Tryouts for University Play To Be Held Tuesday in Villard

Tryouts for "The Mistakes of a Night," more familiarly known as "She Stoops to Conquer," will be held Tuesday at 4 p.m. and again at 7:30 p.m. in 102 Villard, according to Mrs. Otilie Seybolt, director.

Parts in the play, scheduled to be the fourth production of the University theater, are open to all University students. Previous acting experience is not essential.

The merry comedy, which borders on a farce, will be given in the arena theater Feb. 27, 28, March 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 9, 10, 11 and 12.

"There are four excellent parts for women and six for men with a few additional short ones for people who would like to participate but prefer a character which appears in only one or two scenes," said Mrs. Seybolt.

The people of the play include young Marlow, bashful with the ladies, but bolder with the barmaids, unwilling suitor to the lovely, but spirited girl, Kate Hardcastle; Kate's lovely cousin Constance who is attempting to elope with her fiance, Marlow's young traveling companion, Hastings; and Kate's mischief-making step brother, Tony Lumpkin, a favorite role for many generations of "character" actors.

Tony's doting mother, whose persistent efforts to marry him to Constance drive him to seek what she calls "low" companions at the village tavern; Mr. Hardcastle, Kate's father, and the old family retainer, Diggory, are also characters involved in the story.

Johnson's Office Moved from Fenton

The offices of Eldon L. Johnson, dean of the college of liberal arts and the graduate school, have been moved from Fenton hall to Johnson hall. The moving was done over the past weekend.

Johnson said his old office is to be used for an extension of the law school library. Johnson has used the offices in Fenton for the past five years.

Petitions Available For YWCA Posts

YWCA petitions for next year's officers may be obtained in the Y office at Gerlinger hall during January.

Freshmen, sophomore and junior women are eligible for elective offices on the cabinet which includes president, 2nd vice president, secretary, treasurer and upperclass commission chairman. Juniors and seniors will be given preference on these positions.

Appointive positions open to all women include chairmen of service, public affairs, social, international affairs, religious growth, worship, publicity, membership, promotion, conference, sophomore advisors and junior advisors.

In addition to these elective and appointive offices freshmen women may petition for elective positions on the sophomore commission, including chairman and secretary. They are also eligible for appointive offices—chairmen of membership, duckling counselling, social, finance, promotion, service, chaplain and publicity.

Shirley Temple Film Scheduled Sunday

Oregon students who have never had an opportunity to see Shirley Temple in one of her earlier hits will be able to see the famous child star in "Captain January" to be shown in the Student Union ballroom Sunday at 2:30 and 4:30 p.m.

Adapted from an 1890 best seller by Laura Richards, "Captain January" is the story of a poor little girl who is raised by a kindly light-house keeper. The film is an excellent vehicle for Miss Temple's many talents including singing, dancing and being her natural self which won her world wide fame in the 1930's.

The film is being shown on the campus by the SU movie committee. Admission is 30 cents.

Noted Journalist To Speak at Oregon

A noted journalist from India, Sudhaker Bhat, will appear in a coffee hour forum to be held Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Dad's Lounge of the Student Union.

Bhat is currently visiting the United States as a guest of the state department. His visit to the campus is being sponsored by coffee hour forum committee and the International Relations club.

'Friday at Four' Scheduled Today

Karl Harshbarger, junior in speech, will be master-of-ceremonies at the "Friday at Four" program to be held in the Fishbowl of the Student Union today at 4 p.m.

Scheduled to appear on the program are Patricia Hartley, vocalist; Gloria Lee, record pantomime; and Dick Buffington and Marv Young, piano and guitar numbers. Dorothy Anderson, chairman of the SU music committee, is in charge of the entertainment.

Apple Polisher Party To Be Held Tuesday

On Tuesday, from 4 to 5 p.m. the Apple Polisher Party, sponsored by the Associated Women Students, will be held in the Dad's Lounge of the SU.

All faculty and students are invited to attend the informal get together.

The party is a new project this year, and if it is successful, it will become an annual affair, chairman Dorothy Kopp said.

Those planning the event include Dorene Geinger, Jo Kopp, Sue Smith and Miss Kopp.

Farmer's Wife Show To Use Folk Music

A new experiment in radio production, incorporating folk music as a part of the story, will be broadcast tonight at 9 p.m. over campus station KWAX and at 4:30 over KOAC.

This novel type of dramatization was written by Karl Harshbarger and produced by Jack Vaughn. Featured members of the cast are Jim Blue, Gordon Howard and Joanne Forbes. Also in the cast are Leonard Qverhauser, Spencer Snow and Karl Harshbarger.

The plot centers around a drifting farmhand and his love affair with the farmer's wife. Well-known folk songs such as "Down in the Valley" and "Jimmy Crack Corn" are included.
