Personnel Resignations Announced by Board

Nearly 50 members of the University of Oregon faculty will not be returning to the campus this fall due to resignations and the granting of leaves of absence. The changes in personnel were announced at a meeting of the state board of higher education in June.

Leaves for the academic year 1953-54 have been granted to the following faculty members: Hugh Wood, professor of education; B. T. Scheer, associate professor of biology; F. J. Reithel, associate professor of chemistry; J. C. McCloskey, associate professor of English; B. Gicovate, assistant professor of Romance languages; S. N. Dicken, head of geology and geography department; Q. Breen, professor of history; E. S. Pomeroy, associate professor of history; P. Civin, associate professor of mathematics; F. J. Massey, assistant professor of mathematics; V. S. Lewis, assistant professor of social work and D. W. Allton, assistant professor of music.

Resignations Effective

Resignations of faculty members now effective are: R. W. Cryder, administrative assistant, library; Marguerite Fukami, catalog librarian; Gertrude Stolper, social science librarian; Jeannette Masilionis, instructor in physical education; Louise Watson, assistant professor of physical education; H. Hughes, instructor in journalism; R. P. Stuller, visiting lecturer in journalism; F. W. Bliss, instructor in English; P. O. Temko, instructor in English; L. R. Mickelsen, assistant professor of Slavic languages, and W. J. Bass, instructor in foreign languages.

Other resignations that have been accepted are: Loretta Wawrzyniak, instructor in Romance languages; G. A. White, instructor in Romance languages; B. E. Griffin, instructor in geology; T. S. Peterson, associate professor of mathematics; O. S. Rothaus, instructor in mathematics; Jun Tsu Chu, instructor in mathematics; H. J. Reiter, instructor in mathematics; K. G. Clemans, instructor in mathematics; W. V. Norris, professor of physics, and W. E. Schlosser, instructor in speech.

Appointments Expire

Faculty appointments which expire as of this year include: Helen Merewether, preparator in the museum of natural history; Laura Olson, counselor for women; W. P. Taysom, instructor in art; F. Heide, instructor in art; Mildred Sims, instructor and secretary in business administration; J. B. Daniels, assistant professor of law, and R. C. Hoyt, instructor in English.

Other appointments expiring this year are those of L. Wallach, assistant professor of history; O. S. Pinckney, instructor in history; W. D. Farnham, instructor in history; Shu-Ching Lee, assistant professor of sociology; S. R. Pineau, assistant professor of psychology; R. R. Myrick, instructor in psychology; J. James, assistant professor of sociology; H. Mannheim, visiting professor, and L. W. York, instructor in clarinet and saxophone.

Campus Briefs

All former members of high school Hi-Y clubs are invited to a lunch meeting in the small dining room of Straub hall at noon today, according to Russ Walker, executive secretary of the YMCA.

SU Improvements Made In Summer

The first major outlay for repairs and new equipment in the Student Union, completed in 1950, was made this summer. A total of $3500 was spent, according to SU Director Dick Williams.

Most obvious of the new changes is the new upholstering of the center column and booths in the Fishbowl. Second floor lobby cushions were also recovered.

New remote control lighting switches and black shades have been installed in the Dad's lounge for film presentations. Improvements have also been made in the three second floor meeting rooms.

In the basement, the bowling alleys, billiard rooms and table tennis rooms were completely repainted. A new store room for the recreation director was also added.

Theater Ticket Sales May Top '52-53 Season

"From the rate of sales of season tickets, it looks as though only season ticket holders will be admitted to some of the University theater productions," said Mrs. Gene Wiley, University theater business manager. Sales have increased in the last two years from 1160 to 1800 and Mrs. Wiley expects to top that this season.

Tickets will be on sale until Saturday noon in front of Emerald hall and next week from 1 to 5 at the University theater box office.

Season ticket holders save $2 on productions as well as receiving admittance to bonus shows for which no regular admissions are sold.

The first bonus show, "The Man," a psychological suspense drama, will be presented Sept. 25 and 26. New season ticket holders will be admitted by showing their receipts at the door. There will be no reserved seats, said Mrs. Wiley.

Theater Tryouts To Begin Monday

Tryouts for the first University theater production for the 1953-54 season will be held in Villard 102 Monday and Tuesday. Philip King's farce comedy "See How They Run" will open October 23 under the direction of Horace W. Robinson.

Parts are open for six men and three women, Robinson said. Every student in the University is eligible to read for parts. No experience is necessary and students need not be enrolled in drama or speech courses to participate in readings.

Readings will be held Monday at 7:30, Tuesday at 4 and 7:30. All readings will be held in the lab theater, Villard 102.

Rudd Back After European Sojourn

Arthur S. Rudd, 1924 editor of the Oregon Daily Emerald and now manager of the Publishers Syndicate of Chicago and the Gallup Poll of Princeton, returned recently from a 21-week tour of the Mediterranean area, the Near East and central Europe.

Rudd visited France, Italy, Egypt, Lebanon, Syria, Jordan, Turkey, Greece, Austria, Germany and Switzerland, calling upon newspapers in the leading cities in the interest of his syndicate and George Gallup, director of the American Institute of Public Opinion.

An Oregon Rhodes scholar, Arthur Rosebraugh, was one of the people Rudd contacted while in Paris, and he also contacted another Oregon graduate, Robert Schoot, a vice consul there.

IFC To Discuss Men's Rush Soon

Plans for formal men's rush week will be discussed Thursday at the first fall meeting of the Inter-fraternity council, according to President Con Sheffer.

Men's rush week will open on Sept. 27 with an orientation meeting in the Student Union ballroom. All men interested in rushing are urged to attend, Sheffer said. Rushees will sign up for rush dates on Sept. 28. A complete rush schedule will be announced later, by IFC.
