

Campus Readies For Weekend

Awards and tappings are to be on the program also.

Sunlight Serenade Outside

Last event for the weekend will be the Sunlight Serenade at 3 p.m. Sunday at the outdoor amphitheater behind the music school. Winners of the Saturday sing and several soloists will present a musical program.

Mothers' Weekend events will be held in conjunction with the Junior Weekend program and all visiting mothers will be invited to attend all the events. Special plans are being made for them at the Prom and a section will be reserved at the Sing. Mothers may also attend the luncheon, view the parade and attend the serenade. Living organizations will also be entertaining them.

Limited Scholarships For Foreign Students

Full expenses scholarships will be provided for selected foreign students by the United States Technical Cooperation administration, according to an announcement this week by K. S. Ghent, foreign student adviser.

The institute will be conducted from June 22 to August 7 at Michigan State college.

To be eligible a foreign student must be completing his bachelor's degree or higher level of training this year; must be returning to his country this year; must be preparing for a career in health, education, industry, community service, public administration, or agriculture. He also must come from Latin-America, South-East Asia, the Near East, or Africa, Ghent said.

Additional information about the institute may be obtained from Ghent at the office of student affairs in Emerald hall.

Poetry Contest Entries May Still Be Submitted.

Entries for the Julia Burgess Poetry contest should be turned in to the English office by noon, May 15, according to the English department. A $25 prize will be awarded to the undergraduate student submitting the best original poem.

Any type of poetry may be submitted, but short poems should be turned in as a group of not more than five or less than three, the department announced.

Manuscripts should be typewritten, double spaced and submitted in triplicate, with the author's name and the title of the poem enclosed in a separate envelope.

Interviews Slated By Lipman Wolfe

Interviews for prospective college board members at Lipman Wolfe & Co., in Portland, will be held Tuesday, according to the graduate placement office.

Lipman's fashion co-ordinator, Miss Thelma Barton, will interview interested students in Emerald hall between 10 and 12 a.m. and 1 and 4 p.m.

Women will be selected upon the basis of their college and activity records, personality, poise and their desire to become members of the board. Incoming juniors and seniors are preferred, although not definitely required.

Appointments to see Miss Barton may be made at the graduate placement office in Emerald hall.

Don't you want to try a cigarette with a record like this?

1. THE QUALITY CONTRAST between Chesterfield and other leading cigarettes is a revealing story. Recent chemical analyses give an index of good quality for the country's six leading cigarette brands.

The index of good quality table—a ratio of high sugar to low nicotine—shows Chesterfield quality highest

... 15% higher than its nearest competitor and Chesterfield quality 31% higher than the average of the five other leading brands.

YEARS AHEAD OF THEM ALL!

2. First to Give You Premium Quality in Regular and King-size . . . much milder with an extraordinarily good taste—and for your pocketbook, Chesterfield is today's best cigarette buy.

3. A Report Never Before Made About a Cigarette: For well over a year a medical specialist has been giving a group of Chesterfield smokers regular examinations every two months. He reports . . . no adverse effects to nose, throat and sinuses from smoking Chesterfield.

BEST FOR YOU
