

Human Nature Problem Posed By U of C Prof

The problem of human nature in a free society is unanswerable but it must be answered, said Frank H. Knight, professor of economics at the University of Chicago, in a browsing room lecture Wednesday.

"This is another question that must be answered when every answer is wrong," said Knight. We must live in our universe as well as possible and try to change it while avoiding a change for the worse, he said in his talk on "Human Nature in a Free Society."

Knight's final lecture during his stay on the campus was heard by capacity audience. "Man's function is to build the world, but we can't do it very fast," he commented. "We must face the dilemma and live in it until we can change it."

"Man is the one irrational animal; a social animal," Knight said. "However," he remarked, "Colonial insects are the real social animals. It is fairly easy to organize people against each other, but it is hard to organize the world together," he added.

When we look at the history of man's thinking, Knight said, "Is this critter capable of being given

'Hong Kong' Dance Set On SU Terrace Today

A "Holiday in Hong Kong" will be staged at 4 p.m. today on the terrace of the Student Union when the Junior Weekend terrace dance gets underway following the campus clean-up.

Living organizations have been asked by Paul Lasker, dance chairman, to postpone dinner tonight until 6 p.m. because of the dance which will last until approximately 5:45. Jack Loughary and his band will provide music for the free dance.

Free refreshments—cookies and punch — will be served at the dance, Lasker said. The Junior Weekend court will be introduced and freshmen will scrub the Oregon seal at the 4:45 intermission. Awards for the clean-up and the Alpha Phi Omega cup for the outstanding freshman man will be presented during the intermission, he added.

Assisting Lasker on the terrace dance committee are: Phyllis Pearson and Jackie Jones, decorations; Scott Page, intermission, and Richard Baranovich, properties.

SECRET 'TIL FRIDAY

Newbry to Officiate

Coronation of the Junior Weekend Queen by Oregon Secretary of State Earl T. Newbry will highlight intermission activities at the Junior Prom Friday evening, according to Ann Dielschneider and Judy McLoughlin, prom co-chairmen.

The court will be introduced and the queen announced at the formal dance to be held in the Student Union ballroom from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Tickets at $2.88 per couple are currently on sale at the Co-op and in men's living organizations. They will also be sold at the door to the dance Friday evening.

Formals Proper

Proper attire for the dance is formals for women and suits, tuxedos or white dinner jackets for men. Corsages are optional.

Other intermission activities include tapping of new members for Druids, junior men's honorary, and the awarding of the Gerlinger and Koyle cups.

Charles W. Koyle, class of 1911, of Ashland, established the Koyle award for the outstanding junior man when he was YMCA secretary just prior to World War I. A new cup will be presented this year, the other two no longer having any space for additional names. Winner of the cup is selected by a committee of faculty members in consultation with members of the senior class.

Awarded Personally

The Gerlinger Cup, awarded annually to the outstanding junior woman, was established by Mrs. George T. Gerlinger, who was a member of the old board of regents. Mrs. Gerlinger was head of a committee which solicited funds for Gerlinger hall and the Oriental Art Museum.

She is the only living person for whom a building on the Oregon campus has been named. Winner of the Gerlinger cup is selected by a committee composed of faculty, students and Eugene townspeople.

Both Koyle and Mrs. Gerlinger have awarded the cup in person in previous years. They have been invited to attend the prom this year and again make the presentations.

AGS NAMES WOULD-BE SENATORS

Election Ballot Complete

Nine candidates nominated by Associated Greek Students in the third and last primary Wednesday will be placed on the ballot for senate-at-large.

They are, in order of their selection by preferential voting redistribution of ballots:

Bob Summers, Wes Ball, Don Crawford, Marilyn Parrish, Alan Oppliger, Mary Wilson, Joe Anstett, Bob Pollock and Ward Cook.

The nine were selected from a slate of 28 contenders and one write-in candidate.

Slate Completed

This selection completes the AGS slate, which is headed by ASUO Presidential Nominee Tom Wrightson, and includes Paul Lasker for senior class president, Pat Ruan for representative, Jim Light for junior class president, Ann Blackwell for representative, Jim Duncan for sophomore class president and Janet Gustafson for representative.

UIS Ballot Listed

For senate-at-large on the UIS ballot: Sally Hayden, Tom Shepherd, Hollis Ransom, Ted Goh, Germaine LaMarche, John Vazbys, Prudence Ducich, Wesley Roop and Alta Haag.

No AGS candidate for the senate-at-large nominations had the "quota" on the first count necessary for nomination under the preferential system. That quota was 119. Bob Summers came close, with 115, but the next candidate was Don Crawford with 81 votes. Extensive redistribution of votes was necessary.

Number "Ones" Counted

The first count, according to number "one" votes, was:

Summers 115, Crawford 81, Pollock 69, Ball 64, Parrish 63, Anstett 58, Wilson 58, (Martin Brandenfels 57), Oppliger 55, (Clarke
