Webfoot Paddlers Retain State Title

The University of Oregon swimming team retained its state AAU senior men's championship last weekend, outdistancing its nearest competitor by 30 points. The two-day meet, held in Portland at the Multnomah Athletic club pool, ended Sunday. Coach John Borhardt's crew scored 113 points, Multnomah Athletic club, 82, and the Aero club, 65.

Gordon Edwards and Yosh Terada were the top point getters for Oregon, each gaining a pair of firsts in the two day stand. Saturday, Edwards won the 1,500-meter freestyle in 20:28.8 and placed second in the 220-yard freestyle, losing to Bob Gregson of the Aero club. Sunday, Edwards captured the 440-yard freestyle.

Terada scored his two victories in the 150-yard backstroke and the 100-yard breast stroke. He established a new state record in the latter event by finishing in 1:05.2. It was the only new record made in the men's division of the meet.

Saturday, Oregon won the 400-yard freestyle in 3:47.6.
