

'Parade of Songs' Slated at Mac Court Tonight

"Parade of Songs," theme of this year's All-campus Sing, will open at 8 tonight in McArthur court. Sixteen houses will participate, with float parade, Sing and other trophy presentations scheduled on the program.

Tickets are on sale for 90 cents at the Student Union main desk.

The eight finalists opening the Sing are University house "All The Things You Are;" Phi Kappa Psi, "High Noon;" Alpha Chi Omega, "Syncopated Clock;" Campbell club, "You'll Never Walk Alone;" Chi Omega, "The Nightingale;" Kappa Sigma, "Halls of Ivy;" Rebec house, "Dedication;" and Susan Campbell hall, "My Heart Stood Still."

Eight in Second Half

Singing in the second half after a 10 minute intermission are Highland house, "Madame Jeanette;" Sigma Alpha Epsilon, "The Lost Chord;" Pi Beta Phi, "Ave Maria;" Sigma Chi, "Cool Water;" Ann Judson house, "Peter, Go Ring Them Bells;" Beta Theta Pi, "September Song;" Alpha Delta Pi, "Annie Lauree;" and Sigma Phi Epsilon, "Barbra Allen."

The William Frager Skull and Dagger award, the Delta Delta Delta award, the Hazel P. Schwing award, and the Burt Brown Barker scholarship cups will be awarded.

Float Cups Awarded

Float parade chairman Sally Haseltine will award the first, second and third place cups to the winners of the float parade. The will be presented by Carl Hintz, librarian. Hintz will also announce the winner of the Peter Pauper Press essay contest.

The Friars' scroll, awarded to a university faculty member, will be presented by Pat Dignan, ASUO president. Dr. Frederick M. Hunter will award the Maurice Harold Hunter scholarship.

Athletic Award Slated

Don Kirsch will present the Emerald athletic award. Presentation is slated of the Quota club scholarship and the Panhellenic award. The Alpha Xi Delta award will be made by house president Mary Ann Moore.

Other awards include the Carson cup and tapping of new members by Skull and Dagger.

Ending the All-campus Sing Jean Mauro and Sally Palmer, Sing co-chairmen, will present winner's cups to the men's and women's houses in first, second and third places. First place songleaders will receive separate trophies.

Frosh Win Tug of War

The freshman tug of war team defeated the sophomore squad in their contest Friday at 4 p.m. on the millrace.

Tappings Slated For Luncheon

Tappings for Friars, Mortar Board, Scabbard and Blade and Asklepids will highlight the program of today's all-campus luncheon, according to Cathy Tribe, general chairman.

Also scheduled are the presentation of the Junior Weekend court, Jack Loughary's band and Merrick hall's chorus. Don Parr will serve as the master of ceremonies.

The luncheon will begin at 11:45. Serving the picnic-type food will be the members of Kwama, Skull and Dagger, Phi Theta Upsilon and Alpha Phi Omega honoraries.

Tickets for the affairs will cost 47 cents. Student tickets will be available through the living organizations, with guest ducats on sale at the main desk of the Student Union or at the Co-op. They also may be purchased on the grounds just prior to the picnic.

No lunches will be served in the living organizations today.

In case of rain Saturday morning, the scene of "Roman Holiday," will be transferred from the old campus to McArthur court.

Sunlight Serenade To End Schedule

Junior Weekend will close with the Sunlight Serenade at 3 p.m. Sunday in the open air amphitheatre in back of the music school. No tickets are needed.

The program will be moved into the music school auditorium in case of bad weather.

Highlighting the Serenade, the men's and women's houses taking first place in the All-Campus Sing tonight will sing their winning songs.
