

Campbell Club Trips Legal Eagles; Sigma Nu Wins Friday on Court

A lightning fast break offense and the high scoring of Earl Ferguson, Elmer Jones, and Lowry Hoyer led the way as Campbell Club literally ran the Legal Eagles right off the floor. Ferguson tallied 12 counters for top point honors and he was closely followed by Jones with 11 and Hoyer with 10. Hal Tollifer's eight points was high for the losers.

The winners raced to an early lead and were never headed along the way. Score by quarters read: 13-0, 27-6, and 33-9.

Sammies Fall, 22-20

A twenty foot one-handed set shot from the left corner by Ken Sodeberg in the final 15 seconds of the game gave the Sigma Nu's a hard earned 22-20 victory over a scrappy Sigma Alpha Mu five.

For Sodeberg this shot also gave him high point honors for his team with six points. Don Olds collected the same amount for the losers.

The tussle was quite close all the way through with the count being tied 5-5 at the conclusion of the first period and 14-14 as the third quarter terminated. At the half Sigma Nu held a slim 10-8 lead.

SAE Bs Dump Sig Chis

The Sigma Alpha Epsilon Bs squeezed out a close 23-21 win over the Sigma Chi Bs in a nip and tuck contest. The Sigs led 4-0 at the end of the first quarter, but SAE Guard Bill Hardon tallied five second quarter points to give his team a 7-6 halftime margin and send them on their way. Hardon was tops for the game with nine while Wayne Powell tallied five to lead the Sigs.

Nestor Slams Stitzer

Paced by the fine shooting of George Johnston and Bob Walberg, Nestor hall rolled over Stitzer, 32-15, in intramural action Friday. The winners forged a 7-4 first quarter lead, ran it up to 17-8 at the half, and held a 21-10 edge at the end of the third period.

Johnston with 11 points was high while Walberg counted for seven. Dick Everts topped the Stitzer team with six counters.

OVERTIME AT MOSCOW

Hawes Buckets Stop Idahoans; Webfoots Win Wild, Wooly One

MOSCOW, Ida.—Sizzling in the stretch, the University of Oregon Webfoots stunned the University of Idaho Vandals, 79-76 Friday night in the opening game of a two-game Northern division series in Memorial gymnasium.

Guard Bob Hawes was the Ducks' fair-haired boy, putting the game into overtime with a close-in set shot, then bucketing a longer push in the extra period which spelled victory.

No Breeze

It wasn't a breeze for the Webfoots, though. The Vandals broke from the starting gate in a rush and opened up a 24-13 lead at the end of the first quarter. Tall Dwight Morrison, Idaho forward, opened the scoring and teammate Bob Falash dropped through another two-pointer and the Vandals kept the edge until Hawes' desperation shot in the last 15 seconds of the overtime.

The Webfoots managed only four buckets in the initial quarter, and three of those were by Wegner, who scored 20 points before fouling out in the "fifth" period. With two minutes remaining in the first half the Vandals still maintained an 11 point advantage, 39-28. Quickly Chet Noe right-handed a hook; Wegner registered a tip-in; Keith Farnam and C. W. Totten exchanged free tosses; and Idaho's Falash hit with another extra pointer. Noe then bucketed a layup and Jim Sather hit a free toss. But the Ducks had narrowed the gap to 35-42 at halftime.

Stall Beaten

With six minutes remaining in play the Vandals attempted a stall, but eight Oregon personal fouls and a couple of interceptions dissipated the freeze. At the two minute mark Center Hartly Krueger bowed out of the contest on personals and Wegner plunked in two free throws and the score was 67-66, Vandals.

Totten connected on two foul tosses, but ace Guard Bruce McIntosh missed twice from the free throw line and Noe followed up by hitting twice following another violation. Totten again failed twice and Morrison missed one of his two shots—then came Hawes and the score was 70-70 at the final gun.

With less than a minute to play in the overtime Falash sank a free throw to hand the Vandals a 76-73 edge. Ed Halberg zeroed one from the key; McIntosh missed twice at the free throw line once again; then Hawes—Johnny on the spot—canned one and Bob Stout added two insurance points.

The Vandals missed 19 free throws to the Ducks' three missed connections. Noe tipped in the scoring column with 23 scores.

Beta Bs Drop Phi Delts

The Beta Theta Pi Bs poured in nine points in an overtime session to defeat the Phi Delta Theta Bs, 31-24. Dick Adams with 11 points, five in the extra period, topped scorers.

Trailing 4-5, 7-15, and 12-19 at the quarter, the Betas waxed hot in the fourth quarter as Paul Jackson and Hal Reeve sparked a scoring drive. The Phi Delts had moved to a seemingly commanding half time lead as Don Holt hit four consecutive baskets on as many shots in the second quarter.

REBOUND

Vandals Slash Ducks, 73-57

MOSCOW, Ida. — A second-quarter scoring spree gave the Idaho Vandals a comfortable 14-point half-time edge and enabled them to coast to a 73-57 victory over the Oregon Webfoots in a foul-filled Northern division contest played Saturday night at Moscow.

After a nip-and-tuck first period which saw Oregon leading 17-14 at the buzzer, it was all Idaho with Hartley Kruger and Dwight Morrison pacing the attack which ground out a 40-26 lead at the intermission.

Fouls were definitely a big handicap to the Webfoots, for both Chet Noe and his replacement, Hank Bonneman collected four fouls in the first half—a factor which caused them to play cautiously for the rest of the game and thus reduced the Oregon rebound and defensive strength. Bob Hawes was the only Webfoot to be whistled out, however. Kruger and Bill Mather went out via the foul route for Idaho.

Vandals Open Up

Idaho really opened up in the third period, racing to a 52-34 lead with just six and one-half minutes played in the quarter. That was their longest lead, and the Ducks slowly shortened it until they were within eight points in the game. Ed Halberg, who was high scorer for Oregon with a 17-point total, and Ken Wagner paced this rally. But the Webfoots never got closer as Idaho scored one more field goal and then proceeded to freeze the ball—a tactic which gained them 12 more points from the foul-line and secured the game for them.

Idaho totaled 23 field goals for the game, 11 of them coming in the second period, while Oregon managed only 18 baskets. The Vandals shot at a .360 clip with Oregon hitting at .270 for the game.

The Idaho victory was definitely aided by the below-par passing and ball-handling of the Ducks. Time after time Oregon passes were intercepted or the ball was stolen by the alert Vandals.

Dons Here Friday

Oregon will meet the University of San Francisco at McArthur Court on Friday and will play Portland University at Portland Saturday.
