

ND TRACK MEET

Beavers, Idaho Vie for Cellar

(Editor's note: This is the first in a series of four stories that will be printed as a preview of the Northern Division track meet which will be held this weekend in Eugene.)

The 25th running of the Northern Division championship track meet will be held on Hayward field Saturday, beginning at 1 p.m. The meet is expected to be one of the closest in history with Oregon, Washington and Washington State all in the running for the top spot. There will be just as close a battle for the cellar spot, however, with Oregon State and the Idaho Vandals running neck and neck for the bottom. The Aggies beat Idaho in their dual meet, but most of the events which they won, they will not be able to score in against the tougher competition.

OSC First in Javelin

OSC, who is expected to come out ahead in the struggle, is not predicted to do better than capture one first. Ralph Sutton has come into his own in the javelin after a poor start this season and will be favored to win that event. Jerry Church may also pick up points in this event.

Merv Brock is one of the better sprinters in the division, but he will be up against WSC's unbeaten Bob Gary, one of the finest sprinters on the coast, so he is not expected to finish better than second.

Don Chambers may be able to place in the hurdles, but he still hasn't regained his form of last year. In the shot put, John Witte, a hot and cold performer, could place as high as second, and he will undoubtedly capture a few points for the Beavers.

The Vandals will capture more firsts than OSC but may end up in the cellar because of their lack of depth. Coach Stan Hiserman will bring three point winners with him and should take home three first places, all by the same man though.

Bruce Sweeney, the "Bob Mathias" of the Northern Division, will be favored in both hurdle events and the broad jump. He is unbeaten in these events this season and is a consistent and reliable performer. In the mile, Emerson Clark, another unbeaten Idaho star, may run into his first defeat. He beat Oregon's Al Martin early in the year but Martin has improved more rapidly than Clark.

Gourley in Two Mile

Idaho's only other consistent point winner, Lou Gourley, may pick points in the two mile event, but that race will be a contest between Washington's Denny Meyer and WSC's Al Fisher. Bruce West has turned in good distances in the javelin but it is doubtful that he will pick up any points.

In their dual meet earlier in the season, OSC beat the Vandals by a score of 93 to 38.

Gridders Start Last Practices; Passes Stressed

Coach Len Casanova started his spring football squad through its last week of practice Monday afternoon. Four more days of drill remain this week before the twenty day spring limit is expired.

Although the weather was rainy and the football wet, the team practiced up its offensive and defensive aerial attacks. Under the direction of Backfield Coach Johnny McKay, the Webfoot quarterbacks, Barney Holland and Don Holt, polished up the passing game in a lengthy drill.

Oregon's ends, a position that was weak when the Ducks started spring practice, are rounding into shape with big Emery Barnes, Ben Johnson, Len Berrie, and Tom Elliott looking good on offense and defense.

The Ducks will have plenty of depth in the halfback and fullback positions. Included in a host of exceptional halfbacks are Cece Hodges, Dick James, Dick Pavlat, Farrell Albright, Walt Gaffney, and Lloyd Powell. Dean Van Leuven and Larry Rose are showing well at the fullback slot.

Oregon Golf Captain

BOB ATKINSON, captain of University of Oregon's undefeated golf team, will lead his mates into the Northern Division Golf tournament at Seattle, this Saturday. Atkinson is a two year letterman senior from Portland.

Coach Milligan's Unbeaten Golfers Travel to Seattle for ND Tourney

Coach Sid Milligan's undefeated University of Oregon golfers travel to Seattle, Wash., this Saturday for the Northern Division golf tournament.

Oregon is heavily favored to take the championship in the medalist play with a team probably made up by Captain Bob Atkinson, Don Kreiger, Al Mundle and Fred Strelbel. The Webfoot squad will play 36 holes.

The linksters wrapped up their fifth straight Northern Division dual match championship last weekend at Oregon State by soundly trouncing the Beavers, 21-6. It was their sixth crown in the last seven years.

Oregon's tennis squad will also compete in the ND court tournament at Seattle. Action will begin for the Webfoots on Friday with the finals on Saturday. Washington's Huskies are just about certain to take the title for the 13th time in a row. The Seattle net squad is undefeated in conference action.

In 1950, three masked gunmen raided the co-op, forced customers against the wall and asked for a ticket to Junior Weekend.

Oregon Frosh Rock State Prison Nine

The Oregon freshman baseball team defeated the State Penitentiary nine Saturday by a lopsided 13-3 count in a game played at Salem.

Winning pitcher was tall Max Anderson, while Jerry Ross led the frosh attack with a home run.

Pingpong Info Posted

Pairings and times for the all-campus pingpong tournament will be posted today in the basement area of the Student Union, according to Don Bonime, tournament chairman.

The tournament will be played Wednesday and Thursday. Trophies will be awarded to winners.

Weather Halts Duck-OSC Tilt

Rain postponed yesterday's crucial Northern Division game at Corvallis between the league-leading University of Oregon Webfoots and the tightly pressing Oregon State Beavers.

The contest will be made up Saturday at the OSC home field with a double header. A single game had previously been slated for the afternoon.

Next Game Friday

The next engagement between the two Willamette valley foes will be this Friday at Howe field at 3:00 p.m. If Friday's game is also rained out, it will not be made up, because of a PCC ruling which says that only the first game of a two game series can be replayed.

The winner of two of the next three games will be crowned Northern Division champ. In case that only two games are played, Oregon could take the title by gaining a split.

Although the local nine is leading the Northern Division, they have only one regular hitting above .300. Jim Livesay, Oregon's outstanding center fielder, is the Ducks' top hitter with a .320 percentage. He has 16 hits in 50 times at bat.

Don Hedgepeth, who started the last Oregon-OSC game at first base, is the next in line with an even .300 mark, three hits in 10 plate appearances. The next regular is Ron Phillips, with a .261 mark.

Phillips Leads in RBI's

Phillips, who drove in the winning run in last week's OSC game, is leading in the runs batted in column with 10. Don Siegmund follows with 8. Earl Averill, the home-run king of the conference the last two years, has failed to connect with a round-tripper in league action, but leads in runs scored, 10.
