

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

Here's a sad cotton tale: poor Paul was in a stew about his hare until his paw wrote: "I ear you got a bun on because your girl left you. Now, lettuce look at the bre'r facts. To get in on the bunny huggin', smart rabbits foot it down to any toilet goods counter for Wildroot Cream-Oil, America's biggest-selling hare tonic. So fuzz thing tomorrow, invest 29¢ in a bottle or handy tube. Contains soothing Lanolin. Non-alcoholic. Grooms the hare. Relieves annoying dryness. Removes loose, ugly dandruff. Helps you pass the Finger-Nail Test." Sheedy tried Wildroot Cream-Oil and now he's a jump ahead of every Tom, Dick and Harvey. So what're you waiting fur? Get Wildroot Cream-Oil today, and ask for Wildroot at your barber's. You're bound to like it!

WSSF Drive Opens April 20; Petitions For 6 Posts Wanted

The World Student Service Fund drive will be held this year April 20 to 25, Mary Wilson and Nan Mimnaugh, general chairmen, have announced.

Petitions are due at 5 p.m. Friday for chairmanships of publicity, promotion, contact, speakers, solicitations and special events committees and the post of treasurer of the drive. They may be turned in to Miss Wilson at Delta Gamma or Miss Mimnaugh at Pi Beta Phi.

WSSF is an all-world project to aid needy students in less fortunate areas, according to Miss Wilson. "A sort of hands across the sea, students for students program," she said.

Money Lack Forces Dance Cancellation

The Military ball, sponsored by Scabbard and Blade, will not be held this year even though the student affairs ruling abolishing it and the Mortar Board ball does not go into effect until next year.

According to Alan Babb, president of the military honorary, financial reasons make it impossible to hold the dance this year.
