

Bruins Pressed, But Win, 12-0

By Bob Robinson
Assistant Sports Editor

UCLA pushed across two last quarter touchdowns Saturday afternoon to defeat a stubborn University of Oregon football squad 12-0 on Hayward Field. 19,500 fans witnessed the tussle on a beautiful sunny day.

The highly-touted Bruins had no easy time in downing the Ducks, though, and were hard-pressed at all times by Len Casanova's fighting crew. For three quarters the Webfoots played on even terms with the favored Californians but in the final stanza the Bruins' powerful running game finally began to click and the Ducks seemed helpless to stop it.

For Oregon, losing this game was no disgrace. They played with everything they had all the way and were still trying at the final whistle. It was just a case of too much UCLA manpower.

Bruins Run

Coach Red Sanders' single wing artists relied strictly on running plays in their first payoff march. It took 18 gruelling plays and the Bruins had to fight for every inch of the distance against an Oregon line that just would not give away anything.

Cameron climaxed the maneuver when he skirted around right end for six yards and the touchdown with a little over nine minutes remaining in the game.

Villanueva Scores

The second Bruin six-pointer came only a few moments after the first score. Primo Villanueva passed to right end Bob Long for a first down on the Oregon 23. Then, after two line smashes moved the pigskin to the 15, he broke loose on a nifty scamper around end and went all the way to the end zone.

Although the UCLA defense was great most of the way, it would be a mistake to say that Oregon was stopped completely. The Ducks generated many good offensive plays and several times threatened to score. Most of the yardage gained came as a result of Shaw's passing but halfbacks Farrell Albright and Dick James contributed some nice running plays from time to time.

One of the chief factors which prevented the Webfoots from scoring was the fact that some of the Oregon pass receivers just couldn't hang on to perfect passes from quarterback Shaw. On three different occasions missed aerials resulted in Oregon losing possession of the ball in UCLA territory.

In the dressing room after the game Casanova had nothing but praise for the UCLA team. When asked what he thought of Paul

Cameron he smiled and said: "He's great."

Casanova was disappointed in his pass receivers but had high praise for guards Jack Patera and Ken Sweitzer and halfback Dick James. James was terrific defensively. He also was pleased with the passing of Shaw who completed 9 of 21 tosses.

Saturday's win for the Bruins pushed them out in front in the Pacific Coast conference race for the Rose Bowl. They have now won two conference tussles without a defeat. Right behind them with one victory and no losses come USC, Stanford, Washington and California.
