Ducks Drop Pair To WSC Batters

University of Oregon's baseball team, although losing two games in a row to Washington State last weekend, still remains on top of the Northern Division baseball race, a full game ahead of the second place Cougars.

The Ducks will attempt to stretch that margin back to two games this afternoon and tomorrow when they invade Moscow, Idaho, for a two contest series with the third running Van-days, coached by Chuck Finlay. The Webfoot victory string of five straight in conference action came to an end Friday afternoon via a 2-0 blanking at the hands of the Cougars at Pullman, Wash. Norm Forbes, right handed sophomore on Oregon's mound staff, gave up only four hits, but three of them were to Glenn Kranc, hard-hitting Cougar second baseman.

Going into the bottom of the eighth, the two clubs were engaged in a scoreless deadlock. But then Jim Williams was safe on an error by Duck first sacker, Bob Wagner. The next two hitters flied out, but Kranc, the fourth batter, connected with Forbes' second pitch for a 375 foot home run into center field.

In the second game, which WSC won, 12-1, the Eugene team hopped to a temporary 1-0 lead in the top of the first frame. George Shaw walked and scored on two Washington State errors.

The home team scored a singleton in the second to tie it up, and then went ahead for good with four tallies in the third, three in the fourth and two each in the seventh and eighth.

Dmochowsky started for Oregon and was tagged with his first setback against a single victory. He was relieved in the fourth by John Pyle, who in turn gave way to Bill Blodgett in the eighth.

Cougar Runners Take 12 Events

Pullman — The Washington State Cougars won their third consecutive Northern Division dual meet here Saturday, taking 12 of 15 events to smother Oregon's Ducks, 86-44. It was not an inglorious defeat for the Webfoots. It could almost be called a moral victory for the Eugene men, as many of them came through with brilliant performances.

Oregon entered the meet heavily unfavored, with numerous injuries and the rigors of a long trip for good measure. The Ducks were spread thinly over the 15 events and some men entered as many as three events. Considering everything, the Oregon men gave a "better than could be expected" performance.

Fred Turner came into his own as a distance runner after a poor showing last year. He trailed WSC's Lou Montoya for three laps and then, on the last quarter, he came through with a kick that sent him across the finish line in a time of 4:23.

Doug Clement piled up more points for the Ducks in the 440. Again only one Oregon man was entered and again he ran away from the field. In the half-mile, Al Martin, a miler, finished inches behind Bill Link of WSC, with a very good time of 1:54.5. Link set a new meet record with his time of 1:54.1.

Howard McCants lived up to his record as a high jumper when he cleared the bar at 6'2" without warming up and with a sweat suit on. Bob Faucett, Oregon's top high jump man, tried the broad jump for the first time in his life and came through with a leap of 21'9" to capture second.

Al Fisher, the Cougars ace distance man, broke his own record in the two miles with a time of 9:27.3. Bob Gary's time of 20.9 in the 220 dash also beat the meet record but was not allowed as the wind was a bit too strong.

The meet ended on a note of misfortune for the Ducks. Doug Clement, Oregon's anchor man in the mile relay, made up some twenty yards to overtake WSC's Don Horner only to drop the baton in the stretch. He finished the race two strides ahead of Horner but the Oregon team was disqualified.

Summary:
 Mile — Turner (O); Montoya (WSC); Matson (WSC). Time 4:23.

Linksters Capture Third Straight; Netmen Lose

Oregon's golf team turned in its third straight Northern Division victory Saturday at the Eugene Country club, almost shutting out the Oregon State Beavers, 26-1.

Bob Atkinson and Don Kreiger shot a 67 to win the best ball matches. Al Mundle and Fred Strebel, Oregon's second team and Neil Dwyer and Al Cross, the third Duck pair, won the other two matches. Bill Sundstrom and Fred Duncan each picked up half a point for OSC in individual competition.

Oregon's varsity and frosh tennis teams, on the other hand were succumbing to the Oregon State netters, 7-0 and 6-1. The closest Oregon came to a win in the varsity matches was in the last doubles competition when the Duck netters pushed the series into three sets.

Dick Grey won the lone match for the Ducklings, 6-3, 3-6, and 10-8, over Pete Overton.

Pi KA's ATO Win IM Games

In intramural games played last Friday afternoon, Kappa Sigma throttled the Phi Gamma Delta crew, 11-5; Alpha Tau Omega humiliated Pi Kappa Phi, 23-4; Pi Kappa Alpha upset Chi Psi, 13-5; and Theta Chi defeated the Deltas by forfeit.
