

'Death of a Salesman' To Open Friday Night

Arthur Miller's play, "Death of a Salesman," will be open at 8 p.m. Friday for a six production run, under the direction of F. J. Hunter, instructor in speech.

Tickets for the play, third production of the University theater's current season, are available at the theater ticket office this week from 1 to 5 p.m., according to Mrs. Gene Wiley, theater business manager.

Jim Blue, senior in liberal arts and veteran UT player, is cast in the role of Willie Loman, the salesman. Linda, his wife, will be portrayed by Jeanne Gottfredson, graduate in speech. Clarence Suiter and Phil Sanders, both juniors in speech, will play the roles of Biff and Happy, his two sons.

The play tells the story of a little Brooklyn salesman, with delusions of material success, who is unable to face the reality of his actual failure as a businessman and father.

The production will run Feb. 6, 7, 11, 12, 13 and 14 and is in conjunction with the Festival of Contemporary Arts now being held on the campus.

Foreign Study Spots Available

Huston W. Miller, representing the Institute of International Education, will be on the campus today to give information concerning opportunities for American students to study abroad.

Those interested in the institute's program should call Ext. 227 for appointments to see Miller, who will be in the Office of Student Affairs. He will not return to the campus until April. Foreign students are also invited to talk with Miller.

Correction

In the "Who Runs the UO?" profile story on Les Anderson, alumni secretary, which appeared Jan. 29 the Emerald stated that there are now 500 dues-paying members of the alumni group. The correct figure is 5000 paid-up members of the Alumni association out of a total alumni body of 22,500.

Cleaner, Fresher, Smoother!

Ask yourself this question: Why do I smoke?
You know, yourself, you smoke for enjoyment. And you get enjoyment only from the taste of a cigarette.

Luckies taste better—cleaner, fresher, smoother! Why? Luckies are made better to taste better. And, what's more, Luckies are made of fine tobacco. L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike Means Fine Tobacco.

So, for the thing you want most in a cigarette... for better taste—for the cleaner, fresher, smoother taste of Lucky Strike...

COLLEGE STUDENTS PREFER LUCKIES IN NATION-WIDE SURVEY!

Nation-wide survey based on actual student interviews in 80 leading colleges reveals more smokers prefer Luckies than any other cigarette by a wide margin. No. 1 reason—Luckies' better taste. Survey also shows Lucky Strike gained far more smokers in these colleges than the nation's two other principal brands combined.
