

Three AGS Aspirants For Prexy to be Judged

Primary Amendment Fails in ASUO Senate

The ASUO senate Thursday evening refused to refer the "open-primary plan" to the student body to be voted on in the spring term general elections. The proposed amendment failed to get the two-thirds majority of the senators necessary to place it on the ballot.

Don Collin, originator of the plan, called for a roll call vote which was 13 to 7 in favor of placing the proposed amendment on the ballot.

Collin listed objections to the plan which were brought out in an investigation by a senate committee. The objections were: too many good people would not be elected to office, smaller percentage of voters in the primary and no demand for it in AGS.

The amendment may be placed on the ballot if 200 student signatures are secured requesting it.

The senate voted to withdraw the UO's membership in Pacific Slope President's association. At last week's meeting they voted to retain membership but not to send a representative.

A motion to place an amendment to create a senatorial position for a graduate student on the general election ballot was defeated. This same motion was also defeated fall term.

Pat Dignan, ASUO president, issued a call for petitions for yelling. Petitions are due in the ASUO president's office.

2 a.m. Closing Set For Junior Prom

Woman's closing hours for the Junior Prom next Friday night, have been extended to 2 a.m., according to Prom co-chairman Judy McLoughlin. The decision came from the office of student affairs earlier in the week.

Tickets for the Prom will go on sale in men's living organizations and at the Co-op Monday noon. Sales will continue in the Co-op from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily through next Friday. They will also be sold at the door to the dance Friday evening.

Price of the tickets is $2.88 per couple. Included in this figure is 48 cents for tax, said Miss McLoughlin.

Scheduled to play for the formal dance is Jack Fina and his nationally known orchestra.

JACK FAUST, TOM WRIGHTSON AND PAUL LASKER
AGS Presidential Hopefuls

Associated Greek Students party begins its three-day primary Monday with lunch hour voting on three candidates for the nomination for ASUO president.

The three are Jack Faust, Paul Lasker and Tom Wrightson. The winner will oppose Don Collin, UIS nominee for president in the independent party's primary Wednesday.

A total of 47 candidates are seeking some nomination on the AGS ticket. Losers in Monday's primary will be eligible for the class office primary on Tuesday. And losers that second day may run for a senate-at-large nomination in Wednesday's primary.

All three days' voting will be held in fraternities and sororities during lunch. Pledges are eligible to vote; they have been asked to do so by AGS.

In the event that neither Faust,

Lasker nor Wrightson obtain a majority for the votes Monday, the candidate with the fewest votes will be eliminated and a runoff election between the top two men will be held at dinner in Greek organizations.

This is the first year that Greek students will vote directly on all candidates for the AGS nominations. Last year a primary was held just for the ASUO president nominations, with the AGS representatives from each house selecting the remainder of the slate in caucus.

Previously, all candidates were selected by the representatives.

The AGS primary will select a candidate for ASUO president, six candidates for the 12 class offices, and nine candidates for the nine senate-at-large positions, exactly the number selected in each case by UIS in its primary.

Balloting for class officers Tuesday and for senators-at-large Wednesday will be by preferential voting. (Voters will number the contenders in order of preference, and surplus ballots of the winners will be distributed to the other contenders according to second choice—third, etc., if necessary—until the required number of offices are filled.)

Schmidt Running As Independent

Ben Schmidt, defeated candidate for the UIS student body presidential nomination, has decided to run in the general election, as a non-partisan, for senator-at-large—with the blessings of UIS.

Due to an operational misunderstanding, Schmidt's name was left off the senate-at-large portion of the UIS primary ballot, although he was eligible to run for both ASUO president and the senate-at-large if he desired.

Thursday the UIS party voted to place Schmidt on the ASUO ballot as a nominee for senate-at-large, along with their nine nominated candidates. But Schmidt declined the offer, believing that it would be unfair to the nine candidates who were elected in the independent primary Wednesday.

Schmidt told the Emerald Wednesday night that he definitely supports UIS and Don Collin, UIS nominee for president. And a representative of UIS said that the party supports Schmidt in the senate-at-large race.

47 AGS Hopefuls Turn in Petitions

Forty-seven candidates have petitioned for nominations in the three-day AGS primary beginning Monday.

Jack Faust, ASUO presidential candidate, has a 2.68 accumulative GPA, has been AGS president, a member of Skull and Dagger, a yell duke and president of Theta Chi.

Paul Lasker, also a candidate for the ASUO nomination, has a 2.34 accum., has been vice-president of the junior class, vice-president of Druids, member of the Student Union board and a member of Skull and Dagger.

Tom Wrightson, third ASUO presidential candidate, has a 2.5 accum., has been senior class president, member of IFC, Friars, Druids, Skull and Dagger, senior ball chairman and Chi Psi president.

Senior class presidential contenders are Alan Opplinger, Clarke Miller and Wes Ball. Running for the representative nominations are Anne Dielschneider, Pat Ruan, Jane Slocum and Pat Gildea; for junior class president are Ward Cook and Jim Light; for representative are Marcia Tamiesie, Ann Blackwell, Shirley Wendt, Yvonne Holm, Nancy Randolph and Virginia Johnson.

Candidates for sophomore class president are Marty Brandenfels, Jim Duncan, Garry McMurry, Jack Lally, Bud Hinkson and Jerry Farrow; for representative are Gerry Porritt, Marilyn Parrish, Barbara Wilcox, Paula Curry, Rhoda Mae Wolfe, Janet Gustafson, Edna Humiston, Joan Price, Jane Bergstrom and Ann Erickson.

Phi Beta Members To Entertain Army

Eleven members of Phi Beta, women's speech and music honorary, will be flown by Army transport to Fort Lewis, McChord field and Hanford air base in Washington this weekend for the second presentation of their Army entertainment program.

Freshman Picnic Scheduled Sunday

Plans are complete for the freshman class picnic slated Sunday afternoon at Armitage park, according to Bob McCracken, freshman president. Dates are optional, McCracken said.

No Sunday dinners will be served in freshman dormitories, since a picnic lunch will be served at the park about 2 p.m.

Five hayracks will pick up freshman men at the Vet's Dorms Sunday at 1 p.m., after which the hayracks will stop for frosh at Hendricks, Sherry Ross, and Carson.

Inter-dormitory softball duels will highlight the picnic. Sherry Ross, Merrick, and Carson 3 will play French and Hendricks. Stitzer and Carson 4 have challenged Nestor and Carson 5.

Hawaiian Mixer Scheduled Tonight

"Malihina Moon" is the title of the mixer slated tonight in the Student Union fishbowl from 9 to midnight. The dance is under the co-sponsorship of the SU and the Hawaiian club, Hui O Kamaaina.

Dress is to be Hawaiian, with campus clothes for women and loud shirts for men. A prize will be awarded for the gaudiest shirt. Admission is free.

Entertainment during the mixer will be based on a Hawaiian legend called "Huanani," meaning "blossom of the sea." Hulas done in costume and island songs are planned by the Hawaiian club, according to president Charles Oyama.

Students will dance in an island setting of fishes, spear fishermen and hula dancers, decorations chairman Toki Toyama said.
