The appeal of communism is great to the people who have been crowded into small areas as displaced persons and to those who have lived a feudal life, he said. Having found that some people are living a better life, they are stirring. It is our job to get in to the common people and let them discover our true spirit, he stressed.

Catholic View

The Catholic point of view was given at a morning address by the Rev. Matthias Burger, O.S.B. The four features of the Catholic faith according to Father Burger are the faith concept, the sacramental value of the visible world, their works of charity and their assessment of the value of the individual man.

Rev. Paul Wright, pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Portland, urged a "fraternity of all men" as the most effective weapon against Communism in his address "The Protestant Church Looks at Communism." He suggested an approach to Communism through religion.

Street scene in Tehachapi after last July's earthquake.

...EARTHQUAKE...

In the predawn of last July 21, the most severe California earthquake since 1906 struck the small town of Tehachapi.

Walls were collapsing, buildings were folding. The town's telephone office shook to its foundation. But the night operator remained at her switchboard until it went dead. Main cables to the office were pulled to the ground when a nearby wall caved in.

This was at 4:50 A.M.

By 8:30 A.M. telephones were set up on the edge of town for use by the Red Cross and other emergency workers.

By late afternoon, the telephone switchboard was working. Tehachapi residents were able to contact friends and relatives concerned about their safety.

By 9 P.M. two TV stations were sending live telecasts of the damage. Telephone men had established a radio-relay system in less than 12 hours.

It was a typical disaster—brutal and unannounced. But telephone men were prepared. They quickly restored communication when it was needed most. They demonstrated the resourcefulness and technical skill typical of telephone people.

These are some of the qualities we seek in the college graduates we hire. Your Placement Officer can give you details about opportunities for employment in the Bell System. Or write to American Telephone and Telegraph Company, College Relations Section, 195 Broadway, New York 7, New York, for the booklet, "Looking Ahead."
