

Ducks to Host UCLA Bruins

by Jim White
Emerald Sports Writer

A slightly dazed Oregon team, just recovering from a dull upset at the hands of the Stanford Indians last Saturday, ran through practice without pads today in preparation for next Saturday's game in Eugene with the potent UCLA Bruins.

UCLA, generally considered as the team to beat in the PCC, have won their first two outings of the season. The Bruins slaughtered the ridiculously weak OSC Aggies 41 to 0 and had to come back in the third quarter last week to edge Kansas, 19 to 7.

A total of 22 lettermen have returned to bolster the UCLA Rose Bowl hopes, including almost the entire backfield. Such stars as Paul Cameron, Chuck Doud, Jack Ellena, John Peterson, Jim Salisbury, and Bill Stits promise to make the afternoon a little more than interesting for the Webfoots.

The Bruins chief losses include Donn Moomaw, All American line backer, Ernie Stockert and Ike Jones, All Coast ends, Ed Flynn, All Coast guard and Ted Narleski, ace tailback. In fact, the Uclans have lost more, and have more left than any other coast team.

Red Sanders' colorful balanced-line single wing attack features both running and passing. Their well balanced offense scored 18 TDs by rushing and 13 by passing in the 1952 season. The key offensive spot is left halfback and All American candidate Paul Cameron is very adequate at that post. Cameron is also one of the coast's top passers. In two games he has racked up 5 TDs for UCLA.

Another up and coming star in the Bruin picture is Bob Davenport, who teamed up with Cameron to pull last Saturday's game out of the fire. Davenport is a Sophomore who played no freshman ball.

The Ducks have the advantage as far as history goes. Although UCLA has won 13 of the 24 games between the two schools, they have lost all five starts on Hayward field. Last year the Webfoots almost won a game at the fabulous coliseum from the same Bruins. Oregon played a magnificent game only to lose 13-6.

UCLA was voted by the PCC coaches as top dog in the grid scramble this year, and has been picked by some sportswriters as the number one team in the country. But no matter how far the

Foreign Students Slate Soccer Match

A University of Oregon soccer team, sponsored by Wesley Foundation, Methodist youth organization, and the Office of Foreign Students, will hold their first practice today at 2 p.m. on the intramural field.

The team will be composed of foreign students from Africa, Europe, and Asia.

The squad will be practicing for the big game with Oregon State, which has a permanent soccer team to represent it.

Others who should report are: Lothar Loewe, Oskar Hoessel, Lamberto Berteza, Arne Baartz, Fonacie Guillermo, David Tang, Mitsugu Sakihara, Martin Oosterkamp, Vishnu Wassiamal, Abdul-Nabi, and Lih Yong Chang.

Also on the team are Okeke Alfred, Walter Wiese, Michael Umer-nura, Surinder Mehta, Bas Maharah, Frederick Kemavor, Hin Yeung Fung, Wen Liang Chen, Yasamasa Kuroda, George Lo, Bob Tambling, Godfrey Ibom, George Mostad and Isao Yamado.

Fijis, SAE, Betas, Phils Win Opening IM Grid Contests

Intramural touch football went through its first day of action Monday with six games played. Delta Tau Delta defeated Pi Kappa Phi, 12-6; Phi Gamma Delta blanked Sigma Alpha Mu, 21-0; and Philadelphia house edged Campbell club, 13-7.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon walked away from Phi Kappa Sigma 19-6; Beta Theta Pi downed Pi Kappa Alpha, 18-6; Merrick hall edged Susan Campbell I, 7-0; French hall and Stitzer battled to a scoreless tie; and Nestor hall trampled Susan Campbell II, 20-0.

SAE Downs Phi Kaps

Led by the pin-point passing of Rex Davis, a dark shirted bunch from Sigma Alpha Epsilon led all the way in an easy 19 to 6 victory over Phi Kappa Sigma. The first half ended 6-0 with the score coming on a long pass from Davis to end Dennis Rapp.

The other two TD's came on passes from Davis to George McElveny and Jack Kreiger. Davis also passed to McElveny for the only extra point. Bill Hail raced 30 yards to score on an end around to save the Phi Kaps from a shut-out.

Betas Win

Dick (Pee Wee) Adams scored two touchdowns and passed for a third to down Pi Kappa Alpha practically single-handed as Beta scored an 18 to 6 victory. Adams opened the day's scoring with a pass to Bob Fudge. The play covered just over 50 yards. Then, in the second period Adams broke into the open and raced 85 yards down the sidelines to bring the count to 12-0. The final Beta tally came on a 35 yard dash, also by Adams. The PiKA's score came on a 20 yard pass from Dick Stringley to George Weber.

Merrick Edges Suzy

The men of Merrick edged Suzy I, 7 to 0, in a hard fought battle on the IM field. The only score came on a 35 yard dash with an intercepted pass by Dudley Makahanaloa. The Suzy pass was deflected by a hard charging Merrick lineman, and as it flew into the flat, Makahanaloa grabbed it and set sail for the Suzy goal.

French, Stitzer Tie

French and Stitzer battled to a scoreless tie in a raggedly played game marred by numerous dropped passes. Not only was the score even, but first downs (the usual method of determining the victor in tie games) were also even at two all. This means that the game must be replayed if it figures in the championship.

Delts Beat Pi Phils

In the 3 p.m. game on field three, the team from Delta Tau Delta held the Pi Kappa Phi seven to one touchdown as they went on to score a 12-6 victory in one of the intramural openers, Monday.

The game was a scoreless tie going into the fourth period, when Tyerman of the Pi Kaps scored on a running play that totaled around 80 yards. This lead was not held for long, however, as the strong men of the Delts came back with Gene Henry scoring twice on passes by Paul Peterson. There were no conversions on any of the TD's.

Fijis Triumph

The Fijis of Phi Gamma Delta, in the 3 p.m. game on field two showed tremendous spark as they drove to an impressive 21-0 victory over the Sammies. All three touchdowns came as results of passes tossed by Fiji Roger Zener.

The receiver on all the passes was Joe Kirkwood, and the conversions went from Zener to Neil Mathison, Jack Lally, and Larry Pitzenburger.

Campbell Club Beaten

Philadelphia house came from behind in the fourth quarter to beat out the Campbell clubbers 13-7. Seven men, wearing the red shirts of Campbell club, struck first blood in the second quarter, when Bob Robinson flipped a 25 yard aerial to his teammate Elmer Jones. The conversion was on a pass from Robinson to Don Jacobson.

In the fourth period, the Phils opened up with their passing attack and scored twice on passes from Ted Landers to his twin brother Ned. The first was a 20 yard flip, while the second was good for about 30 yards, in which Ned, the receiver, crashed through the hedge at the end of the playing field. The attempt for the conversion on the first TD was thwarted, but the second clicked on a pass from Ted Landers to Rich Proctor.

Nestor Wins

In the second game on field 2, Nestor Hall, rolled to a decisive 20-0 victory over Susan Campbell II. Nestor's TDs came from the efforts of Tom Brown, Jack Moad, and Bob Crall.

RED SANDERS
UCLA Mentor

scribes disagree on their final standing, they all admit that Red Sanders has turned out possibly the greatest team in his 25 year career.

The Ducks ace fullback, Cece Hodges, may miss the tussle as he has not yet recovered from a neck injury suffered in the Nebraska game. Tom Elliot, an end who has been out all season with a knee injury has apparently recovered and will suit down for the game.
