

Campus Merry-Go-Round

At Alpha Chi Omega . . .

Recent pinnings at the Alpha Chi house include those of Joan Long to Fiji Ken Ruff and Doris Stenchel to Phi Delt Al Mundle. Laura Pearson has announced her engagement to Walt Gast. Walt is a Portland boy, now serving in the army. Wedding plans are being made for June. Harriet Booth and Chuck Scofield have announced their engagement and plan to be married this summer. Scofield was a Sigma Nu at Oregon before going into the armed forces.

At Alpha Omicron Pi . . .

Two AOPi's became engaged over the holidays. Barbara Bullock is wearing the ring of Jack Wadman, DU, and Audie Jones is engaged to ATO Jerry Aiken. Virginia Rose is wearing the Sigma Nu pin of Bob Bennett, and pledge Sue Galbreath is pinned to DU Craig Weatherford. Barbara Silva was married to Bob Cool, USAF, in Cottage Grove during the Christmas vacation.

At Alpha Xi Delta

Joyce Clark was given a bridal shower by members of Alpha Xi during the holidays. Miss Clark is to be married to Joe Schafer, Sigma Nu, in February. Floy Louise Von Groenewald and Evelyn Wickman were recently initiated as members of Alpha Xi Delta. Audrey La Fever has announced her engagement to Ed Munton of OSC. A June wedding is planned.

At Chi Omega

Gayle Pattee has announced her pinning to SAE Bob White. Joan Murphy and Matt Vranizan, Phi Delt, are also pinned. Bev DeMott and Pi Kap Fred Decker have announced their engagement. Merla Price is engaged to Wayne Carothers, Sigma Chi, who is now with the United States Air Force in Denver, Colo. A recent Chi O marriage is that of Nonnie Lageson to Jim Vranizan, a Phi Delt graduate of 1952.

At Kappa Kappa Gamma

During fall term, Shari Long announced her engagement to Beta Malcolm Marsh. A summer wedding is planned. Dorothy Anderle became the bride of Ron Cole, of Pacific and Christmas vacation. Ann Woodcock is wearing the ATO pin of Larry Brecht and Pat Marks is pinned to Fiji Ben Baldwin, who is now attending Santa Clara university. Pinned during Christmas vacation were Audrey Campbell to ATO Bill Knapp from OSC; Earlene Smith to Chi Psi Tom Tarbell, now in the air corps, and Gerry Yeager to Beta Dick Fettig. Freshmen pinned during the holidays are Becky Fortie to Beta Craig Bearisto, and Anne Chambers to Marty Hankinson, ATO.

At Phi Sigma Kappa

Activity has dominated the first two weeks of winter term in the Phi Sig house. Rush week was preceded by a warm week and weekend of initiations. Frank Beeman, Bob Enright and Ron Miller are the newly initiated members. Keeping all Phi Sigs busy has been the complete remodeling of the downstairs of the chapter house, plans for a house dance in the near future and efforts to set a regional conclave of the fraternity underway. In the "hearts and flowers" line, Tom Karen has announced his pinning to a mysterious beauty named "Cosey" from Portland. . . Ron Miller followed suit by planting his brass on Harriet Bennet, an Alpha Chi at Willamette.

At Pi Kappa Alpha

New officers have been elected as follows: Ray Gilkey, president; Royce Chadwick, vice president; George Booth, secretary; Bob Johnson, house manager; George Booth, social chairman; Bob Anderson, rushing chairman. Newly initiated members of PiKA are Clarence Suiter, Lyle Morris, Bob Rounds, Dick Swennes and Bill Ruitter. Royce Chadwick has announced his engagement to Barbara Neiger, Theta from OSC.

At Sigma Alpha Mu

Married over Christmas was Jerome Caplan to Wilma Goldberg, AEPi from the University of Washington. During the same period, Al Goldenberg announced his engagement to Rae Sadis of Portland, while Dick Davis pinned Sue Milford, DPhiE from the University of California.

At Sigma Kappa

Fal term culminated at the Sigma Kappa house with the announcements of one pinning and of two engagements. Mary Ann Foster is pinned to Lambda Chi Dick Hollenbeck. Jean Ann McGee is engaged to Delt Phil Lamb and Marianne Merrick to Lee Dressel from the University of Idaho.

At Theta Chi

Hal Dunham is engaged to Mary Kelly, Alpha Chi; Don Almy to Pi Phi Janet Kregness, and Joe Almond to Eliza Gray, of Portland. Jack Flaucher has transferred to Portland state this term. Initiation for this term is now in progress.

At University House

The term at University house began with the initiation of twenty girls. The house also had a record attendance of members and their dates at the annual all-co-op formal, "Enchanted Forest," Jan. 17. During the holidays Shirley Schultz received the Alpha Zeta pin of Wayne Andrus, Pacific university. Joanne Johnston announced her engagement to Delmar Aebescher, Seattle Pacific university.

London Economist To Instruct at UO

Hermann Mannheim, of the London School of Economics, will visit the University of Oregon campus during spring term this year in the capacity of visiting sociology professor.

Former chairman of a prison commission in England and Wales, Mannheim conducted follow-up investigation of studies on juvenile delinquency which had been conducted at Harvard.

Sponsored here by the Carnegie fellowship program, Mannheim will teach three courses, two of which are seminars in "comparative correctional systems" and "sex deviants and the law."

European events and a campus drama will take top interest spots on today's KWAX programs with Nina Ollascutch from Belgium giving vacation-minded Americans an idea of "What Hitchhiking is Like in Europe," on Report From Europe.

Today's Radio Workshop drama will star Sandra Price, Clarence Suiter, Gerald Pearce, John Bree and Hugh Garrabrant in the story of a small-town doctor whose discovery of an asthma and hay-fever cure is overshadowed by a fellow doctor, until the small-town practitioner points out the fallacies in the other man's theories.

Ernest J. Simmons will present "Music to Order" over the People Under Communism show to illustrate the control over artistic fields by the Communist Party.

Sanity is a pressing question on Theodore Hager's discussion of the subject "Are Oboists Mad?" on Musician Comments today.

A thorough discussion of a hot subject will be given by Dr. John Ciardi of Harvard when he reviews Dante's book, "Inferno" on the Old Books, Old Friends program.

Friday's broadcast of "Way Beyond the West" will feature Alan Watts in a continuation of his talks on Eastern philosophy with a discussion of Vedante. A different slant on philosophy is offered on the Folk Songs and Footnotes show when Lou Ford comments on records of love, marriage and court-ing.

Sunday offers dramatic entertainment in "Crisis in Avondale," a tale of abuses of freedom of speech on Cry of Warning, and G. B. Harrison continues his study of English literature on the Humanities Lecture show.

Britain's perennial favorite program, the BBC Theater, is also offered on Sunday, this week dramatizing "Dare to be Free."

Albury Castell, head of the philosophy department will continue his "Window in the Ivory Tower" series on Monday with a discussion of the high spots in the life of Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes. Variety will be added by Monday's musical Guest Star show, featuring Jane Powell this week.

A narrative on Indo-Pakistan music featuring Ahmad Jalaluddin, junior in pre-med from Karachi, Pakistan will be broadcast tonight at 9:30. It will be a tape recorded broadcast featuring the narrative illustrated by music.
