

Twenty-one Vying On ASUO Ballot

Placed in Order

The ASUO presidential candidates appear on the ballot in alphabetical order, with those running for senate-at-large alternating thereafter according to party choice. Schmidt's name was inserted partway down the list.

Names, in order on the ballot, are Collin, Funk, and Wrightson, for president; Sally Hayden—UIS, Bob Summers—AGS, Tom Shepherd — UIS, Wes Ball — AGS, Schmidt — non-partisan, Hollis Ransom—UIS, Don Crawford—AGS, Marilyn Parrish — AGS (Goh's name was originally between Crawford and Miss Parrish), Germaine LaMarche — UIS, Alan Opplinger — AGS, John Vazbys — UIS, Mary Wilson — AGS, Prudence Ducich — UIS, Joe Anstett —AGS, Wesley Roop — UIS, Robert Pollock — AGS, Alta Haag—UIS, and Ward Cook—AGS.

The senior class ballot has Donald Fisher — UIS, Paul Lasker—AGS, Patti Ruan — AGS, and Elsie Schiller — UIS, in that order. For junior class office are Ann Blackwell — AGS, Leonard Calvert — UIS, Bob Kanada — UIS and Jim Light — AGS.

Lasker and Miss Schiller are running for senior class president, Calvert and Light for junior president, and Duncan and Vahey for sophomore president, although all class office candidates are theoretically eligible for president of their class on their particular preferential ballot.

All class office candidates will be elected to some class office, since there are four offices to be filled for each class, (barring an unprecedented write-in vote, of course).

Oregon Sophomore Dies Early Friday

Nadine Crabtree, sophomore in English, who had been ill with a blood disease for over a month, died early Friday morning in Sacred Heart hospital. She suffered from a condition in which her system did not manufacture blood and had been given blood transfusions throughout her illness.

Miss Crabtree transferred to Oregon from Oregon State last fall and was a member of Alpha Chi Omega. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Crabtree of Coos Bay.

Art Editor Needed for 1954 Oregana, Ford Says

A call for art editor of the 1954 Oregana has been made by Bob Ford, editor.

Any student, whether an art student or not, should submit examples of their work in the form of ink drawings to the Oregana office, third floor of the Student Union.

Pictures submitted should depict campus life. Landmarks, traditions and especially sketches of students doing various activities are among those which could be submitted.

Sketches should be turned in as soon as possible, Ford said. If the Oregana office is locked, drawings can be clipped with the student's name and address, and put under the door.
