

General Extension Courses Offered; Spring Registrations Now Accepted

General extension courses for next term at a registration cost of $6 per term hour, have been announced by the extension division of the Oregon State System of Higher Education. Registration may be completed currently at the extension office or at the first or second meetings of the class.

The classes are: Monday: lower division painting, painting studio, 7 p.m.; health education workshop, PE 114, 7 p.m.; books for young people, University High library, 7 p.m.; modern dance, Gerlinger hall, 7:30 p.m.; seminar, teachers' use of social agencies, Commonwealth 233, 4 p.m., and seminar, sex offenders and their socio-legal treatment, Commonwealth, 7 p.m.

Tuesday: art structure III, architecture annex, 7 p.m.; landscape design, Architecture 221, 7 p.m.; constructive accounting, Commonwealth 172, 7 p.m.; geography of Asia, Condon 101, 7 p.m., and first-year Spanish, Friendly 312, 7:30 p.m.

Wednesday: jewelry-making, architecture building, 7 p.m.; principles of salesmanship, Commonwealth 242, 7 p.m.; clothing for children, Chapman 302, 7 p.m.; reading in the elementary grades, PE building, 7 p.m.; music III, music education, Music 104, 7 p.m., and biological science survey, Science 314, 7 p.m.

Thursday: PE in the elementary grades, PE building, 7 p.m.; industrial traffic management, Commonwealth 173, 7 p.m.; body conditioning for women, Gerlinger,

Literary Honorary Pledges 15 Women

Fifteen women have been pledged by Chi Delta Phi, national literary honorary, according to Sue Lichty, senior in journalism, president.

Pledges are Joan Beckman, sophomore in liberal arts; Barbara Boushey, junior in journalism; Donna Clough, junior in liberal arts; Sally Cummins, freshman in journalism; Marilyn Harber, sophomore in liberal arts; Lloydene Hunt, freshman in liberal arts; Rita Kenyon, freshman in English; Fren Kudriaycev, freshman in liberal arts; Ruth Lear, freshman in sociology; Joan Long, sophomore in architecture; Dottie Luebke, junior in English; Gayle Johnson, freshman in English; Adele Summers, junior in English; and Arlene Wistrand, sophomore in liberal arts.

New officers of the group are Marilyn Patterson, president; Valera Vierra, vice president; Jean treasurer, and Daryl Gould, reporter-historian.

7:30 p.m.; photography, Science 16, 7 p.m.; elementary logic, Commonwealth 232, 7 p.m. and seminar, later maturity, Commonwealth 233, 7 p.m.

Saturday: pupil personnel programs, University high, 9 a.m., and rhythms for children, Gerlinger hall, 9 a.m.

200 Jr. Weekend Workers Wanted

Approximately 200 people will be needed for committee work for Junior Weekend, General Chairman Bob Brittain has announced, in addition to the chairmen chosen last week.

Petitions for the various committees are to be turned in to Student Union 303, Brittain, or any of the committee chairmen listed in last Friday's Emerald.

Onthank to Attend Meet For Scholarship Fund

Karl D. Onthank, associate director of student affairs, will travel to Astoria this weekend for a meeting of the Astor scholarship fund committee. The committee awards a scholarship to a University student of any level who is a graduate of Astoria high school.

HEILIG

Friday 13th - Midnight
JIMX SHOW
11:30 Fri. Nite 13th

Tickets on Sale at 10:30

REGULAR PRICES

HEILIG

At Last! - - - It's Coming!
STARTS SUNDAY

Also J. Arthur Rank Suspense Film
"The Stranger in Between"

HEILIG 4-9311

"The Promoter" with Alec Guinness Valerie Hobson also

"Stranger In Between" starring Dirk Bogarde Elizabeth Sellars

Starts Wednesday

"The Naked Spur" with James Stewart Janet Leigh

MAYFLOWER 5-1022

Starts Sunday

"My Little Chickadee" with W. C. Fields

Starts Wednesday

"Slightly Honorable" starring Pat O'Brien Paul Douglas Eve Arden

McDonald Starts Sunday, March 15