UO Coed to Attend 'Y' Training School

Nan Mimmaugh, YWCA junior advisor, will be a delegate to the YW 1953 leadership training school to be held at Berkeley, Calif., June 18 to August 2. The school is for student YM and YW officers and cabinet members and is sponsored by the National Student council, YMCA and YWCA.

Course include "Religious Values in the Modern World," "An Introduction to Social Ethics" and "Introduction to Group Work." Director of the school will be W. Robert Rankin from Federated Colleges of Claremont, Calif.

Students share problems and experiences with others from many different colleges.

Miss Mimmaugh's YW work includes positions as junior advisor, regional council delegate and co-chairman of Seabeck regional student conference.

In 1919, the Duck basketball squad took the Pacific Coast championship by defeating the University of California by two points.

Westminster Foundation

Tonight at 6 Westminsterites are holding a Senior Banquet and Ball at Westminster Foundation with the theme, "Coronation Festivities." Dress for the evening will be formal. Martha VanCamp is chairman of the event.

Sunday morning at 9:30 the usual Bible study will be led by Rev. Thom Hunter, on the Gospel of John. That evening a picnic and vesper service is planned at Leaburg dam. Students will meet at the Westminster foundation for transportation. The Citizenship commission is in charge of this part of the day.

Wednesday noon, there will be a chapel service in Westminster chapel from 12:30 to 12:45. At 5:30 p.m. a fellowship supper will be held, with the citizenship commission having charge.

French Play 'La Sauvage' Opening In Villard Theatre as Experiment

The first performance of "La Sauvage," a French play by Jean Anouilh, will be presented at 3:30 today in the Experimental theater, Villard hall.

Two other performances will be given on May 25, at 3:30 p.m. and on June 1, at 8 p.m. All performances are given in French.

"La Sauvage" (The Wild Girl) is the story of a little cafe orchestra. The pianist, Gosta, is known publicly to be the lover of the wife of the orchestra leader, but, at the same time, he is in love with his daughter, Theresa. On the eve of her wedding to a distinguished young composer, she suddenly refuses to marry.

The cast includes: Jeanne Gottfredson, Therese; Kathleen Evans, Jeannette; Mrs. Florence Kroll, Madame Tarde; Mrs. Judith McDowell, the aunt; Connie Ohlsen, Marie; Diane David, the salesgirl; Dagmara Grisle, the little apprentice; Pierre Van Rysselberghe, Florent; Bob Griffeth, Hartman; Robert Jones, Monsieur Tarde; James D. Devine, Gosta, and Leo Osborn, Monsieur Lebonze.

Jean Anouilh, one of the most celebrated authors of the contemporary French theater, has collected his plays in three volumes, title "pink," "black" and "brilliant" plays to indicate the nature of the contents. "La Sauvage" belongs to the series of "black" plays, meaning it is partially a tragedy.

SU Will Be Closed For Memorial Day

The Student Union will be closed all day Memorial Day, May 30, but will open its regular hours on Sunday, May 31, according to R. C. Williams, SU director. Schedule of open hours on May 29 has not been decided.
