

Duck Preview Starts Today

'BIG SHOW'

Vodvil to Begin Duck Preview Events Tonight

The University's biggest show will be presented tonight at 8 in front of a star-studded backdrop at McArthur court, according to Shirley Wendt and Gloria Lee, general co-chairmen of the All-Campus Vodvil. The show is the first big Duck Preview event.

Entertainment, acts and awards are on the program, along with a special report on the World Student Service Fund. The music of Larry Hall and his Four Shades of Rhythm will provide background music.

Two freshmen, Allison LeRoux and Sharon Moran, will present a song and dance act and a record pantomime during the intermission. Also billed as entertainment is the Uncalled Four quartet from Susan Campbell hall.

Slated to banter with each other as emcees for the vodvil are Doug Ruhlman, sophomore in education, and Gordon Badgley, junior in business administration.

Ticket Price Jumps

Tickets for the Vodvil will cost 72 cents, instead of the previously announced 60 cents, according to Phyllis Pearson, ticket chairman. The cost jump was required when the Vodvil was denied consideration as a charity affair. This means the addition of 12 cents to the price for federal amusement tax.

According to Gloria Lee, general chairman, several law students are planning to appeal the decision of the tax commission.

Ten acts, selected in eliminations Monday and Tuesday evenings, will provide the main portion of the program. These include Alpha Chi Omega's "Chinese Fantasy," Campbell club's "Ducksie-land," Delta Delta Delta's "As Time Goes By," Delta Gamma's "Fundamentals II," "Delta Zeta's "World Cruise," Kappa Gamma's "Take Back Your Mink," Phi Delta Theta's "Shooting of Dan McGrew," Phi Sigma Kappa's "Merry Mirth's Family," Sigma Chi's "Frankie and Johnny," and Sigma Nu's "Let's Dial In."

In addition to the trophies which will be awarded for the best men's and the best women's acts, an award will be made to the most outstanding performer. Last year's awards went to Sigma Phi Epsilon for "A Salesman Named Desire," and Chi Omega for "Hour of Toys." Jim Purcell, senior in architecture, captured the trophy for the best individual performer for his part in the Sig Ep skit.

Nearly $300 Given In Ugly Man Race

Almost $300 had been collected in the Ugly Man contest by Thursday night, according to Jerry Froebe, contest chairman.

Harlan Mickey, sponsored by Pi Beta Phi, is still in the lead with a total collection of $72.12. Other candidates are Jim Light, Al Peters, Joe Bradetich, Wes Ball, Waldo, Garry McMurray, John Jensen, Jim Crittenden and Cecil Lodges.

The winner will be presented with Herman the Moose Head at the All-Campus Vodvil tonight.

Oregon Daily

EMERALD
 Fifty-fourth year of Publication

Vol. LIV. UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, FRIDAY, APRIL 24, 1953 NO. 105

Four Chinese dancing girls and a sailor, members of the Alpha Chi Omega skit "Chinese Fantasy," practice for tonight's All-Campus Vodvil. From left to right above are Yvonne Rice, Carol Goodwin, Jean Paulus and Alma Owen. At the piano is Toni Brooks.

Closer Faculty Cooperation Goal Set by ASUO Senate

In a move to reduce overlapping student activities and settle the question of jurisdiction in student affairs, the ASUO senate Thursday night passed a resolution calling for closer cooperation with the faculty student affairs committee.

The resolution was proposed by Tom Shepherd, chairman of the student activities evaluation committee. His committee has been investigating action of the faculty committee in abolishing the Mortar Board and Military balls last term. Shepherd said the "heart of the problem" was: 1) the senate should be more influential, and 2) the student affairs committee should be more representative of the student body.

Donald M. DuShane, director of student affairs, outlined the history of the student affairs committee. He pointed out that it is primarily a faculty committee on which students served only through faculty consent.

It was a sub-committee composed of student members that recommended the abolishment of the two dances, he said.

"The office of student affairs and the ASUO senate, in no way, are in disagreement over the problem of student activities," DuShane remarked.

Charges against the rally board were leveled by Bob McCracken, chairman of a temporary senate committee investigating that body. According to McCracken the board minutes have been poorly kept and finances carelessly handled.

Recommendation of the committee was that a new rally board charter be adopted by the senate. Suggested changes were a reduction in membership and an increase in funds. Although the report was accepted, the new charter will not come up for approval until the next meeting.

A plan for an all campus primary has met with "unenthusiastic response," according to Don Colvin, chairman of the primary committee. A written report of the plan will be submitted at the next meeting.

McCracken was selected as new head of the honor code committee to succeed Francis Gillmore. He will have the power, with senate consent, to appoint interested students outside the senate to his committee.

Other action of the senate included the naming of a delegation to attend a leadership conference of the National Students' association at Marylhurst college May 1 and 2 and the appointment of a committee to study a proposed Northwest Federation of Collegiate Leaders.

High Schoolers Urged to Attend Saturday Night Preview Dance

High school seniors visiting the campus this weekend are urged to attend the special dance planned for them by the Student Union dance committee, according to Bob Summers and Sunny Allen, Duck Preview general co-chairman. The dance will be held from 9 to 12 in the SU ballroom.

"The Trail Leads to Oregon," theme of the Duck Preview dance, will be the first all-campus dance of spring term. Music will be provided by Jack Lowry and the Eugene All-Stars, a group composed of members of various local bands appearing together for the first time.

Admission for Oregon students will be 20 cents per person, according to Jackie Steuart, SU dance committee chairman. Tickets will be on sale at the dance. High school seniors will get free tickets when they register for Duck Preview.

Dates for the visiting seniors are to be arranged by the social chairmen in the living organizations. Dress for the dance will be short silks for women and suits for men, Miss Steuart said.

FLOOD

Officials Await 1000 Seniors For Weekend

Nearly 1000 high school seniors are expected to start arriving on campus today for the fourth annual Duck Preview, according to Sunny Allen and Bob Summers, general co-chairmen.

Kickoff event for the Preview will be the All-Campus Vodvil at 8 p.m. in McArthur court. Following the show, neighborhood parties will be held in various campus living organizations.

Oregon students have been urged by Summers to inform the seniors of the orientation assembly to be held at 10 a.m. Saturday in the Student Union ballroom. Speakers for the assembly will be Ray Hawk and Mrs. Golda Wickham, associate directors of student affairs.

Bob McCracken, freshman class president, will speak on campus social life, and the rally squad will lead the seniors in yells and songs. Pat Dignan, ASUO president, will be introduced to the seniors by Summers.

Following the assembly, members of Skull and Dagger and

Preview Schedule

- Noon-10 p.m.—Registration in Student Union.
- 8 p.m.—All-Campus Vodvil at McArthur court.
- 10:30—Open house in living organizations.
- Saturday
- 10 a.m.—Orientation assembly in SU ballroom.
- 10:30—Campus tours.
- 12:30 p.m.—Lunch in living organizations.
- 2-3 p.m.—Amphibian water show at Men's pool.
- 2-4 p.m.—Panhellenic tea for high school senior women at Gerlinger hall.
- 3 p.m.—Oregon - Washington baseball game, Howe field.
- 5-7:30 p.m.—Exchange dinners.
- 9 p.m.—Duck Preview dance in SU ballroom.

Kwama, sophomore honoraries, will conduct the seniors on tours of the campus in groups of 30. They will be shown through the SU by members of the hospitality committee.

Scientific experiments in the Science building will be one of the highlights of the tours which are to last until noon. Departmental personnel will be on hand to answer questions.

Other stops scheduled for the tours will be the Emerald shack, journalism and architecture schools, Villard hall (KWAX and University Theater), Commonwealth hall, the Co-op, library and the new geodesic dome.

Living organizations have been asked to provide lunch for the visiting high school seniors at 12:30 p.m. to allow time for them to return from the tours.

Amphibians, women's swimming honorary, will present a water pageant in the Men's pool from 2 to 3 Saturday afternoon. A review of the winter term presentation, "The Blue Dolphin," the show will feature some 30 Oregon women. Clown diving acts will be given at intermission, according to Sally Stadelman, Amphibians president.

Other events slated for Saturday afternoon will be the Oregon-University of Washington baseball game at Howe field at 3 and a Panhellenic tea for senior girls from 2 to 4 in Gerlinger Alumni hall.

Exchange dinners between men's houses and between women's houses will be held for the seniors from 5 to 7:30 Saturday evening. Final events of the weekend will be the all campus Duck Preview dance from 9 to 12 p.m. in the SU ballroom.

Quartet Scheduled For Auction Block

The Uncalled Four quartet has been added to the list of groups which will be sold to the highest bidder at today's World Student Service Fund auction on the Student Union terrace at 4 p.m., according to Dick Gray, publicity chairman. The quartet, along with other groups which will be auctioned off, will provide entertainment and serve dinner to the living organization which buys them.