

Tenth Inning Homer Brings Second Frosh Victory Over Rooks, 8-6

A gigantic 350 foot home run over the left field embankment by Dick Schlosstein in the tenth inning gave the Oregon Frosh a hard-earned 8-6 baseball victory over the Oregon State Rooks on Howe Field Wednesday afternoon.

Schlosstein's timely smash came just after Lloyd Lewis' single and with two men out. It was a great hit for the likable Frosh first-baseman who only one inning earlier had allowed two Rook runners to cross the plate with a costly error at first base. These two counters by the baby Beavers had tied up the game and sent it into extra innings. Also, they looked as if they were going to make Schlosstein the "goat" of the game. But all this was forgotten when Dick unleashed his mighty wallop.

The Rooks drew first blood in the first inning as Bronson singled and scored on an Oregon error. The same man tallied again in the fourth on a walk and two more Frosh bobbles.

Coach John Londahl's Ducklings broke the ice in their half of the fourth frame as they counted twice on singles of Schlosstein, Jerry Ross, and Ron Leland and an OSC error. This 2-2 deadlock was scored twice more as singles by Fellers and Guidotti were sandwiched between a pair of walks.

Lloyd Lewis was the winning pitcher for Oregon. He went the entire ten innings, gave up nine hits, and although he was in trouble many times he managed to hang on for the victory. Dick Wilson, third OSC flinger, was charged with the loss.

Schlosstein with three hits in five trips to the plate and Ross with two for four led the Frosh hitters while Fellers banged out two blows for the losers.

The running score follows:

OSC	100	120	002 0-6 9 4
Oregon	000	200	310 2-8 11 6

 Carroll, Wagner (8), Wilson (8), and Stolsig, Smith (7); Lewis and Truitt.

Sagging Webfoots Take On Last Place Huskies Today

Having completed a disastrous four game road trip into the Palouse Country which resulted in a single triumph, Don Kirsch's diamond nine, leaders in the Northern Division title race by one game over Washington State, moves into Seattle for a two game series with Washington's cellar-dwelling Huskies.

This afternoon the Webfoots meet the Huskies for the third time, having all ready dropped Washington nine twice on Howe Field in Eugene. A sweep of the two games is needed to keep the Ducks perched atop the conference ladder.

Oregon fielding was ragged in the Idaho series, and the players seemed to show the effects of the long trip with four games in five days. The Huskies have had a week's layoff, and will go into the series with fresh pitchers. The Webfoots have had to use every one of their pitchers in the last four games.

Trent Huls, who hurled six innings of fine relief and collected credit for Oregon's single triumph over Idaho, is a prospective starter for this afternoon's game. If Huls isn't used Bill Blodgett will probably get the nod. Kirsch is expected to open with either Norm Forbes or Stan Dmochowsky on the hill in the Friday contest.

Oregon's batters have been in a slump on the road trip, and the only hitters now over the .300 mark are Jim Livesay, centerfielder, and reserve Firstsacker Don Hedgepeth. Earl Averill still heads the runs batted in column.
