

Hale Kane A Five Enters IM Finals

Fighting off a last quarter splurge Hale Kane earned the right to meet French Hall in the finals of A intramural basketball action by edging out the fighting Phi Deltis, 46 to 41, Wednesday afternoon.

The whole game was a close affair with neither team ahead by more than seven points at one time.

Hale Kane went into the last frame with a comfortable lead which it had been working on since the second period. The margin at that time was seven points, 36-29.

After each squad had added two counters, Gene Lewis connected on two giffers to make it 38-33. Nick Schmer hooked in a shot and Don Holt followed with a jumper to narrow the gap to one point, at which time Hale Kane called time out.

Jim Livesay knotted the count with a free throw with 2:10 minutes left. Little Joe Tom put his Hale Kane teammates back into the lead for good seconds later when he drove all the way in for a bank shot.

After Holt rifled in another field goal, Tom and Ben Johnson added one each to the Hawaiian score to make it 43-40. Pat O'Brien and Tom came through with two more giffers as the game ended.

O'Brien played one of his better games and came off with high point honors, 15. Teammate Tom and Phi Delt hooper, Holt each collected ten.

Hale Kane (45) (41) Phi Deltis Johnson, 5.....F.....10, Holt Erolen, 5.....F.....6, Mundel McElravy, 9.....C.....2, Wagner O'Brien, 15.....G.....5, Lewis Tom, 10.....G.....6, Livesay

SAE's Tip Sig Eps

Sigma Alpha Epsilon's B quint advanced to the finals of B intramural basketball on the weight of a 40-26 decision over the Sig Eps. The winners hopped to an early lead and were never seriously threatened, although the Sig Eps put on a late game rally.

Led by their lanky forward, Stan Savage, who collected nine points in the first half, the winners enjoyed a healthy 5-0 advantage midway through the first period and had stretched this to 7-4 at the end of the frame. Half-time score was 18-8.

Five minutes elapsed in the second half before the Sig Eps could find the distance. In the meanwhile, SAE was marching to a 26-28 margin. But by the time the quarter was over, the maroon-shirted leaders were out front, 32-12.

SAE (40) (26) SPE Brittain, 5.....F.....6, Sage Savayne, 17.....F.....7, Huls Tennyson, 9.....C.....3, Briggs Krieger, 5.....G.....6, Graham Hardon, 4.....G.....2, Allen

Subs—for Sig Eps: Ekstrom, 2.

Betas Win Rough Test

Beta Theta Pi's B basketball aggregation also gained the finals yesterday, licking the Hale Kane B quint, 31-19. The game was roughly played by both squads and referees' whistle were busy all the route.

Beta Theta Pi held the edge over their opponents in the height department and this important detail spelled defeat for the racing Hale Kane crew.

Hale Kane (19) (31) BTP Letler, 4.....F.....3, Adams Muirhead, 3.....F.....1, Reeves Scott, 0.....C.....11, Jackson Toyama, 4.....G.....8, Atkinson Kotshirodo, 3.....G.....6, Reiser

Ducks Set For Unpredictable Beavers; Vlastelica Still Ailing

By Rick Tarr
Emerald Sportswriter

Wednesday marked the final workout of the season for the Webfoot basketball team as it concentrated on the last two games with the up-and-down Oregon State Beavers.

What Coach Bill Borchers is worried about is that the Aggies will be "up" for this series and may bounce back from two straight losses to last place Washington State. The Beaver shooting average during that series probably set a record low.

The Ducks may not have to worry about Tony Vlastelica, the dangerous OSC center, who suffered a back injury in the first game against Washington State and hasn't participated in practice so far. The ex-Marine, dubbed "Vaseline" by his admirers, scored 23 points in his first appearance at McArthur Court earlier this season. But again he was unable to stay hot two nights in a row and managed only one free throw in the second encounter at Gill Colliseum.

Just in case he does play, however, Borchers used Wayne Johnson, reserve center, to simulate Vlastelica's style of play.

Chet Noe will still have his hands full with six-foot-six inch veteran, Bob Edwards, who has switched from the starting forward post to fill in for Vlastelica. Edwards has a better-than-average hook shot of his own that could cause trouble.

Oregon fans are hoping that Noe will close out his collegiate career with the same type of fine all around play he displayed against Washington last weekend.

In a rough offensive scrimmage Wednesday, Chet controlled the rebounds consistently and played steady offensive ball at the pivot position.

Oregon has a three game winning streak at Gill Colliseum which the Beavers will try to break Friday. But Oregon State has won the last two contests played at McArthur Court and will be trying hard to keep it going in Saturday night's encounter.

Oklahoma City U. to Meet Big Seven Champ for NCAA Bid

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Oklahoma City University has been selected as one of the western at-large teams for the National Collegiate Athletic Association's basketball tournament.

An NCAA spokesman said Oklahoma City will oppose the Big Seven champion in a first round game. The other western at-large team yet to be named will play a first round game on March ninth or tenth against the Border conference champion.

Oklahoma City went into action last night against Creighton with a record of 16 victories and four setbacks.

The four eastern at-large teams will compete in twin bills next month. One doubleheader will pit Notre Dame against Eastern Kentucky and De Paul against the Mid-American conference champion. The other double header will match Navy and the New England conference champion in one game and Fordham and the Middle Atlantic conference titleholder in the other contest.

Edwards, National Record Breaker, Top Duck Scorer

Gordon Edwards, one of the better swimmers in the Northern Division conference this year, is one of the highest point getters Oregon has had for several seasons. He received his "prep training" from both Lincoln high school and the Multnomah Athletic club of Portland.

In 1948, while a junior, Edwards swam the 200 yard freestyle in 2:07.9, a mark that still stands in the high school record book.

Holds ND Records

He also holds Northern Division records in the 440-yard and 1500-meter freestyle events.

Edwards cracked the 440 record against Oregon State last year with a 4:46.6 time, bettering Jack Medica's mark by four seconds. Medica, an Olympic swimmer, set his record for Washington in the early 1930's.

Although Edwards has set no record in the 220-yard freestyle, he has been conference champion in this event for the last two seasons. During his college career, he has been beaten only three times in the 220 and 440 swims.

One of Edwards biggest thrills came during the Idaho meet this year when he set a national collegiate record in the 1500-meter freestyle. He swam the event in 19:25.5 to beat the old record set by Byron Canning of WSC in 1949. The new mark also erased the Northern Division standard of 19:57, also set by Canning in 1949.

National Meet

With the record under his belt, Edwards is aiming for another shot at the NCAA meet to be held in Athens, Georgia. This meet, which is an annual affair, draws the top swimmers of the nation to one pool. Last year at Princeton, Edwards placed 13th out of 50 swimmers in the 220 freestyle.

Although his time was under par, Edwards said he was "quite nervous at the time" and felt he could do better if given another chance.
