

Rival Coaches Plan

Trackmen Continue Heavy Practice For 'Civil War' Fight With Beavers

Oregon's Webfoots continued heavy drills today in preparation for Saturday's Civil War track and field meet at Eugene. The match will be one of the big features of the university's Spring Sports day and the Ducks are generally favored to down their cross state rival without too much trouble.

OSC's track coach, Hal Moe has run up against the reoccurring problem at Corvallis, namely, enough depth to become a serious threat.

The Ducks will be gunning for their nineteenth win in their last 23 meetings with the Beavers. Bill Bowerman has piloted Oregon to five straight over OSC since taking over in 1949.

So far this year, both teams have beaten Idaho and lost to WSC and Washington. The meet will begin at 1 p.m.

Duck Golf Team Travels to OSC

Coach Sid Milligan's golfers travel to Corvallis this Saturday for their second match this season against the Oregon State Beavers. Oregon soundly trounced the Aggies earlier in a meet at Eugene.

The University linksters have gone through an undefeated season and have already been crowned the champions of the Northern Division. Bob Atkinson, Don Kreiger, and Al Mundle have sparked the Ducks so far and are all predicted to come out victorious this week-end.

The Webfoot tennis team also makes the trip up the Willamette valley for a return match with the Beavers who beat Oregon in a previous meeting. Ron Lowell and Neil George are the top two on the net squad.

MUST WIN THREE

Ducks Prep for OSC

Coach Don Kirsch's varsity baseball team held practice in the rain yesterday afternoon, preparing for a do-or-die four game series with the Oregon State Beavers, starting with a game this Saturday at Howe Field.

Oregon State is currently leading the loop with an eight win and two loss record. Oregon's Webfoots are a half game behind, with an eight win and three loss mark.

Top Percent Wins

Because of a Northern Division ruling, the baseball champion will be the team with the highest win-loss percentage at the end of the season, regardless of the games postponed.

ND BASEBALL STANDINGS
	W	L	Pct.	GB
Oregon State	8	2	.800
OREGON	8	3	.727	½
Washington State	5	6	.455	3½
Idaho	4	6	.400	4
Washington	1	9	.100	7

This could have a disastrous effect on the Oregon chances because the Ducks have been rained out once, while OSC has two contests called off.

Because Oregon has lost one more game than the Beavers, they must win three of the last four engagements with the cross state foes in order to claim the ND title. Two of the clashes will be in Eugene, two in Corvallis.

The present status of the two teams is:

	W	L	Pct	GB
Oregon State	8	2	.800
Oregon	8	3	.727	½

If Oregon should win three of the four, the Eugene crew would end with an 11-4 mark, or .733; OSC's percentage would be .643, on nine wins and five losses.

A split in the series would give the Beavers the championship by a shade, 10-4, or .714, to the Webfoot's 10-5, or .667.

Hard Task

The task of beating the Beavers three out of four will prove to be a very tough job for the local nine. Oregon State, after a poor start at the first of the season, has hit its peak, and is presently riding on the crest of a six games winning streak. The Aggies last six triumphs came on a complete sweep of an eight day road trip through Washington and Idaho, a trip on which Oregon won three and lost three.

Coach Ralph Coleman has most of his last year's team back, which won the Northern Division, the regional title and entered the national NCAA playoffs. Bailey Brem and Norb Wellman are Coleman's top hurlers.

Oregon's diamond nine, in preparing for the contest polished up their scoring attack, yesterday, with drills on the finer points of bunting, and squeeze plays.

Lillian Copeland hurled a discus weighing 21 lbs., 3¼ ounces, 133 feet at Los Angeles in 1932.
