

Mother's Day Boss Petitions Asked

Petition deadline for general chairman of Mothers' Day to be held in conjunction with Junior Weekend, May 8 to 10, has been extended to 5 p.m. today according to Pat Dignan, ASUO president.

Candidates for the position will be interviewed Thursday night by the ASUO senate, Dignan said. Petitions are to be turned into the office of the ASUO president, Student Union 304.

Emerald Business Head Petitions Due

A spring terms business manager for the Oregon Daily Emerald will be selected this evening by the Publications board.

All candidates for the position should submit their written petitions in person to Dick Williams, secretary of the board, no later than noon today.

Selective Service Test Blanks Due

Applications of eligible students who plan to take the Selective Service College Qualification Test in 1953 should be filed immediately, according to the national headquarters of the group.

Applications and bulletins of information can be obtained at any Selective Service local board. The applications must be postmarked before midnight, March 9. Results will be reported to the students' local board for use by them in determining deferment.

'She Stoops' Tickets Available for Final Run

"Tickets for the University theater production, "She Stoops to Conquer," are sold out for the remainder of this week," states Mrs. Gene Wiley, theater business manager. "However, there are still a few available for next week's performances."

Contest Cancelled For Male Quartets

Cancellation of the "Barbershop" quartet contest for male voices planned by the Student Union music committee was announced by Chairman Dorothy Anderson. The small number of applicants forced the cancellation, Miss Anderson said. She attributed lack of interest in the contest to the proximity of the scheduled date, Saturday, with the approach of final week.

Petition Date Extended For Movie Committee

Petition deadline for chairmanship of the Student Union movie standing committee has been extended to 5 p.m. today. The position is to be filled spring term, since it will be vacated at the end of this term.

Petitions may be picked up in Student Union 301 and 310 and should be returned to the same place.

Chapman Movies Feature Dance

Movies of special interest to modern dance classes will be shown in Chapman 207 today at 7 p.m.

The program will consist of "Steps of a Ballet," which explains the basic steps of the ballet and features members of the Sadler Wells ballet company; "Bashful Ballerina" starring Imogene Coca of television fame.

"The Moor's Pavanne," a variation on the theme of "Othello," and "The Desperate Heart" with Valerie Bettis in a famous dance solo which won the New York Times Dance Award for outstanding choreography of the year will also be shown.

Admission is free.

Sociology Head to Talk On Poet and Old Age

E. H. Moore, head of the sociology department, will speak on "The Poet Looks at Old Age" Friday at 7:45 p.m. in the Student Union browsing room.

The talk will be one of the regular coffee hour series held in the browsing room.

Starlin to Participate On Television Panel

Glen Starlin, assistant professor of speech, will appear on a panel at the Western Radio and Television conference opening Thursday in Portland. Starlin will take part in the session Saturday afternoon on training for radio.
