

Women Plan Evening For Heart Hop Dance

The traditional dunking in a bathtub outside of Carson hall will end the coronation of the King of Hearts Friday evening, according to Janet Woods, co-chairman of the coronation committee.

Announcement of the 1953 King will be made between 8 and 9 p.m. by Jim Harding, last year's King of Hearts. The new monarch will be crowned by Jackie Wilkes, president of the YWCA, sponsors of the dance.

The progressive dance will be held following the coronation at Alpha Omicron Pi, Alpha Delta Pi, Delta Delta Delta and Delta Zeta. The theme "Heartbeats" will be carried out in the house decorations and refreshments will be sold at each of the four houses.

Tickets for the annual turn-about dance went on sale today in the women's living organizations for 60 cents. Later in the week tickets may be purchased in the Co-Op and the Student Union. Voting on the candidates will take place at the time the tickets are purchased. Finalists in the King of Hearts contest are Jim Livesay, Al Babb, Jim Miller, Jim Owens, Ed Kenney and Ron Lyman.

The campus entertainment commission is handling entertainment for the affair. Don Bonime, freshman in liberal arts, is scheduled to play a piano solo and John Krohn, Don Gartrell and Bob Sogge will form a combo.
