Webfoots Vie With Bearcats In Practice Till

Coach Don Kirsch's varsity baseball nine, rested up after a strenuous ten day trek through Washington and Idaho, has a non-conference clash this afternoon with the Willamette Bearcats at Salem.

Oregon defeated the Salemites earlier this season, 6-3, in a pre-season game at Eugene.

Huls to Start

Trent Huls has been nominated by Kirsch to start on the hill for the Webfoots. The Oregon coach also said he would experiment with the lineup, giving some reserves the starting nods, thus giving the regular nine more rest and also letting the younger players get experience.

Willamette is currently deadlocked for the top position in the Northwest conference, and the Bearcats have defeated Oregon State twice this year.

Oregon State won its fifth straight game on the road yesterday at Seattle, trouncing the Washington Huskies, 9-4. The victory gave the Beavers a boost in

OSC Plays Today

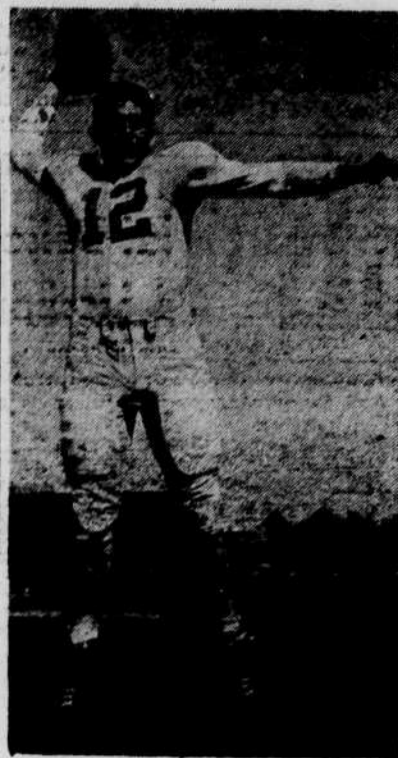

After OSC plays Washington again today in Washington, the Orange will return home to prepare for the season-ending four game finale with the Webfoots.

The last four games will probably determine the champion. Since the title is awarded on strict percentage basis, the Beavers have an edge in the race. If the Aggies can win three of their last five games, they will sew up the crown.

Duck Bowlers Test Purdue Team For National Collegiate Alley Title

University of Oregon will claim the collegiate bowling championship of the United States if it wins a Telephonic meet with the Purdue Boilermakers, this afternoon at 4:00 p.m. on the Student Union alleys.

Oregon is the Northern Division winner while Purdue is the champion of Big Ten competition.

The Webfoot team will be handicapped by the loss of Don Hannu, one of the team's top bowlers who dropped out of school recently. With Hannu's absence, the squad will be composed of Norm Ruecker, Jim Ekstrom, George Troeh, Sam Sorenson, and Leo Naapi. Coach is Lou Bellissimo.

Oregon won the Northern Division championship for 1952-53, in the ND collegiate tournament held early in April in the Student Union. Ruecker and Sorenson were doubles champs with 1197.

Sorenson was the all-events champ with a high of 1705. The team, which has gone undefeated in the last two years, has bowled consistently with about a 180 average.

Harry Smythe won the "C" championship of the all-campus bowling tournament which has been going on since May 1. Smythe, with a 16 pin handicap, rolled a 589. Second was Bob Rubenstein, with a 560.

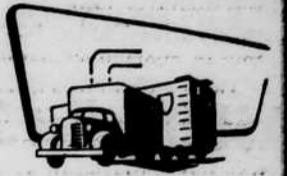

Third place went to Len Overholser, 552; fourth was Wayne Lill, 540, and fifth was Bob Cole with 521.

The women's "B" finals will be held today, starting at 4:00 p.m. in the SU basement.

ADVANCES TO FINALS

ATO Fights off Beta Foes, 5-4

Alpha Tau Omega withstood late inning rallies by Beta Theta Pi to defeat the Betas, 5-4, Monday afternoon and move into the finals of the intramural softball tournament. Bob Altman, on the mound for the ATO's, was nicked for seven hits, one more than the winners managed to get, but pulled out of a number of tight spots for the win.

Scoring single runs in the first and second innings, the Betas jumped to a quick 2-1 lead but fell back as ATO pushed across three runs in the fourth. Beta Theta Pi made it 4-5 with two runs in the sixth and had the tying marker on third with none out in the seventh, but Altman closed the door.

Ed Myers started the Betas scoring in the first inning. Reaching second as a result of a fielder's choice, he scored when ATO Shortstop Ken Wegner overthrew first for a two-base error. The ATO's retaliated with a run in their half of the first—

Bill Kirby driving in Myron Bagley with a single—but the Betas took the lead again in the second on another singleton.

In the fourth the ATO's broke loose. With two out, Jack Boehme singled and stole second. Ray Hempy was safe on an error. Boehme taking third. Barney Loch then singled to plate both runners and scored a minute later on Paul Lasker's one-baser.

5-2 in Fifth

The ATO's made it 5-2 in the fifth on Wegner's triple and Altman's single.

With Dick Adams slugging a homer to lead off, the Betas rallied for two runs in the sixth. After Adams' homer, Beta Pitcher Harlan Mickey walked, was wild pitched to second, and scored on Dick Fettig's single.

Tom Lyon tripled to lead off the Beta's seventh, but Altman got Myers on a strikeout and two others on grounders.

In all Altman fanned five and walked three. Mickey struckout four and issued two free passes. Adams was the leading hitter with his homer and a single.

Sigma Chi Nine Has Big Inning To Beat Sigma Alpha Epsilon

Sigma Chi coupled a five-run fourth inning with the two-hit pitching of Gordon Sloan to down Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 7-4. The win gave the Sigs the right to meet the Legal Eagles at 4 p.m. today on the south diamond.

The SAE's took a 3-0 lead in the first on a combination of errors and walks and a hit by Don Krieger. They added another in the fourth, but Sigma Chi scored five in their half of the frame, with Sloan getting the only hit. Two more Sigma Chi runs in the sixth iced the contest.

Pitching tight ball after the first, Sloan allowed but two hits while fanning five.
