

YW to Discuss Plans For Meet

Plans for the centennial anniversary of the YWCA will be discussed at the YW neighborhood meeting to be held today and Friday in Portland.

Mrs. C. A. Barnes, member of the local and national advisory boards, will preside over the entire conference. Also attending from Eugene will be Mrs. Hubert Willoughby, member of the community advisory board. The conference is open to all YW members from the campus and the community, said Mrs. Barnes.

Sipe Lecture Slated For Biology Club

Frank P. Sipe, associate professor of biology, will speak on "Western Wild Flowers" at a meeting of the biology club tonight at 7:15 in Science 16.

The speaker will show flower slides from his extensive collection, and plans for the club's weekend field trip to the Coos Bay marine station will also be discussed.

Personal Letters To Moms Stressed

A reminder to all University students to invite their mothers for Mother's day, May 9, has been issued by Barbara Wilcox, general chairman. Letters are being sent through the Mother's clubs, but personal letters are of more value, Miss Wilcox stresses.

The mothers will be guests at the Junior Prom on Friday night, with special entertainment and refreshments being planned for them.

Saturday breakfast, a board meeting, and a luncheon, as well as the traditional All-Campus Sing Saturday night, are planned. Winners of the Sing will be presented Sunday afternoon in a special Sunlight Serenade for the mothers.
