

PROFESSIONAL STAGE CHANCE

Jensen to Assist Scenery Design

A man who has received most of his training in the University Theater will get his chance at the professional stage this summer in Saratoga Springs, New York, with the S.P.A. summer theater in that city.

John Jensen, sophomore in speech, will work as an assistant to the scenery designer and play bit roles in the company under the management of John Huntington, a step in the direction of his goal of becoming a professional stage manager.

This is Jensen's second trip away from the campus to appear with theatrical groups. Last summer he appeared under a full scholarship with the Virginia City Players in Virginia City, Mont. This group, which is dedicated to the study, preservation and presentation of 19th century American drama, presents its production in a converted livery stable in the restored ghost town.

John Jensen

Two Leads

While at Virginia City, Jensen played two leads, one in "The Mighty Dollar," a political satire, and the other in "Tell All the Girls to Write," a musical comedy about early days in Montana. In "The Mighty Dollar" he played opposite Elmarie Wendell, a former Oregon student.

Here at Oregon Jensen has been very active in the University Theater. His latest activity is portraying the role of "Death" in the forthcoming production of "Even the Gods," an original manuscript play. He was stage manager for "Death of a Salesman," and "carried a spear magnificently" in Henry IV, Part I."

Package Show

In other UT work he was lighting manager for "All the King's Men," and was stage manager for the two operas given last spring. He was also stage manager for the dance company of Jose Limon who recently appeared on campus. Jensen is a member of the executive board of the theater.

While at Saratoga Springs, Jensen will be working for membership in Actors Equity Association. He can not become a member until the manager of the company recommends him for it. "However," Jensen said, "if the stage manager does like your work, he can recommend you anytime he sees fit."

According to Jensen, the company will deal mostly with "package shows" shows in which members of the company form the supporting cast while the star travels from place to place performing in the same role. He will work in Saratoga Springs for nine weeks.

Scholarship Deadline Set by Student Affairs

Students planning to apply for scholarships for the coming year must have their applications filed by April 1, the office of student affairs has announced.

Applications can be obtained in that office for all scholarships, including state fee scholarships.

Emerald classified ads bring results.

Business Honorary Initiates 13 Co-eds

Phi Chi Theta, national business women's honorary, has initiated 13 women into membership in initiation ceremonies held at Carson hall.

Initiated were Sally Haseltine, Sally Palmer, Joan Basinski, Corliss McCausland, Joyce Jones, Sally Thurston, Helen Wright, Erma Jean Cobain, Kathryn Moore, Sally Hayden, Louise Smith, Selma Starns and Winona Fishback.

In other business of the evening, officers for the coming year were elected. Joyce Jones will head the organization for the coming year. Assisting her will be Joan Basinski, vice president; Selma Starns, secretary; Irma Cobain, treasurer, and Winona Fishback, historian.

Traffic Court Acquits Student

One student was acquitted at the last meeting of the student court. He was Lee Rogers, senior in philosophy, who had been charged with parking over the sidewalk near Friendly parking lot.

Notices to appear at the next regular meeting of the court, April 1, were sent to Wade Carter, graduate in business; Edward Van Natta, graduate in political science; Bob McLaughlin, freshman in English; Marcia Eagleson, junior in liberal arts.

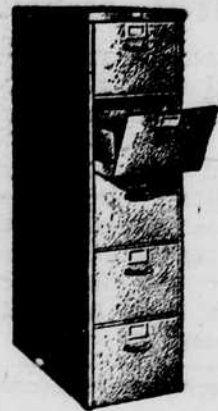

Others to appear are Rick Tarr, senior in journalism; Neil Trilling, sophomore in liberal arts; Don Zavin, senior in business; Roger Kuykendall, senior in English; Rod McGrath, senior in business; Ronald Isaacs, freshman in business; Del Clemens, special student in political science; Bill Miller and Du Wayne Sayles, freshman in business.

'Worst Script' Due On Campus Station

KWAX will present a rewrite of "the worst radio script ever written" today at 4:30 p.m.

The script, an adaptation of Edgar Allan Poe's "Legeia," is used by Glen Starlin, assistant professor of speech, as a rewrite project for his program production classes. The finished rewrite will be used today, according to Gordon Howard, graduate in speech, producer of the program.

Emerald classified ads bring results.

Only

GF SUPER-FILER

Offers these outstanding superiorities

- 50% more filing space
- No crowding of contents
- V-Filing for visibility
- Genuine G-F heavy-duty suspension
- Years of trouble-free operation

KOKE-CHAPMAN COMPANY

73 E. Broadway • Phone 5-0103 • Eugene, Oregon

When . . .

it's 3 a.m., and the final's at 8, and you still have half the book to read . . .

Then . . .

coffee, an apple, or a luncheon meat sandwich tastes awfully good . . .

So . . .

you'd better stock up for final week now . . . come in after classes . . . we have the tidbits you like!

Hogan's Grocery & Wayne's Meats

544 East 13th.

Phone 4-6209

SPARK

your new Spring clothes with ..

DARK ACCENT® NYLONS

by Van Raalte

1.35 a pair

You fell in love with DARK ACCENT nylons when we introduced them. You'll love them more than ever in Van Raalte's new Traffic Stopper colors! Dashing heels and pen-line thin seams, toned to complement Spring footwear — to flatter your legs. Made with Van Raalte perfectionist construction which promises you longest possible wear. 15 Denier, 51 Gauge, with exclusive Flex toe* that has you walking on air.

In your very own proportions, of course.

MILLER'S

"BECAUSE YOU LOVE NICE THINGS"

Special Value! Lustre-Creme Shampoo

REGULAR $2.00 SIZE FOR A LIMITED TIME ONLY—

$1.59

...The Shampoo used by Famous Hollywood Stars.

PENNYWISE DRUGS

36 E. Broadway (Store No. 1) 769 6th W. (Store No. 2)