By FRANK FLORI

Spurred on by the fine relief pitching of Bill Blodgett, the Oregon Duck baseball team overcame a four-run deficit to win its fourth straight game in a row, over the Washington Huskies, Friday afternoon. The win tightened the Ducks' hold on first place in Northern Division standings.

FRIDAY'S RESULTS

OREGON, 9, vs. Washington, 4.

SATURDAY GAMES

Washington at Oregon

A big five-run fifth inning was the major factor in the Oregon win. Jim Livesay opened festivities with a long triple to right-center. The roof then caved in on Husky pitcher Bill Reams, as he walked two men and hit Earl Averill with the bases loaded. Ron Phillips greeted relief Dick Merchie, with a solid single to left—driving in two markers. Merchie pitched his way out of the jam by giving up one more single and striking out the side.

Double Play Ends Inning

Stan Dmochowsky started on the mound for the Ducks, but was the victim of four hits, two walks and four runs, before Blodgett came in and forced Harvey Jaris to line into a double play to end the inning.

Ron Phillips' long two-base smash to left center was the big blow in the Ducks' two-run sixth. Phillips' liner followed Don Siegmund's fielder's-choice hit and Averill's poke into right field. Merchie then settled down and forced Forbes to fly to center, to end the inning. Coach Don Kirsch's Ducks' only threat in the eighth inning was a drag bunt down the first base line by Siegmund, the Oregon first baseman.

Washington in Cellar

Washington dropped deeper into the league cellar, as it lost its fourth game, compared to one win. The Ducks, by virtue of their Friday win, lead second place Idaho by two games. The Vandals have a three-won, two-lost record in league play.

Washington placed a veteran team on the courts, losing only one man from last year's team. The Ducks lost four netters by graduation.

UO Golf Team Downs Washington

The Oregon golf team virtually cinched its fifth straight ND dual match title Friday as it topped the strong Washington Huskies, 18½-8½ in a match at the Eugene Country club.

The Ducks led 5-4 at the end of morning best ball play, and 3-0 sweeps by Captain Bob Atkinson, Don Krieger, and Al Mundle helped them sweep to the win.

Atkinson and Huskie Don Russell fired 70's for medalist honors.

Blodgett, the hefty all-city ace from Grant high school, Portland, pitched 8 2/3 scoreless innings in his relief stint against the Huskies. Bill's control was unbeatable, as he walked only one batter and scattered six singles. Washington's Bill Reams and Dick Merchie gave up ten blows and five walks between them.

Extra base blows for Oregon were smashed out by Ron Phillips and Jim Livesay. Both blows figured in Oregon scoring.

Forbes to Pitch

Oregon will again host the Huskies this afternoon at 2 p.m. on Howe field. Coach Don Kirsch has nominated Norm Forbes, a left-hander, as his mound candidate.
