Brethauer Signs Pro Grid Contract

Monte Brethauer, star end on Oregon's 1952 football squad, has inked his name to a professional football contract with the Baltimore Colts.

Brethauer led the Pacific Coast conference in passes caught last season with 41. He was a draft choice of the Colts in the National league college gridiron selection.

Other members of the 1952 squad who have also signed pro papers are Emmett Williams, Chicago Cardinals, and Tom Novikoff, San Francisco 49ers. Hal Dunham has also received an offer from the bay area club.

Football Meeting

There will be a football meeting today in McArthur Court at 3:30 p.m. The athletic department requests that all players interested in turning out for spring practice be in attendance.

PCC-Big Ten Pact To Be Renewed

Pasadena, California (AP) — The Tournament of Roses association anticipates a renewal of the Pacific Coast Conference-Big Ten football game after next year. However, Tournament Chairman Lathrop K. Leishman said a Rose Bowl game would be held whether the Big Ten participates or not.

Leishman said the committee was happy to learn that Iowa and Purdue voted in favor of the pact today.

Boston Bruins Near Stanley Cup Playoffs

Boston (AP) — The amazing Boston Bruins moved to within one game of gaining the Stanley Cup final playoffs by defeating the National Hockey League champion Detroit Red Wings tonight. The score was 6-2 and gave Boston a 3-1 lead in the best-of-seven semifinal series. Detroit won the first game, but Boston captured the next three.

Eddie Sanford and Moose McIntyre each scored two of the Bruin goals and Boston built up a 5-0 lead before the Wings even dented the scoring column in the second period.

Oregon Cinder Squad Lacks Depth, Variety

Track Mentor

BILL BOWERMAN, track coach for the University, predicts a tough season ahead for the Duck cinder squad.

The Oregon Webfoot track team continued practice Tuesday for the coming ND dual track season but the prospects are far from bright. Bill Bowerman, Duck track coach since 1948, faces a drastic shortage of men for the field events.

The Ducks have eight returning lettermen. They include, sprints: Jerry Mock; quarter mile: Ted Anderson and Doug Clement; half-mile: Jack Loftis; distance: Al Martin, Fred Turner and Wayne Reiser; hurdles: Tom Swalm. Six field lettermen have all been lost for the season for various reasons.

Jack Hutchins and Chuck Missfeldt left via the graduation route; Emery Barnes, national collegiate high jump champion, for scholarship trouble; Chet Noe, outstanding shot-putter in the Northern division, was lured away by outside competition.

Bowerman has several good prospects for the field. Ben Lloyd and Jim Jones look good in the shot put. Russ Mannax and Ken Hickenbottom are tops among the pole vaulters. Inexperience, however, injures the Webfoots in all field events.

There are several good individual performers on the squad but the team itself is very poor. Bowerman stated that Washington State is the team to beat in the Northern Division and, of course, Southern Cal is again the leading contender for the PCC title. Oregon has a poor chance of winning any of the dual meets scheduled this spring, Bowerman said.

Duck Golfers Prep For Opening Match

Oregon's varsity golf team, under the direction of Coach Sid Milligan, is preparing for its opening match of the season against the University of Washington on April 24.

Qualifying rounds will be played by those trying out for the team until April 21. The team practices on Mondays, Tuesdays, and Wednesdays after 3:00 p.m., Thursday mornings, Friday, Saturday mornings, and on Sundays after 1:00 p.m.

According to team captain Bob Atkinson, further information about the team is posted in the caddy shop at the Eugene Country Club, where practice is held.

Student Delegates To Attend UN Meet

Plans are being made for a student delegation to attend the third annual Model United Nations April 16 to 18 at the University of California in Berkeley.

Oregon delegates will represent Czechoslovakia at the conference which will be attended by representatives from 60 colleges and junior colleges on the Pacific coast.

Directed by Joyce Kislitzin of the University of California, the session will reproduce U. N. conferences, present each member nation's foreign policies and discuss the Korean situation, Declaration of Human Rights and the Tunisian-Morocco dispute.

Under the sponsorship of the International Relations club, Oregon's delegation will be headed by Robert Maffin.
