Meadows' Derby

Seton Hall Reaches Phenomenal 22-0 Mark; La Salle, Washington Quints Next in Ranking

By Martin Meadows

Seton Hall, LaSalle, and Washington remain one-two-three in this week's national basketball ratings as the season enters its last month of regularly-scheduled competition.

The top-ranked Pirates stretched their unbeaten skein to 22 with a 74-67 victory over a determined St. Bonaventure squad, while the LaSalle Explorers stayed in second place by cruising over Loyola of Baltimore, 73-61, and Duquesne, 74-66. The Explorers now have posted 18 wins in 20 starts.

Huskies Keep Position

Washington's Huskies kept rolling in Northern division play as they swept a two-game series from Washington State by scores of 79-51 and 69-56, giving them a 20-1 record. However, they are being pressed by the Big Ten leaders, the Indiana Hoosiers (11-2), who advanced one position to fourth by clobbering Butler, 105-70, and then hanging up their 10th straight triumph by an 88-84 count over Northwestern.

The Western Kentucky Hilltoppers moved from sixth to fifth after racking up three decisive wins during the week. The hilltoppers, who now own a flashy 19-3 slate, polished off Bowling Green, 71-60, turned back strong Dayton, 88-77, and capped a successful week by breezing past Eastern Kentucky, a team which had defeated them earlier this year.

Right behind in the number six slot is North Carolina State (19-4). The Wolfpack also jumped up one spot following 91-51 and 101-71 decisions over South Carolina and William & Mary, respectively.

Illini Move Up

Illinois, another Big Ten outfit, climbed from ninth to seventh with a mark of 11-2. The Illini smashed De Pauw, 93-50, and subdued Wisconsin, 65-61, to remain in the race for the Big Ten lead behind Indiana.

Eighth-ranked Oklahoma A&M (16-3), despite two more victories, continued to encounter rough going. The Aggies got past Detroit, 67-53, and then were forced into an overtime before they were able to down St. Louis, 60-58.

Ten ninth is a newcomer to the top ten, DePaul, which ran its ledger to 17-4 as it continued its comeback from mid-season setbacks. The Blue Demons extended their latest streak to seven as they registered an 85-43 win over Elmhurst and tripped Loyola of Chicago, 68-43. They were rated 15th last week.

Kansas State Tenth

The number ten team is Kansas State, which slipped all the way from fourth as the result of an 80-67 loss at the hands of Nebraska. It was the third loss for the Wildcats to go with 10 triumphs.

In addition to Washington, other Coast squads include: Seattle 18th, California 27th, USC 29th, UCLA 35th, Oregon 59th, Santa Clara 63rd, and Idaho 72nd.

Following are the team positions and records through Saturday's contests:

1. Seton Hall (22-0) 26. West Va. (14-4)
2. LaSalle (18-2) 27. Cal. (12-6)

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

"HURRRPH!" trumpeted Sheedy, "What a elephant time to have my hair act up. Might as well break my date and get trunk!" Luckily he was overheard by a Pachydermitologist who said, "Tusk, tusk! You've got a messy big top from pouring those buckets of water on your head. Get out of your ivory tower and visit any toilet goods counter for a bottle or tube of Wildroot Cream-Oil, "Your Hair's Best Friend". Non-alcoholic. Contains soothing Lanolin. Relieves dryness. Removes loose, ugly dandruff. Helps you pass the Finger-Nail Test." Paul got Wildroot Cream-Oil, and now all the girls tent to him more than ever. So why don't you try Wildroot Cream-Oil? It only costs peanuts — 29¢. And once you try it, you'll really have a circus.
