Float Parade Rolls at 4 p.m.

The Junior Weekend float parade will begin rolling at 4 p.m. today at 4th and Willamette. All floats are to be at the starting area by 3:30 p.m., Sally Haseltine, parade chairman, announced. Floats are to go down Charnelton to 4th and line up in a double line on 4th by the depot. The position of floats will be determined by their arrival. At 4 p.m. the floats will start up Willamette, first one line pulling out and then the next, Miss Haseltine explained.

The floats will go up Willamette to 13th, east on 13th to University, up University to McArthur court where the parade will disassemble.

Motorcycles and the University band and the Junior Weekend court will head the parade. A space of 50 feet should be kept between each float. There will be several comedians and acts in conjunction with the parade, said Miss Haseltine.

Judges will be placed along the parade route. Awards, to be announced at the All-Campus Sing, will consist of two (three if necessary) rotation cups to be given first place winners. Permanent trophies will also be given this year.

Pairings and themes are Alpha Delta Pi and Theta Chi, "Carnival in Vienna"; Alpha Gamma Delta, Orides and Tau Kappa Epsilon, "St. Patrick's Day"; Alpha Omicron Pi, Sigma Alpha Mu, Alpha and French halls, "Armed Forces Day."
