

MEADOWS' DERBY

Seton Hall Rates First This Week

By Martin Meadows Emerald Sportswriter

The nation's only remaining major unbeaten basketball squad, the Seton Hall Pirates of South Orange, New Jersey, took over the top rung in this week's rankings.

Pirates Still Unbeaten

Meanwhile, Seton Hall made it 18 straight as they climbed from second to first. During a rough week, the Pirates tripped Xavier, 86-78, bumped Fordham from the unbeaten ranks, 69-62, dumped Dayton, 82-74, and swamped Boston College by a 92-71 margin.

North Carolina State's Wolf-pack (16-2) kept pace with two wins and skipped from fourth to second. The Southerners registered a 62-58 triumph over William & Mary, and checked in with their second decision of the season over powerful George Washington, 76-69, almost duplicating an earlier 75-68 score.

LaSalle, last week's leaders, tumbled to third after losing to DePaul for the second time this year, 68-62. However, the Explorers balanced this by thumping Manhattan, 63-52, in Madison Square Garden. LaSalle's slate now stands at 14-2.

Despite a loss to Seton Hall, Fordham moved up a notch to fourth. The Rams offset their first defeat by smashing Syracuse, 92-70, to compile a 12-1 record.

The seemingly unbeatable Washington Huskies continued their upward march with two victories over Oregon State, 77-54 and 68-56, giving them 13 wins to go with a lone setback at the hands of UCLA. Taking advantage of the many upsets last week, the Huskies jumped from seventh place.

Close behind is the perennial hoop power, Oklahoma A&M, which leaped from tenth to sixth by easing past Detroit, 57-50, and blasting traditional rival Oklahoma, 70-59. The Aggies now boast 12 wins as compared with two defeats.

Another upset victim, Kansas State, fell from fifth to seventh following an 80-66 loss at the hands of Kansas. It was State's only contest of the week and left the team with an 8-2 ledger.

Eastern Kentucky Leaps

Surprising Eastern Kentucky (10-2) rocketed from 17th to eighth by virtue of racking up a 78-69 decision over Western Kentucky. Earlier in the week the Maroons, already holders of triumphs over Brigham Young, Toledo, and Louisville, had swept past Morehead, 83-73.

Western Kentucky surrendered the number eight slot to Eastern but managed to hold on in ninth following its 12th win, 99-61, over Tennessee Tech. The Hilltoppers have three losses, and are barely ahead of tenth-spot Tulsa (12-2), another newcomer to the top ten. The Hurricanes edged ahead of Notre Dame as they put the skids under strong Oklahoma City, 65-62.

Three Day Layoff Set By Borchner

By Larry Lavelle Emerald Sports Editor

Rest and relaxation—more of it—are on tap for Coach Bill Borchner and his University of Oregon Webfoots. Borchner, rather than risk the chance of his club's growing stale, ordered a three day layoff last Monday and the Ducks won't return to the court until Thursday and then for only a short workout prior to the University of San Francisco game the next night.

Keith Farnam, who aggravated an old back injury Saturday at Moscow, should be ready for action this weekend. Otherwise, the club is in excellent shape for the final non-conference games of the season, against the Dons in McArthur court, and against the Portland university Pilots Saturday in Portland.

For Phil Woolpert's Hilltoppers, the Oregon game will be the first of a three-game junket into the Northwest. After a tour of the Midwest, the Dons have put together a string of five victories, including a decision over the Olympic Club of San Francisco, sparked by such ex-collegians as California's Chuck Hanger and Washington's Frank Guiness.

Dons Strong

The Dons have just about the strongest lineup of any independent in California. Frank Evangelho, six-foot five-inch center from Oakland; Phil Vukicevich, six-foot one-inch guard from San Francisco; and K. C. (Casey) Jones, six-foot one-inch forward, also from San Francisco, form the SF backbone.

Twenty-two year-old Guard Cappy Lavin, who played on USA's National Invitational tourney championship team, is having difficulty fighting off the challenge of Carl Lawson, a junior, for the other slot along with Vukicevich, which indicates the depth which the Dons boast.

The business office announced a switch in the starting time of Friday's preliminary from 5:45 p.m. to 6 p.m. The Ducklings host the Oregon State Rooks for the first time this year and it marks the initial appearance of Wade (Swede) Halbrook since last March when he led Lincoln high of Portland to the State basketball championship.

The Campbell Clubbers added ten more to their score in the final frame while holding the Phils scoreless. Jerry Ross come out with high scoring honors with twelve points.

Merrick Hall opened the scoring and led at the first quarter mark 7-6, only to have that lead taken away from them in the second quarter for a 15-12 lead for French Hall at the half time. The Stitzer team took an early 6 to 1 lead and coasted to victory. The Stitzerites were paced by B. Todd, who registered 13 points. Sandy Kam gained runner-up honors by scoring 10 points, mostly on long hook shots. High point man for Nestor was Sam Sorenson with 8 points. The quarter scores were 8-3, 15-7, 19-11, and 29-17.

Food Shortage

Bhat told the group. "A food problem in India means a critical shortage of cereals." The yield per acre is about the lowest in the world because of the poor means of production. With improved methods of farming the yield could be doubled or even trebled.

When questioned on the subject of the caste system, Bhat stated that it will not last. In the beginning it was a device for dealing with minorities.
