ALUMNI STAR Barney Koch being tagged out at home as he tried to stretch a triple into a homer in fifth inning of first game Saturday, won by the Alums 4-3. Oregon catcher is Earl Averill.

Pitching Good As Webfoots Split Season's First Four Prelim Games

Oregon's diamond nine ended a four game home stand last Saturday, splitting a doubleheader with the Alumni All-Stars. Having completed the opening week of play the Webfoot record now stands at two wins and the same number of defeats.

In the opening game of the season Bill Blodgett and Trent Huls combined efforts to shutout the Lewis and Clark Pioneers. Blodgett was the winning pitcher. When the Ducks went down to defeat at the hands of Oregon State's Beavers, Farrell Albright was charged with the loss.

Siegmund Shines

Stan Dmochowsky went the full seven innings in the first alumni contest Saturday and dropped a close 4-3 decision. Don Siegmund was given credit for the win in the nightcap as the Oregon nine collected an 8-3 victory.

Other Oregon pitchers who have performed well, but haven't collected a won-lost record are Huls, who hurled a four inning no-hit performance against the Pioneers, and Norm Forbes, who allowed a single tally to OSC in five innings.

Hitters Improve

Oregon's hitting has improved throughout the first week of play, and the power is beginning to show. Home runs have been credited to Earl Averill and Forbes, while those who have collected triples include Jim Livesay, Neal Marlett, and George Shaw.

This afternoon the Webfoots meet the Linfield nine in McMinnville. Blodgett and Huls should see action on the mound. Thursday afternoon at Corvallis the Ducks meet Oregon State in their second non-conference contest with that club.

You Don't Have to be a Beaver to be Eager or

Should virtue be its own reward?

Once there was a Junior who was, by nature, a Grasshopper, rather than an Ant. He devoted most of his time and energies to Social Pursuits, with correspondingly little emphasis on the Curriculum in the Catalogue. Consequently, while he was Right Up There socially, he had academically just about reached the Point of No Return.

Topping it off was an Ultimatum from the Male Parent, warning that on his next arrival home, he had better be accompanied either by a List of Passing Grades or a Social Security Card. All Our Boy could see ahead was a lifetime at Hard Labor, unless Something Drastic happened.

So he made it happen. Invested heavily in benzadrine and black coffee and lined up three super-skull Tutors. Night and day he Sweated It Out. Made it, too! Wound up, if not with Flying Colors, at least with Respectable Grades. First thing he did, naturally, was to call Western Union and flash the Joyous Tidings homeward by telegram. Then he sat back and waited for the Reaction.

It came an hour later. A Telegraphic Money Order for $500, plus a message that read: "Delighted at your confounding the Prophets, including myself. Hope you will join me on two-month European trip, expenses paid, starting June 20th." Signed, POP.

TWO NO-HITTERS

Sigma Nu's Crush Sammies

Con Sheffer bounced a terrific three-run homer off the roof of the Physical Education building to lead Sigma Nu to a 9-4 win over Sigma Alpha Mu. Sheffer's blast came in the second inning and put Sigma Nu into a safe 9-0 lead.

The winners also benefitted from the good pitching of Gary Meyers, who pitched three-hit, shutout ball during his four innings on the mound. Altogether Meyers and Joe Kiaser, the other Sigma Nu pitcher, allowed only four hits and fanned eight.

Sigma Alpha Mu posted their four runs in the fifth when Kiaser walked Don Olds, Ron Sherman and Jerome Friedman to load the bases. Then Ed Cohen lashed a hit to center that got past the centerfielder and all four runners crossed the plate.

Hale Kane scored three runs in the first on three hits, a wild pitch, an error, and a fielder's choice, but Susan Campbell came back to post their only two runs on a hit-by-pitcher, passed ball, error, and double steal.

Hale Kane then went on to score three more in the second, add a singleton in the third, and sew up the game with a 10-run barrage in the fourth.

Besides pitching perfect ball during his mound stint, Mickelson led the hitting with two home runs and a triple. W. Watanabe also slugged a homer for Hale Kane.

Sigma Hall Triumphs

Six run rallies in the third and fourth innings gave Sigma hall a 15-7 victory over Alpha hall. The Alphas gained a 7-0 lead in the top of the first but wilted before the potent late inning batting attack of the Sigmas.

HK Clobbers Suzies

A lusty batting attack and no-hit pitching by Al Wardell and Bob Mickelson carried Hale Kane to a 23-2 triumph over Susan Campbell. Wardell tossed the first three frames and Mickelson the last two of the five-inning contest.

Campbell Clubbers Win

The slugging Campbell Clubbers belted the Philadelphia House's intramural softball team for a 14-4 loss in Monday afternoon action.

Elmer Jones led the fired-up Campbell Club with a homer and two singles while cleanup man Don Jacobson banged out a double and a triple. Max Crossan led the Phillies attack with a homer and a single. The Campbell Club team collected 13 hits to four for the Phillies to dominate that department.
