

Ducks End Slate With OSC

TWO TIFFS

Vlastelica Still On Hurt List

Coach Bill Borchers' University of Oregon Ducks will attempt to prove their superiority over their perennial rivals, the OSC Beavers, this weekend when they first travel to Corvallis on Friday and then return to the familiar confines of McArthur court for the Saturday evening season's finale.

Both contests should be dillies.

Hard to Pick Winner

Although Oregon is firmly lodged in second place of the Northern Division, it will be difficult to pick a winner, for when it comes to this backyard rivalry, past performances have little weight.

The one advantage which Oregon might have will be the absence of Tony Vlastelica from the OSC line-up. Towering Tony injured his back in the first game of OSC's series in the Pabuse Hills, and, according to releases from the northern campus, the Beavers' top scorer has been sitting out this week's

TONY VLASTELICA
May Sit Out Series

ND Standings

	W	L	Pct.
Washington	14	0	1.000
OREGON	8	7	.571
Idaho	7	7	.500
Oregon State	4	10	.287
Washington State	3	13	.188

GAMES FRIDAY
OREGON at Oregon State
Washington at Idaho

GAMES SATURDAY
OREGON and Oregon State at Eugene
Washington at Idaho

drills.

In order to plug the big gap left by Vlastelica's injury, Beaver mentor "Slats" Gill has switched Bob Edwards to the center post and advanced Jim Sugrue into the first string in Edwards' forward position.

Noe Tries for Record

Oregon's Chet Noe will be making a stab at the Northern Division record for most rebounds in one season during the two games. He has 33 to go before he equals the total pulled off by Bob Peterson last year.

Borchers' probable starting lineup will be the same as he used at Washington: Ed Halberg and Keith Farnham at forwards, Noe at center, and Barney Holland and Kenny Wegner at guards. Bob Stout and Bob Hawes will also most likely see plenty of playing.

JIM SUGRUE
Gets Starting Assignment Against Webfoots

PHI DELTS IN FINALS

SAE Wins B IM Casaba Title

By Morton Harkins
Emerald Sportswriter

A highly talented blue and gold Sigma Alpha Epsilon five edged an also talented Beta Theta Pi five, 46-41, to capture the B league intramural basketball championship Thursday afternoon.

Despite the twenty point scoring of Hal Reeves, the Beta Theta Pi's managed to come in second best to the sharpshooting SAE five led by Bill Hardin with 18 points and Jack Krieger with 16.

The SAE's jumped to an early 3-0 lead but the Beta's quickly rallied to make the score 3-3. The entire first quarter was much the same with the score being noted 10-10 at the end of this period.

In the second half the SAE's moved ahead to lead 19-15 at the halfway mark. In the third quarter scoring was even with the period score being 33-31. The SAE's held to this lead to win the game and the B league championship, 46-41.

SAE (46)		(41) BTP
Brittain, 2	F	1, Adams
Savage, 4	F	20, Reeves
Tennyson, 6	C	6, Jackson
Krieger, 16	G	9, Atkinson
Hardin, 18	G	1, Reeser

Substitutions: Beta Theta Pi, Megers 4.

Phi Delts Triumph

Phi Delta Theta replaced Hale Kane in the finals of the intramurals basketball playoffs as they edged Sigma Chi, 38-37, in the final fifteen seconds of their game Thursday.

By defeating the Sigma Chi five, the Phi Delt's now meet French Hall today for the intramural A basketball title.

Sigma Chi moved to an early 15-7 first quarter lead only to have the Phi Delt's rise on a scoring attack to tie the score of 19-19 at the half time. Sigma Chi, led by Cece Hodges with 13 points broke through the Phi Delt defense to command a 29-25 third quarter lead. In the final stanza, the Phi Delts led by Bob Wagner with 13 points, pulled out in front with seconds left to play to come out the victors with a 38-37 score.

Sigma Chi (37)		(38) Phi Delts
Phillips, 12	F	7, Schmer
Slover, 7	F	13, Wagner
Hedgepeth, 0	C	2, Holt
Ruhlman, 5	G	7, Lewis
Hodges, 13	G	8, Albright

Substitutions: Phi Delts: Archer, 1.

SPORTS FARE

Friday, February 27
BASKETBALL
4:00 Court 40 Phi Delta Theta A vs. French Hall A.

Monday, March 2
TRACK
4:15 Unfinished area, Phi Delta Theta vs. Beta Theta Pi; Alpha Tau Omega vs. Theta Chi; and Hale Kane vs. Sigma Chi. (Triple header.)

Hale Kane Squad Ruled Out of Finals

Hale Kane's A basketball squad has been disqualified from the finals of intramural hoop action because it used an ineligible player in its quarter-finals game with Sigma Chi.

Hale Kane was to have met French Hall in the playoff for the championship Thursday afternoon. Instead of the finals being run off yesterday, Sigma Chi played the Phi Delts, who were defeated by Hale Kane in the semi-finals.

The winner of the Sigma Chi-Phi Delt contest now will engage French in the day-delayed finals.

Hale Kane's center, Jack McElravy, was termed ineligible by the intramural department upon the advice of a letter from the Oregon College of Education which stated that McElravy had been suggested for a basketball letter his freshman year.

The Sigma Chi-Hale Kane game had been successfully protested by Sigma Chi.

Houbregs, Noe, Kruger Have Hold On ND Casaba Scoring Statistics

Los Angeles — Three rangy centers, all seniors and playing their final Northern Division series this weekend, had a stranglehold on statistics released today by the Pacific Coast Conference Commissioner's office.

Washington's Bob (Hooks) Houbregs, who cracked the old Northern Division scoring record in his 10th game of the 16-game schedule, leads the way with an average of 26.4 points a game (136 field goals and 98 free throws for 370 points in 14 games.) The 6-foot 7-inch Houbregs also has sewed up honors as the top marksman with a record 54.6 per cent on field goals.

Noe Second

Chet Noe, also six-foot-seven, of Oregon, ranks second with an 18.6 average and is the Division's No. 1 rebounder with 187 in 14 games for a 13-3 average. Hartly Kruger, Idaho, 6 feet 7½ inches, is third in scoring with a 17.7 average. Both Noe and Kruger are near-cinches this weekend to join Houbregs in cracking the old season scoring of 265 points.

Charlie Koon, Washington guard, leads the free throwers with a phenomenal mark of 93.6 per cent on only one miss in 27 attempts. He's followed by teammate

Joe Cipriano with 81 per cent. Washington's Huskies, as a team, have practically rewritten the record book in every department except one—rebounds, where Oregon has a slight edge.

Season Windup

This weekend Washington is at Idaho for a final series while Oregon and Oregon State conclude their seasons against each other, Friday night at Corvallis and Saturday night at Eugene.

Washington, which cinched its third straight Northern Division championship last Friday night, will host the Pacific Coast Conference playoffs, meeting the Southern Division representative in a best two out of three game series in Edmundson Pavilion March 6, 7 and, if necessary, 9. The winner of this series will proceed to the NCAA regional playoffs at Corvallis, Oregon, on March 13.

Total Scoring G FG FT TP Ave.

Houbregs, W	14	136	98	370	26.4
Noe, O	14	89	82	260	18.6
Kruger, I	13	79	72	230	17.7
Wegner, O	14	58	78	194	13.9
Vlastelica, OS	13	70	38	178	13.4
Cipriano, W	14	73	34	180	12.9
Mullins, WS	15	68	52	188	12.5
Halberg, O	14	63	37	163	11.6
Morrison, I	13	60	31	151	11.6
McCutcheon, W14	48	48	144	10.3

GO WHERE YOUR FRIENDS MEET

at

DICK and JIM'S

el-PRONTO DRIVE-INN

◆ ◆ ◆

Drive in and enjoy:

- Delicious Milk Shakes
- Jumbo Burgers
- Prompt Service

◆ ◆ ◆

el-PRONTO