

Ducks Win Opener from Idaho, 8-5

University of Oregon's baseball nine hopped on two Idaho pitchers for five runs in the fifth inning to sew up their first Northern Division game, 8-5, yesterday, before a full house at Howe field.

By winning their first battle of the ND baseball race, the Ducks jumped into temporary undisputed possession of first place. The Vandals, in a like manner, fell to the bottom of the scramble, one game out of first. They will get a chance to tie the standings up this afternoon at 3 p.m., however, when the two clubs resume hostilities.

BILL HAYWARD
Started Prep Relays

Hayward Meet Starts on Friday

The 1953 William L. Hayward Relays, named for Oregon's grand old man of track, get underway Friday morning with the largest number of athletes entered since the meet began. At least 1000 athletes from every corner of the state will flood the cinder paths at Hayward field for oval honors.

Friday, spectators will have a chance to see Prineville's Fred Hall, one of the outstanding prep track prospects in the state. Saturday, the perennial champ, Medford, will display its wares for the new Metropolitan division championship. The two days meet will be one of the most colorful track events of the season and give the fans a chance to look over the best high school trackmen in the state.

The present entries by division are:

Metropolitan: Eugene, Grants Pass, Medford, Springfield, Salem, Klamath Falls, Grant, Cleveland, Jefferson, Franklin, Roseburg.

Class A: Ashland, Corvallis, Bend, St. Helens, Cottage Grove, Albany, North Bend, Marshfield, and Sweet Home.

Class B: Prineville, Stayton, Sheridan, Crater Union, Elmira, Redmond, Central of Independence, University of Eugene, Myrtle Point, Estacada, Illinois Valley, West Linn, The Dalles, North Marion, Sandy, Pleasant Hill, Junction City, Canby, Seaside, Dallas, Willamette of Eugene, Creswell, Sutherlin, Molalla, and Drain.

Class C: Jefferson, Mapleton, Shedd, Gervais, Lowell, Henley, Monroe, Coburg, Chemawa, Canyonville, Triangle Lake, and Jacksonville.

Don Perry, Venice, Calif., climbed a 20 foot rope in 3.1 seconds, using only his hands.

Idaho starter Wayne Patrick was setting the home crew down in consistent fashion until the big fifth inning outburst, when four Oregon hits, including Ron Phillips' four master, three errors and one walk put the Webfoots out front for good.

George Shaw, center fielder, opened the batting barrage with a single to left. After Don Siegmund had flied to center field, Earl Averill was safe on an infield error.

Phillips then proceeded to bounce a long 370 foot drive over the left field bank to clear the base paths of his two Oregon mates. It was his first homer of the year.

Bernie Averill kept the rally going with a scratch hit to the infield; and two batters later he moved to third on Norm Forbes' single to center.

Double Steal

With a man on first and third, the Ducks tried a double steal with Averill scoring on a wild throw from second to the plate. Forbes crossed the plate on the next play, when Idaho shortstop Mike Cygler muffed Jim Johnson's grounder.

Oregon's other three tallies were scored in the third, fourth and eighth frames.

In the bottom of the third Livesay beat out an infield blow and moved to third on Shaw's single to center. The Oregon center fielder scored the winners' first run when the next batter, Siegmund, lofted out.

Pete Williams started the run production in the following frame by tripling down the left field line. Pitcher Norm Forbes brought in the runner with a sharp one-bagger to right.

Oregon's last tally came in the eighth when another triple, this one by Shaw, put a Duck on third with no one out. Shaw almost didn't get in at first when Siegmund and then Averill meekly grounded out. He would have died on the base paths if Cyglers hadn't let Phillips' easy roller get past him into left field.

Idaho bunched two of its scores in the first, another in the fourth, and the final two in the seventh. The two in the initial frame were the result of one single and a couple of Oregon errors.

Falash Double

Bob Falash pounded out a double and scored from second via a single by Patrick. Fred Kleffner and Jerry Ogle tallied for the Vandals in the seventh when one was safe on a fielder's choice, and the other walked. Earl Huffman scored both with a triple to center.

Shaw was the leading Oregon batter with a triple and two singles. Livesay, Phillips, Williams and Forbes each banged out two safeties apiece.

Forbes, although in trouble for the first four innings, settled down and hurled a nifty seven hitter. He struck out seven and put Idaho down in order in the third, sixth and ninth frames.

Webfoot Thinclads Test Vandals Here Saturday in First ND Meet

The Oregon Webfoots and Idaho Vandals renew a relatively young track rivalry Saturday afternoon to kick off the Northern Division track season. It will be the first test of strength for Bowerman's Duck cindermen.

Idaho will present a team that is basically the same as the Webfoot's with a strong track squad and a weak field team so the meet should be very evenly matched. The Vandals' outstanding lettermen include Emerson Clark and Lou Gourley, Distance; Pat Duffy, Sprinter; Bob May, Half-miler; and their all around one man team, Bruce Sweeney.

The Ducks can match Idaho's strong events and counter with more depth. The Webfoot lettermen are Al Martin, Wayne Reiser and Fred Turner, Distance; Jerry Mock, Sprinter; Doug Clement and John Loftis and Ted Anderson, Mid-distance; and non-lettermen Bob Faucett, Dick

Zimmerman, Bruce Springbett, and Ron Sogge in answer to Sweeney

With such a group of top performers it seems certain that some of the Oregon-Idaho meet records will fall. The records least likely to stand up are those in the 440, 880, Mile, 2 Mile, High and Low hurdles, Broad Jump and Mile Relay. The records as they now stand are:

- 100-yd. dash, 9.7, Henthorne (O) 1950.
- 220-yd. dash, 21.7, Mock (O) 1951
- 440-yd. dash, 50.0, Miller (I) 1951
- 880-yd. run, 1:59.8, McClure (O) 1949
- Mile run, 4:28.4, Martin (O) 1952
- 2 Mile run, 9:50.7, Turner (O) 1951
- High Hurdles, 15.1, Bean (I) 1949
- Low Hurdles, 24.4, Sullivan (O) 1951
- High Jump, 6'4" Beifuss (O) 1947
- Broad Jump 22'9", Lewis (O) 1949
- Pole Vault, 14', Rasmussen (O) 1950
- Shot Put, 47'7", Noe (O) 1952
- Disuss, 153'7", Taylor (I) 1951
- Javelin, 201'6½", Robinson (O) 1947
- Mile Relay, 3:26.6, Idaho, 1951.
