Globe Trotters In Mac Court For All Stars

Coach Abe Saperstein brings a talented band of Harlem Globe Trotters into the local McArthur court for a brief one-night stay, next Monday evening, at which time the colorful casaba aces will try their wares on a team made up of ex-Oregon all stars.

The Hawaiian Surf Riders and Philadelphia Sphas, also experts in hoop antics, will vie in the preliminary.

The wandering nomads of the cage world returned recently from the first round-the-world trip in basketball, meeting teams from the tropics of Africa to the capitals of the Far East.

The Globe Trotters, in 26 years of travel have amassed a phenomenal .941 won-lost percentage. They improved it last year with 325 wins and eight losses.

Captain of the colored cagers is 6 feet, 3 inch "Babe" Pressley, now in his sixteenth year with the Trotters. Other stars include Carl Helem, Robert Hall, Leon Hillard, Bobby Milton, J. C. Gipson, and "Sonny" Smith.

Houbregs Ahead In Scoring Honors; Ducks' Noe Second

LOS ANGELES — (P) — There's plenty of daylight between Bob Houbregs of the University of Washington and his nearest rival for scoring honors in the Northern division of the Pacific Coast conference hoop race.

In four games, Houbregs has averaged 34 points and his total of 136 puts him more than halfway toward the 365-point season record set in 1948 by Jack Nichols, also of Washington. Houbregs still has 12 games to play.

Trailing Houbregs in scoring are Chet Noe, University of Oregon, with 17.3 average; Hartly Krueger, University of Idaho, 15.3, and Ken Wegner, Oregon, 14.8. Krueger has played in three divisional games and the rest four, the PCC commissioner's office reported.

Last Saturday night Houbregs shattered three individual game records as Washington beat Idaho. He tallied 49 points, had the most field goal attempts with 31, and the most field goals with 19. In division play he's been hitting at a 58.2 percent clip with 53 field goals in 91 shots.

Oregon's Ed Halberg has a better percentage with 21 field goals in 34 attempts for 61.8. Houbregs also has hit 30 of his 37 free throw attempts, as the Huskies remain undefeated in the division.

TWELVE TAKE TRIP

Webfoot Casaba Artists Practice Against Simulated Vandal Quintet

By Rick Tarr
Emerald Sportswriter

Coach Bill Borchert put his traveling squad through its last workout Wednesday afternoon before boarding a train for Moscow, Idaho this morning. The twelve cagers who will attempt to put Oregon back in the running with the necessary wins over the Vandals are: Alex Byler, Ken Wegner, Chet Noe, Keith Farnum, Hank Bonneman, Bob Stout, Bud Covey, Wayne Johnson, Howard Page, Ed Halberg, Bob Hawes, and Barney Holland.

Wednesday's agenda included offense against a zone defense (in anticipation of the Oregon State series), defense against the Idaho attack, rebound screening, and offense drill.

The team which has been simulating Idaho in practices was composed of Harlan Mickey, Gordy Green, Ray Bell, Wayne Johnson, and Bud Covey. They worked plays off the "merry-go-round" and "stack-up" styles of offense taught by Vandal Coach Jack Finley.

The latter is executed by everyone jamming into the key at the same time to draw the defense in so that one man can break clear for the basket in the confusion. The starting five seemed to have everything under control, but whether they can do it against the veteran Idaho quintet remains to be seen.

So far this season against the same opponents, Washington and Washington State, Oregon has fared somewhat better. Oregon overwhelmed the Cougars from Pullman twice in a row while Idaho was pressed all the way to win by a mere 49-50. The murderous Washington Huskies took both Idaho and Oregon but the Webfoots were harder to subdue, coming close to winning the first game.

Charles TKO's Bascom in Nine

ST. LOUIS (P) — Former heavy-weight champion Ezzard Charles had an easy time with stubborn Wes Bascom last night, punching out a technical knockout in the ninth round of their scheduled 10-rounder at St. Louis arena.

Bascom, making only his 20th pro start, was in trouble from Charles' continued attack in nearly every round but refused to go down. Referee Dick Young finally ended the one-sided match, stepping between the fighters after two minutes and 34 seconds of the ninth.

Charles out-weighed the 23-year-old Bascom, 188 to 178½ as he continued his bid to regain the title he lost to Jersey Joe Walcott in 1951.

The bout was telecast (CBS) nationally.

Seton Hall Win Drops Fordham From Unbeaten

NEW YORK (P) — Towering Walter Dukes poured in 31 points Wednesday night as Seton Hall defeated Fordham 69 to 62 in a wild game between the nation's only unbeaten major college basketball teams.

It was Seton Hall's 16th consecutive victory and Fordham's first loss after eleven straight wins.

Despite a 36 to 23 halftime advantage, Seton Hall had to spurt in the closing minutes to salvage its clean slate and its number two ranking in the last Associated Press poll. With Dukes' defensive efforts shackled by four personal fouls, Fordham rallied to lead 54 to 53 early in the fourth quarter and trailed by only one point—61 to 60—with less than two minutes to play.

Seton Hall chose to freeze the ball and capitalized on Fordham mistakes to extend its lead.

Dukes wound up the night with 12 field goals and seven free throws. Al Lyons led Fordham's balanced attack with 15 points.

Basketball Great Faces Bribe Trial

NEW YORK (P) — Former Kentucky basketball All-American Bill Spivey went on trial today, charged with giving false testimony to a New York Grand jury.

The 23-year-old Spivey is accused of lying seven times, mainly in denying he talked to anyone about fixes of the point spread in Kentucky games during the 1950-51 season. The indictment charges that Spivey talked over such matters with convicted gambler Jack (Zip) West and two Kentucky teammates, Jim Line and Walt Hirsch.

West himself furnished the major development today as the court went about selecting a jury. As a witness, West balked yesterday at testifying before a grand jury and was given until today to change his mind. Today, he protested that authorities had no right to bring him into court and was rewarded with a charge of contempt of grand jury proceedings. At the request of West's attorney, contempt proceedings were held over until tomorrow.

Meantime, five jurors were selected before Judge Saul S. Streit who will preside over Spivey's trial. By his questions to prospective jurors, Spivey's attorney — John Young Brown of Lexington, Kentucky—indicated the defense will confine itself to character testimony.
