

Washington Thinclad Squad Drops Oregon Ducks, 77-54

Washington's depth and experience paid off on a wet field Saturday at Seattle, as the Huskies bumped the Duck cindermen for the first time in two years 77-54. The Oregon tracksters turned in brilliant performances, winning six events and tying two others, but lack of depth along with Washington's sweeps in the discus and javelin combined to send the Webfoots down to defeat.

Oregon's Al Martin turned in the upset of the day as he outran the ND champion Bob Fornia in the mile with a time of 4:22.1. Ted Anderson led the Oregon team with victories in the 440 and the low hurdles.

Anderson regained his 440 crown by beating out Jack Burney, his only serious contender. The Duck vault team, tops in the Northwest and one of the best on the coast, swept that event with Ray Packwood first, and Russ Man-nex and Ken Hickenbottom tied for second.

Springbett Wins Century
Bruce Springbett edged out Bob Hutchinson in the 100 but Hutchinson came right back in the 220 to beat Springbett. Oregon's Jerry Mock finished third in both events. Doug Clement won the 880, as expected.

Washington's George Widenfelt didn't quite live up to expectations, but he did manage to score 15 points for the Huskies. He failed to capture a single event although he did tie for first in the high jump and place second in the javelin, discus, low hurdles and broad jump.

The loss was Oregon's fourth in the last 18 ND meets. Oregon will travel to Pullman next Saturday for a meet with the highly favored Washington State Cougars.

At Pullman, Saturday, WSC, hot on the trail of their 13th Northern Division championship, overpowered Bruce Sweeney and the Idaho Vandals, 97-33. Sweeney accounted for 20 of Idaho's points. He won the low and high hurdles, high jump, and broad jump.

Trojans Win
Only one meet was held in the Southern Division. Parry O'Brien tossed the shot 58 feet 8 1/4 inches, just two inches short of a new world's record, to win that event and the discus as he paced Southern Cal to a 78-53 win over California.

Quartet Pitches Freshmen Nine To Eugene Win

Coach John Londahl's Frosh baseball team knocked out only nine hits, but took advantage of six Eugene high errors to wallop the Axemen, 15-6 at Civic Stadium Saturday.

Oregon was ahead all the way, garnering two runs in the first, five more in the second, and another five in the third. A lone tally was produced in the fourth frame, and the Ducklings wound up their scoring with two in the top of the seventh.

Londahl sent four pitchers to the firing line. Duane Reeves received credit for the win, although he was relieved in the third by lanky Max Anderson.

Linksters Beat Seattle; Tennis Squad Loses

University of Oregon's golf team won its third straight meet Saturday afternoon at Eugene Country club, bowling over the Seattle University Chieftains, 21 1/2-5 1/2. Al Mundle turned in the top score, winning medalist honors with a 70. The Duck's tennis team wasn't faring so well, however, as the court crew bowed out to Seattle, 4-3.

Averill's Tenth Inning Home Run Gives Oregon Edge Over Huskies

Oregon won its tenth game in a row and its fifth straight in the Northern Division baseball race by downing Washington, 4-3, last Saturday at Howe field on the strength of Earl Averill's tenth frame home run over the left field bank.

By virtue of the victory, Coach Don Kirsch's crew stretched its ND lead to two games over Idaho, Norm Forbes, promising sophomore, racked up his second mound victory by going the entire ten inning route. He allowed only six hits and gave up a solitary earned run.

So far, in the young Northern Division season, Kirsch has been limiting his pitching chores to sophomores, and it has paid off as Forbes has come up with a pair of wins, Stan Dmochowsky has a lone victory to his credit, and Bill Blodgett has come through with two fine wins in relief roles. It was the fourth time in five games that the Webfoots had come from behind to win. Washington jumped to an early lead in the second frame via an Oregon error, a stolen base and Bill Stuh's double.

The two teams traded a run in the fourth, but Washington built up its lead in the top of the seventh on another Duck miscue, a walk and another two-base hit by John Garner.

In the last of the eighth, Pete Williams sent Husky left fielder Tom Abscher scampering over the bank to haul down a long drive which should have been a home run. However, the hit did drive in Jim Archer and Ron Phillips to tie up the contest and set the stage for Averill's four master.

Bowling Tournaments Open for Men, Women

Five men and women's bowling tournaments will be held May 1-15 in the Student Union for all students, faculty, university employees, and their families. All entrants must be signed up by 11 p.m. Thursday, April 30, according to Lou Bellissimo, SU recreational director.

Three divisions will be open for the men, and two tournaments will be held for women, so that everyone, no matter how good, will have a chance to compete with opponents of equal ability.

The men will be divided into an A class, for good bowlers with no handicap; B class for keggers with a handicap who have an established university average; and C class, for those beginners with no average.

The women will compete in either the A division, for bowlers with an established university average; or the B class, for beginners and bowlers with no average.

Each entrant will bowl 12 games, all except the last three at his own convenience.

The Student Union, which is organizing the tournaments, will present individual take-home trophies to the five winners, and also put each winner's name on a permanent trophy.

Robin Roberts, Philadelphia Phillies pitcher, gave up only 45 bases on balls in 330 innings last year.
