

Betas Drop Sigma Nu Softballers 2-1

Despite frequent drizzles and wet grounds, intramural softball action was successfully carried on Tuesday with five games being played.

Beta Theta Pi, behind the superb pitching of Harlan Mickey, downed a strong Sigma Nu nine 2-1 in a well played ball game.

Sigma Nu scored their lone run in the third inning on a single, a walk and a costly Beta error. This one run lead looked like possibly the only score of the ball game until the Beta's opened the fifth inning with a hit, followed by a Sigma Nu error, a fielder's choice and then a long double.

This splurge counted for two tallies, which proved to be enough to win the ball game.

The Betas has a total of two runs on six hits while Sigma Nu had a total of one run on two hits.

Hale Kane Wins, 14-2

Hale Kane continued their winning streak by downing the Campbell Clubbers 14-2 behind the two-hit pitching of Al Wardell. The Hale Kane nine jumped to an early lead by scoring five runs in the first inning. Campbell club sent three flingers to the firing line in a strong attempt to stop the parade.

Hale Kane drew a total of fourteen runs on nine hits. They obtained ten walks and there were eight Campbell Club errors.

Track Squad Preps for Encounter With Washington State Saturday

Oregon's cindermen will run through light practice Friday in final preparation for Saturday's big meet with the WSC Cougars. The Ducks will be gunning for their third straight dual meet win over the powerful Cougars but last Saturday's meet showed that Oregon has a drastic shortage of manpower which will hurt any chances of upsetting the powerful Washington Staters.

Bob Gary, PCC 100 yard dash champion will provide plenty of competition for Oregon's Bruce Springbett. Springbett is one of the most promising sprint men in the Northwest. Ted Anderson should easily win the 440 event.

Doug Clement will run up against his first real competition in Al Link. Link has turned in the best time for the half mile so far this season. The Cougars are particularly weak in the pole vault, high jump and broad jump. The Ducks also have a good chance in the hurdles, shot put, and melle.

Oregon could pull an upset but win or not it will be one of the closest meets of the year. The Webfoots are almost certain to sweep the pole vault and the Cougars could do the same in the javelin and discus.

Weather Halts Duck-Pilot Tilt

Oregon's baseball team, which has rolled up ten straight victories was temporarily halted yesterday, when a scheduled nine inning game with the non-conference Portland Pilots was cancelled because of rain.

The next action on the Webfoot slate is a weekend series with the Washington State Cougars at Pullman, Wash., Friday and Saturday afternoon.

So far this season the Cougars have beaten OSC and Idaho. Oregon also downed Idaho but succumbed to the powerful Washington Huskies.
