

The First Easter

from St. Luke 24:1-12

Now upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they have prepared, and certain others with them.

And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments:

And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead?

He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee,

Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

And they remembered his words,

And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest.

It was Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, which told things unto the apostles.

And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.

Then arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.

Webfoot Nine to Host Beavers; Track Squad Plans Salem Trek

University of Oregon athletic teams will go through two baseball games and a track relay this weekend in a full schedule of action.

Coach Don Kirsch's varsity baseball nine, which won its opening game yesterday, plays host to the Oregon State Beavers this afternoon at 3:00 p.m. in a resumption of Willamette valley rivalry.

Saturday, also at the local Howe field, the Ducks will go through a third straight day of baseball action when they vie with a team made up of past University of Oregon diamond stars.

Meanwhile, tomorrow, Coach Bill Bowerman will take a squad of track men to Salem where they will participate in the Willamette university relays against the best track men in the northwest area.

In the first baseball game of the season yesterday, the baseball team blanked a traveling squad from Lewis and Clark college in Portland, 7-0, behind the three hit pitching of Trent Huls and Bill Blodgett.

MEET THE DEANS

Kratt a World Traveler

The career of Theodore Kratt, dean of the school of music, has taken him from Oregon, across the continent, twice to Europe and back to Oregon in the past twenty-five years.

A native Oregonian, Kratt attended Lincoln high school in Portland and later studied at Linfield college before going to the Midwest where he received his Bachelor of Music at the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music in 1918. Graduate degrees conferred upon the dean by the conservatory were Master of Music in 1927 and his doctorate in 1938.

Kratt entered the field of music education in 1921 as an instructor in singing at the Chicago Musical college. He was the founder and conductor of the May Music festival in Oak Park, Ill. From 1921 to 1927, he taught music in Illinois high schools.

The dean returned to the Northwest in 1927 as director of the department of music at the University of Idaho, a position which he held for two years. During the next ten years, 1929 to 1939, Kratt was again in the Midwest, this time as dean of the school of fine arts and professor of music at Miami university in Oxford, Ohio.

It was at this stage of his career that Kratt made his first trip to Europe, where he studied with an eminent European conductor in

'Triumph for Easter' Slated In Sunrise Service Message

Morgan S. Odell, president of Lewis and Clark college, will speak on "The Three-fold Triumph for Easter," at the annual Easter Sunrise service in McArthur court 6:30 a.m. Sunday.

The University Religious council sponsored service is open to both University students and Eugene residents. Co-chairmen for the event are Sally Hayden, junior in business, and Jean Peterson, junior in sociology.

The program includes an organ prelude by Dorothy Carlson, junior in music; invocation and call to worship, Rev. Ken Peterson, director of Wesley Foundation; hymn, "Christ the Lord is Risen Today;" scripture by Donald McKenzie, Northwest Christian college student; Eugene high a capella choir singing the "Hallelujah chorus" from "The Messiah" and "Open Our Eyes" by McFarlane; prayer by Rev. Wesley Nickolson, Congregational church; "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth" sung by Miss Exine Anderson, assistant professor of music; offering Jane Simpson, president of University Religious council; hymn, "Fairest Lord Jesus."

Additional Program

Victor P. Morris, dean of school of business administration will introduce Odell. A hymn, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," will

GRADES OUST TWO

Petition Request Issued For Vacant Class Posts

Pat Dignan, ASUO president, has issued a call for petitions to fill two class office vacancies. Positions open are sophomore class representative and freshman class vice-president.

Selection of the new officers will be made by the ASUO senate at its meeting next week. The senate is empowered by the ASUO constitution to elect students to fill class office vacancies.

The vacancies occurred when Janet Miller, sophomore in speech, and Meb Buchanan, freshman in anthropology, who previously held the positions, failed to make a 2-point GPA winter term.

Under provisions of the constitution, all class officers must meet the University's academic requirements. The two were required to resign their positions when declared ineligible by the office of student affairs.

Deadline Saturday

Spring term fee assessments must be paid by noon Saturday to avoid payment of a late fee, according to Clifford L. Constance, registrar. An extra fee of $5 on Monday and $1 for each day thereafter will be assessed. The last day to register or to change classes is April 13.

Blood Donors Answer Appeal

Student response to Wednesday's Emerald story asking for blood donors for Nadine Crabtree, sophomore in English, was "wonderful," the Eugene blood bank reported Thursday. From 35 to 40 students registered to donate.

Not all these have her blood type, B negative, but the others will replace blood she has been already given from the bank. According to Dr. N. P. Sullivan, there are six donors of her type now on call. Any other students who have this type blood and would be willing to donate if needed are asked to call the blood bank, 4-6281, and leave their names, Dr. Sullivan said.

Miss Crabtree is suffering from a condition in which her bone marrow does not manufacture her blood and new blood must be supplied through daily transfusions. Her type blood only occurs in 1 out of 100 people. Her condition is reported as improving but transfusions are still necessary. She has had five so far and how many more will be required is not known.

Council Selects Top Nominees

Alex Byler, Sigma Chi, and Con Shefford, Sigma Nu, are the nominees for president of the Inter-Fraternity Council for the coming year.

Nominees for the other offices on the council are Lowell Schuck, Delta Upsilon, and Ted Rubenstein, Sigma Alpha Mu, vice president, and Alan Oppliger, Sigma Phi Epsilon, secretary.

Election of officers, which were nominated Thursday, will take place at the next IFC meeting, April 16. Further nominations may also be made at that time, Dick Morse, IFC president said.

Also scheduled for the next meeting of the council is a report by Ray Hawk, director of men's affairs, on how deferred living works at other schools. Hawk is currently back east studying the situation at about seven other schools, Morse stated.

MORGAN S. ODELL
Three Fold Triumph

follow the talk. Rev. Charles A. Epple, United Lutheran church, will deliver the benediction.

Assisting Miss Peterson and Miss Hayden with plans for the service are Kammy Chun, promotion; Bonnie Brackin, decorations; Gwen Endicott, ushers and collections; Bob Southwell, arrangements, and Dorothy Her, publicity.

Since Odell became president of Lewis and Clark in 1942, enrollment has jumped from 135 to 1040 faculty from 12 to 70 and the number of buildings more than doubled to 24. Gifts to the school since 1941 have totaled more than $1,400,000.

Before coming to Lewis and Clark he was professor of religion and philosophy and chaplain of Occidental college, was assistant director of boys' work at the Pasadena YMCA and as director of boys' work at the Pasadena Presbyterian church and director of religious education at the First Methodist church of Pasadena.

Professor's Wife To be Arraigned

Mrs. Mary Ellen Allton, wife of Donald Allton, assistant professor of music, will be arraigned Wednesday in a San Diego municipal court on a charge of passing $1000 in worthless checks.

In a preliminary hearing which ended March 25, four of nine witnesses testified that she was the woman who had given them the bad checks. The other five did not identify her.

The first witness to identify Mrs. Allton was a grocery clerk, Clyde McCain. He stated she was the woman who gave him a bad check for $77.72.

Preview Invitation

Oregon students have again been urged to invite high school seniors to the campus for the annual Duck Preview, April 24 and 25, by Allison LeRoux and Martin Brandenfels, invitations co-chairmen.
