from Kaufman Bros.

Kaufman Bros. in Eugene are happy to present "everything that's new in cotton"—to the Oregon campus. We have everything from dainty flowered chintz dirndles to the softest cotton silks, styled by New York experts. COTTON CARNIVAL "Swing and sway with R. and K." R. and K. of New York has fashioned an original cotton especially for the Oregon co-ed. Neatly stitched and tucked both on the bodice and over the hips. This charming creation has that "made just for you" look with yards of material in the skirt... and is offered in three luscious shades... black, coral and powder blue for only $19.95. "Spring is busting out"... at Kaufman Bros.

A combination of many hues, ranging from the softest pink to a deep wine places this new Pat Hartley original high on the list of "Fabulous Fantasies" in spring cottons. A trim, neat bodice with diagonal stripes is set off by the new plunging neckline in the back... and this wonderful bargain is priced at $13.95. You can't pass it up!

"In the spring a young girl's fancy..."

Exclusive cotton becomes highest fashion in our new creation of polished cotton. Sweet as candy and as refreshing as a peppermint stick is this grey and white striped frock. The striped skirts is matched with the same dark grey in a sleeveless blouse with striped trim. At $10.95... this frock comes in turquoise, coral and baby blue.

ADIEU TO WEEKEND WORRIES

Your Junior Weekend formal is awaiting you at Kaufman Bros. We have a variety from nylon tole to embossed cotton and ranging in price from $25.00 on up!

We take pleasure in inviting you to browse through the cotton parade of styles where "good fashion reigns supreme, season after season... Kaufman Bros. in Eugene.—Adv.

Vodvil Eliminations Set For Gerlinger

Eliminations for the All-Campus Vodvil have been scheduled for Monday and Tuesday at 7 p.m., in Gerlinger annex, according to Gloria Lee and Shirley Wendt, general co-chairman.

All women's organizations will audition Monday night, with the men trying out Tuesday. Dress rehearsal for the April 24 presentation will be held Thursday evening.

All acts must furnish the necessary customs and props, including phonographs and records, for the elimination. No lighting effects will be used either Monday or Tuesday, according to Carl Winans, lighting and special effects chairman.
