

ROTC Award Review Slated For Thursday

Thursday at 1 p.m., the Army ROTC unit will hold its annual awards and decorations reviewing parade, Col. Emory L. Bruns, military department head, has announced.

Awards are to be given to students ranking highest in their class in academic standing in respect to the rest of the ROTC department, and to the top five shots on the rifle team.

The top student of the year in Military Science is Roger Miller. William Baker, Roger Miller, Alonzo Stiner and Marvin Young were the top four students of winter term.

In the sophomore course, Military Science II, Donald Crawford ranked the top standing. The five best of winter term are John Barker, Robert Black, Robert Glasson, David Wells and Crawford.

The Infantry Achievement award will be presented to John Miewald, and the Transportation Corps Achievement award, given annually to the outstanding junior performer, will be presented to Navarre Booth Davis.

The five best riflemen are, in order: Gordon Nobriga, Herbert Yamataka, Lee Tucker, Royal Aubrey and Francis Beeman.

Freddy Martin Stops in Eugene

Freddy Martin, bandleader and radio entertainer, stayed in Eugene Monday night with his 18-piece band before continuing south on a tour of one night stands.

Martin told an Emerald reporter that Jack Fina, whose orchestra will play for the Junior Prom Friday night, is "very good." Fina spent ten years with the Martin group as a pianist.

"College kids like to listen to jazz," said Martin, "but they like dancing on the sweet side." He added that the "Bunny Hop" is the newest rage. "That's a congo with a hop," the orchestra leader explained.

Tickets Available For Mother's Day

Only two more days remain for the purchase of tickets to the Mothers club annual meeting and breakfast Saturday morning, according to Jo Kopp, ticket chairman.

The tickets are on sale at the main desk in the Student Union for $1.25. They are also available at the office of Karl D. Onthank, associate director of student affairs, in Emerald hall.

Following the breakfast, the mothers will be entertained at the all-campus luncheon, a mother's tea, the float parade and the all-campus sing Saturday evening in McArthur court.

Two trophies for the highest percentages of mothers registered will be awarded for the first time at the all-campus sing, according to Barbara Wilcox, general chairman for the weekend.

Students to be Polled On Education Costs

Oregon is one of 100 colleges in the nation selected by the U. S. Office of Education to participate in a survey to determine the costs of a college education, according to Clifford Constance, coordinator of the survey.

A total of 260 students, 108 women and 152 men, will be sent questionnaires for the survey from the office of student affairs. They must be returned to Emerald hall by May 20.

The question of federal aids to education and to individual college students will be influenced by this survey. Problems which must be faced, according to the office of education, include a growing uneasiness over continued increases in the costs of higher education, an eventual breakdown of the present system of student tuitions and fee charges, decisions about the best ways to provide assistance to college students, and the effects of the family income level on educational opportunity.

Campus Briefs

Wednesday night's educational movies this week at the Student Union will include three films on folk music: "To Hear Your Banjo Play," a film on the history and origin of American folk music; "Tall Tales," which features Burl Ives, Joshua White, Will Greer and Winston O'Keefe, and "Two British Folk Songs," with Dale Smith. Also a film called "Leningrad Music Hall," which features excerpts from "Rigoletto" will be shown. Time is 7 and 9 p.m., and admission is free.

Names of candidates for Least Man on Campus must be turned in to Phyllis Pearson at Carson hall by Friday. "Disqualifications" suggested for the representatives were listed in Tuesday's paper.

The SU record-lending library, with a wide range of records available, is now open Monday through Friday from 3 to 5 p.m., according to Bob Koutek, chairman of the SU recorded music committee. The records are available for use by all students and faculty members, Koutek said.
