wednesday afternoon the Student Union board adopted an amendment to the perpetuation plan which provides for the appointment each spring of a sophomore student as a voting member-at-large to serve for two years on the board.

The new plan may bring the number of members-at-large to three. Previously only two juniors or seniors were chosen to fill these positions. An additional clause provides that if the sophomore appointed at the end of spring term should vacate his position before Jan. 30 of the following year, the board may choose someone to fill the post within 30 days.

Proposals Approved

The board next approved the following proposals of the executive committee for the record lending program as submitted by Don Zavin, vice-chairman, of the SU board.

1. The record lending room will be open from 3 to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.
2. No fines shall be levied against borrowers keeping records overdue.
3. Persons returning a record in a non-playable condition shall be requested to pay 75 per cent of the retail cost of the record.
3. The number of records that can be borrowed shall be limited to two to an individual and five to any recognized campus organization.
5. Records will be lent for a two day period. Those taken out on Monday will be due on Wednesday; Tuesday on Thursday; Wednesday and Thursday on Friday; and Friday on Monday.
6. Any member of the university family with sufficient identification will be able to check out records.

King Title Candidates Number 37

Thirty-seven candidates have been named to vie for the title of King of Hearts, Norma Hamilton announced Wednesday. Houses may still submit their candidates' names until 5 p.m. today to Norma Hamilton at Pi Beta Phi or Mary Wilson at Delta Gamma.

Candidates are Bill Paulus, Alpha Chi Omega; Ron Lowell, Alpha Delta Pi; Bill Kaizer, Alpha Gamma Delta, Alpha Omicron Pi and Sigma Nu; Chuck Greenley, Alpha Phi; Michael Lundy, Alpha Xi Delta and Sigma Phi Epsilon; Jim Livesay, Carson hall; Fred Becker, Chi Omega; Lloyd Powell, Delta Delta Delta.

Mel Erickson, Delta Gamma; Jim Hetrick, Delta Zeta and Chi Psi; Bill Kirby, Gamma Phi Beta; Tom Harrison, Hendricks hall; Lloyd Marshall, Highland house; Ron Lyman, Kappa Alpha Theta; Tuffy Wise, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Ken Wegner, Orides; Jim Miller, Pi Beta Phi; Larry Beckius, Rebec house.

Neil Trilling, Sigma Kappa; Don Monte, University house and Campbell club; Clary McFarland, Zeta Tau Alpha; Bill Schuppel, Alpha Tau Omega; Martin Meadows, Barrister inn; Russell Manx, Beta Theta Pi; Tom Shepherd, Gamma hall.

Bob Muirhead, Hale Kane; Jim Archer, Phi Delta Theta; Dick Bernard, Minturn-Merrick hall; Jerry Harrell, Phi Sigma Kappa; Robert Duffy, Pi Kappa Phi; Jim Owens, Sigma Chi; Pat Viles, Stitzer hall; Don Jackson, Susan Campbell; Al Babb, Theta Chi; Cline McLemore, Yeomen; Dean McMullen, Sherry Ross; Al Barzman, Sigma Alpha Mu, Milan Foster

Half of the candidates will be interviewed by the Y sophomore cabinet Monday noon and the other half on the following Monday. The twelve semi-finalists, who will be selected from the whole group, will be narrowed in the final eliminations to six finalists. Chosen by campus vote, the King of Hearts will be crowned at the basketball game Feb. 20.

Classifieds

FOR RENT—Room and board or board alone. See Mrs. Kile at 874 E. 13th. Ph. 4-0422. 1-16

FOR RENT: Men's sleeping rooms near campus. Double or single. $20-$25 month. See Gwen at Hamburger Inn, 1290 Patterson. 1-19

AUTO RADIOS — New and used for all cars. Eugene Radio Co. 7th and Charnelton. Ph. 4-8722.

It was also decided at the board meeting that the responsibility of staffing the music listening room will revert back to the SU administration. However, any music listening room business of a program nature will still be handled by the SU board.

Dick Williams, student director, next reported on the special events committee. The board accepted his recommendation that there will be no more special attractions sponsored this year by the Student Union. This decision was reached due to the fact that no suitable programs were available.

Reporting on special events, Zavin announced that no petitions for chairmanships of the bridge and billiard tournaments had been received. Earlier in the meeting the board accepted the revised budget as submitted by Sandra Price, board treasurer.

Campus Calendar

9 a.m. IFC Edg	214 SU
Noon Phi Alpha Delta	113 SU
AAA Fac Lunch	111 SU
Coop Bd	112 SU
1 p.m. YMCA Cab	318 SU
4 AWS Congress	112 SU
Panhellenic Exec Bd	110 SU
6:30 ASUO Senate	333 SU
7:30 Chess Club	213 SU
7:45 City Panhellenic	113 SU
8 Condon Lect Ballroom SU
Ins. Soc	315 SU

Schwering Dinner House Pairings Listed for Today

This term's Hazel Schwering dime dinner is scheduled for Thursday, Jan. 15, according to Pat Ward, president of Heads of Houses.

Pairings for the dinner, according to Miss Ward, are: Alpha Chi Omega-Carson 3; Alpha Delta Pi-Carson 4; Alpha Gamma Delta-Carson 5; Alpha Omicron Pi-Gamma Beta; Chi Omega-Alpha Phi; Delta Delta Delta-Alpha Xi Delta; Delta Gamma-Ann Judson house; Delta Zeta-Carson 1 and 2; Kappa Kappa Gamma-Zeta Tau Alpha; Orides-Hendricks hall; Pi Beta Phi-Highland house; Rebec house-Kappa Alpha Theta; University house-Sigma Kappa.

All women's living organizations will exchange members and charge one dime for dinner. The money will go toward a $300 scholarship issued spring term to a junior woman.

The scholarship is given in memory of Hazel Schwering, former dean of women and is sponsored by Heads of Houses.

Assembly Tryouts Will Be Wednesday

First tryouts, held Wednesday night, for the "Webfoot Impressions of 1953" exchange assembly yielded several singers and dancers. A second tryout session is to be held Wednesday, January 21 at 6:30 p.m. in the SU ballroom.

Joanne Forbes, co-director, told of the need for more instrumental numbers and comedy or specialty acts. The number of finalists will be announced later when transportation facilities are determined. Scheduled stops are Oregon State college and Willamette University.

All acts are requested to come prepared to the tryouts.

Norma Hamilton Heads Heart Hop

Chairman for the Heart Hop, slated Feb. 20, have been selected, announced Norma Hamilton, Y soph cabinet president.

General co-chairmen are Nancy Randolph and Shirley Wendt. Other committee co-chairmen are voting—Janet Kregness and Martha Davis; publicity—Joanne Kopp and Judy Johnson; promotion—Marilyn Parrish and Jill Hutchings; decorations—Beverly Jones and Nancy Reine; tickets—Hope Holgerson and Geraldine Porritt; and coronation—Janet Woods and Nancy Leaverton.

Webb to Present Award to Paper

Carl Webb, assistant professor of journalism, will address the Roseburg Chamber of Commerce Monday at which time he will present a certificate of honorable mention to the Roseburg News-Review as one of the winners in the recent National Newspaper Week contest.

Speaking under the joint sponsorship of the University and the Oregon Newspaper Publishers association, of which he is executive secretary, Webb will represent the Newspaper Managers association when he presents the award to the News-Review, the only paper in Oregon to win this award.

• STARTS •
SUNDAY
TOP-DRAWER COMEDY FARE!

Starring
Alec GUINNESS · Joan GREENWOOD
Cecil PARKER
A UNIVERSAL INTERNATIONAL RELEASE

Students 40c