

Oregon Hosts Idaho in Oval Meet

Bill Bowerman's cindermen will run through light drills today in final preparation for Saturday's Northern Division dual track and field meet with Stan Hiserman's Idaho Vandals.

Bowerman said the match would be a toss up, and all records indicate a close meet. However, Oregon may have a slight edge because of their strength in the running events.

The Ducks will field several strong runners in every event and enough good men in the field to challenge the Vandals. In the sprints, Jerry Mock and Bruce Springbett will carry the load. Springbett beat out OSC's Merv Brock twice earlier this year. Ted Anderson is one of the top quarter-milers in the ND and should hold up that event.

Doug Clement may develop into the best half-miler in the northwest and is already capable of bettering the meet record. Al Martin, Fred Turner, Jim Roberts and Ken Reiser are all solid performers in the distance.

Ken Hickenbottom in the pole vault and Bob Faucett in the high jump are both developing into strong fieldmen, and Ben Johnson jumped a very good 23'7" in the event at the Oregon State Relays. Oregon's entries are:

100-yd. dash: Springbett, Jerry Mock. 220: Springbett and Mock. 440: Anderson, Clement, 880: Clement, Bill Hail, John Loftis. Mile: Al Martin, Jim Roberts. 2 mile. Fred Turner, Ken Reiser.

High hurdles: Ron Sogge, Tom Swalm, Dick Zimmerman. Low hurdles: Anderson, Sogge, Swalm, and Zimmerman. High jump: Walt Badorek, Bob Faucett, Chuck Phillips. Broad jump: Ben Johnson, Al Oppliger. Pole vault: Russ Man-nex, Ken Hickenbottom. Shot put: Len Berrie, Jimmy Jones, Ben Lloyd. Discus: Lloyd. Javelin: John Hepner. Mile relay: Anderson, Clement, Martin, and Bill Briot.

The Vandals have failed to win a Northern Division title in over forty years and in the young series with Oregon they have lost five straight.

Idaho will bring three consistent winners to Eugene. Lou Gourley and Emerson Clark, distance men and Bruce Sweeney, the 'Mathias' of the Northwest. Sweeney has done the high hurdles in :14.7; the low hurdles, :24; broad jump, 23'4"; and high jump, 6'3". He is also very competent in the 100 and 220 yd dashes.

The field events will all begin at 3 p.m. immediately following the Hayward relays. Track events begin at 3:30.

Murals Postponed

Because the Hayward relays will be run partially on the intramural athletic field, Friday's intramural softball games have been cancelled, according to Gene Evonuk, assistant IM director. The games will be made up at the end of the regular season.

Rain Halts Game After First Inning

After playing one inning of their Northern Division baseball game, Oregon's Webfoots and the Idaho Vandals were forced to postpone the contest because of rain.

The Vandals opened up on Oregon pitcher Stan Dmochowsky for two runs in the top of the opening inning, bunching together three singles and a walk.

Oregon failed to score in the bottom half of the frame as Jim Livesay and Don Sigmund went down via the strikeout route, and George Shaw grounded easily to short.

As Dmochowsky was taking his warm up pitches for the second inning the rain began to fall, and the game was halted. The umpires waited an hour and forty minutes and tried to dry the infield by burning gasoline on it, but they were forced to call the game at about 4:30.

The Webfoots play their next conference games Monday and Tuesday of next week. They will be facing the Washington State Cougars on Howe field.

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil
Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

"LISTEN, BIRD-BRAIN, don't get soar, but I cooed never love you," said Sheedy's little chickadee. "Your hair's strictly for the birds! Better remember the tree cardinal rules for social success so you won't be an also-wren. 1. Hop to a toilet goods counter. 2. Peck up a bottle or tube of Wildroot Cream-Oil, America's Favorite Hair Tonic. Contains Lanolin. Non-alcoholic. Grooms the hair. Relieves dryness. Removes goose, ugly dandruff. Helps you pass the Finger-Nail Test. 3. Use it daily and people will love you." Paul got Wildroot Cream-Oil for himself and a diamond wing for his tweetie-pie. Better buy a bottle or tube today. Or ask for it at your barber's. If you don't you're cookoo!

Duck Courtmen Vie At Portland

Oregon's tennis team, coached by Capt. R. A. Laurence, gets its first competition when it tackles the University of Portland Pilots Saturday at Portland.

Although Laurence would make no comment on the strength of the Pilots, he stated that trouble could be expected from three Portland players. Jack Neer, who last year attended the university, is rated number one man on the Portland squad while Bill Doyle and Tom Flynn are number two and three men.

Ron Lowell, Dick Hamilton, Bruce Harvey, Bob Baker, Martin Magi and Bill George will make the trip to Portland. Hamilton, number two man on the squad, may not be able to compete due to an injury which he received in practice several days ago.

Portland plays a return match with the Ducks April 22.

Frosh Play Pair; Linksters Meet

Coach John Londahl will send his twice victorious freshman baseball team into action two times this weekend. The Frosh will play host to the Oregon State Rooks at Howe field this afternoon, and then be home again Saturday against the Medford high nine.

Oregon's golf squad, coached by Sid Mulligan, will meet the Gonzaga linksters in a preliminary match in Eugene Saturday. Their first Northern Division competition will come next Friday against Washington.
