

Campus Prepares For Junior Weekend As Events Near

Preparations for the 1953 "Holiday" Junior Weekend got in to high gear today as the biggest UO event of the year is only a few days away. Tickets for all events requiring them — Friday's Prom, Saturday's luncheon and sing — are now on sale in the Co-op and the Student Union.

Traditions go into effect Tuesday morning and members of the Order of O, letterman's club, will be patrolling the campus to see they are observed. Freshmen men are to wear rooter's lids, women green ribbons throughout the week. If the freshmen win the tug-o-war with the sophomores Friday, they will be privileged to get rid of their neophyte symbols.

Living organizations have been paired to clean designated sections of the campus Thursday afternoon. The cleaning is to be done by 4 p.m., at which time judging of the best job will be done.

Terrace Dance Follows

A terrace dance will begin at the SU at 4 p.m. Thursday and run to 5:45 p.m. "Holiday in Hong Kong" has been set as the theme for the dance which will feature the presentation of the weekend court, awarding of the clean-up trophy and the scrubbing of the seal by freshmen men at 5 p.m. Jack Loughary's band will furnish music for dancing.

Friday's big event will be the Junior Prom featuring Jack Fina and his orchestra. The formal dance will begin at 9 p.m. and intermission ceremonies are set for 10:30 p.m. Announcement and coronation of the queen, presentation of the Gerlinger and Koyl cups to the outstanding junior woman and man and tapping by Druids, junior men's honorary, will highlight the dance.

Frosh-Soph Slate Tug

At 4 p.m., the freshmen and sophomore men will battle it out in the annual tug-o-war, the rope to be stretched across the Millrace behind Kappa Sigma. Class presidents are in charge of their respective teams.

The all-campus luncheon will take place on Old Campus beginning at 11:45 a.m. Saturday. No lunches will be served in living organizations that day. Tickets for the event, priced at 47 cents, go on sale today at the Co-op, the Student Union main desk and in living organizations. Tappings for several honoraries will feature the program for the luncheon.

Floats Start at 4

The float parade is scheduled to leave downtown Eugene at 4 p.m. Saturday. It will come up 13th ave., turn on to University and end at McArthur court. Floats constructed by living organizations, the queen and her court, bands and skits interspersed along the line of march are to make up the parade.

Saturday's events will be climaxed by the All-campus Sing competition at 8 p.m. in McArthur court. Sixteen living organizations will present their songs to be judged for the top award for men and women. Tickets for the sing go on sale today for 90 cents.

(Please turn to page four)

Three Seek AGS Presidential Nod

Members of Associated Greek Students will vote for class office candidates in Tuesday's lunch-hour primary, following this noon's balloting on candidates for the ASUO presidential nomination.

Jack Faust, Paul Lasker and Tom Wrightson are seeking the latter bid. Losers are eligible to run for senior class office Tuesday. If no candidate gets a majority in today's primary, a run-off will be held at dinner today.

At 7 tonight the AGS policy committee will screen petitions for class office. Five names for each position will be placed on the ballot. Losers in the primary will be eligible to run for a senate-at-large nomination in Wednesday's primary.

Petitioners for class offices, with their major activities and accumulative GPA's are:

Senior class president: Wes Ball, 2.78; Clarke Miller, JIFC, Community chest, Alpha Phi Omega, Skull and Dagger, 2.09; Alan Oppinger, Alpha Phi Omega, president of Sigma Phi Epsilon, track, Oregon advertising manager, 2.75.

Representative: Anne Dielschneider, co-chairman of Junior Prom, Oregon associate editor, Phi Theta Upsilon, Kwama, co-chairman of Heart Hop, junior panhellenic, 2.75; Pat Gildea, AWS congress, 2.8; Pat Ruan, Junior Weekend secretary, AGS secretary, chairman of campus Red Cross drive, 2.8, and Jane Slocum, YWCA, 3.20.

Junior class president: Ward Cook, SU publicity chairman, Dads' weekend promotion, Skull and Dagger, 2.9, and Jim Light, freshman class representative, Skull and Dagger, Alpha Phi Omega, Praesidens, new Oregon business manager, duck preview program coordinator, 2.91.

Representative: Ann Blackwell, Duck Preview promotion chairman, WRA carnival publicity chairman, Kwama, YWCA, 2.26; Yvonne Holm, YWCA, 2.7; Virginia Johnson, Duck Preview dance chairman, 2.6; Nancy Randolph, Kwama, Rally Board, co-chairman of Heart Hop, chairman of AWS Christmas tea program, 2.39; Marcia Tamiesie, 2.09, and Shirley

(Please turn to page four)

Econ Professor Speaks Tonight

One of the nation's foremost economists, Frank Knight, professor of economics from the University of Chicago, will present tonight the first of two lectures scheduled while he is on campus this week.

Knight will speak on "Economic Education—A Problem in Salesmanship," at 7:30 p.m. today in the Student Union Dads' lounge. A discussion on "Human Nature and Free Society" is slated by Knight at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the browsing room.

A coffee hour forum is scheduled in the SU at 4 p.m. Tuesday for students to talk with the economist.

Recognized as one of America's outstanding economists and a defender of the concept of economic freedom, Knight is the author of "The Economic Order of Religion," "Freedom and Religion" and other books. He has also been a guest lecturer in several British and American universities.

Knight holds a Ph.D. degree from Cornell university and honorary degrees from Princeton, Northwestern university and the University of Glasgow. He is past president of the American Economists association.

During Knight's three day visit on campus, he will meet with representatives from Linfield, Lewis and Clark, Reed and Oregon State Colleges, and Portland, Pacific and Willamette universities at a seminar sponsored by the UO economics department at 2 p.m. Wednesday in Commonwealth hall.

A luncheon with faculty members in the SU at noon Thursday will end Knight's visit here.

Versatile Candidate

JOAN WALKER
 Likes Model Airplanes

A girl who grew up with model airplanes for toys is Joan Walker, tall, blonde candidate for Junior Weekend queen.

"My father's business is manufacturing model airplanes, and then he had two girls and no boys in the family," commented Joan, who lives in Portland. As a major in secondary education, versatile Joan plans to teach English, literature, health and physical education.

Refinishing wood furniture is one of Joan's practical hobbies, while she also enjoys swimming and horseback riding. Chairman of the Red Cross board and vice-president of Phi Theta Upsilon are two of the offices held by Joan, in addition to serving as YWCA junior adviser, a member of the AWS cabinet and scholarship chairman of Kappa Alpha Theta.

Tradition to Start Tuesday Morning

Junior Weekend traditions begin Tuesday morning with the first punishment scheduled for Wednesday noon, according to Barney Holland, junior weekend traditions chairman.

Holland stated that traditions will be enforced by members of the Order of the O. Women violators will be dunked in Fenton pool and men violators will be hauled in front of Fenton hall by members of the Order of the O.

Traditions for the week, according to Holland, are:

1. Freshman men are to wear rooter's lids.
2. Freshman women are to wear green hair ribbons.
3. No smoking on the Old Campus (north of 13th).
4. No walking on the Oregon Seal (in front of the Student Union).
5. Seniors only on the senior benches (across Onyx street from John Straub hall and on the old campus).
6. No walking on the grass anywhere on campus.
7. Hello walk is the sidewalk from the corner of 13th and University to the main entrance of the Student Union.
8. Freshman-sophomore tug-of-war Friday at 4 p.m. behind the Kappa Sigma house.
9. Scrubbing of the seal Thursday at 5 p.m. after the intermission of the Terrace dance.
10. Class pants traditions for men — suntans for freshmen, suntans, levis or faded blue denims for sophomores and cords and slacks for upperclassmen.

UIS Banquet Slated For Tuesday Night

United Independent Students will kick off its official campaign for the ASUO general election April 13 with a banquet Tuesday night.

A limited number of reservations, approximately 75, are available. Reservations for the banquet may be made with Tom Shepherd at Gamma hall or Hollis Ransom at Campbell club.

The banquet will be a steak dinner in the special dining hall at the southeast end of John Straub dormitory, beginning at 6:30 p.m. Price will be $1.10, and the banquet is open to everyone, Ransom said.

Karr Elected Head Of Sigma Delta Chi

Al Karr, junior in journalism, is the new president of the University chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, national men's professional journalistic fraternity. He replaces Ward Lindbeck.

Assisting Karr for the coming year will be Dave Averill, vice president; Joe Gardner, secretary; Bill Gurney, treasurer, and Len Calvert, historian. C. T. Duncan, associate professor of journalism, was re-elected as chapter advisor.

Mothers to Hold Business Meeting

Tickets for the annual breakfast business meeting of the Oregon Mother's club, to be held at 9 a.m. Saturday in the Student Union, are now on sale at the main desk of the SU, according to ticket chairman Jo Kopp. Price of breakfast tickets is $1.25. All tickets must be purchased by Thursday, Miss Kopp added.

Tickets are also available at the office of Karl D. Onthank, associate director of student affairs, in Emerald hall.

The Madrigal Singers, under the direction of Donald Allton, assistant professor of music, will entertain at the business meeting.

Prexies to Speak

Slated to address the mothers during the weekend are Mrs. John Caughell, president of the Oregon Mothers; Arthur Prialux, president of the Oregon Dads, and Pat Dignan, ASUO president.

The mothers executive board will meet at noon Friday in the SU.

A special section of the All-campus Sing Saturday evening has been reserved for the mothers, according to Marilyn Lundell, hospitality chairman. The mothers will also be honored at a tea to be held in Gerlinger hall Saturday afternoon and at the Sunlight Serenade in the open air auditorium of the music school Sunday afternoon.

Other Events Planned

Other events planned for the mothers include attendance at the Junior Prom Friday evening, the all-campus luncheon Saturday noon, and a Sunday morning breakfast in the faculty club with dinner in the living organizations.

Two new trophies will be awarded at the all-campus sing. They will go to the men's and women's houses which have the largest percentage of mothers registered for the weekend, according to Barbara Wilcox, general chairman.