

Barnett to Show Culture of Islands

Native cultures will come to life Wednesday night at 7:30 when Homer Barnett, professor of anthropology, presents colored slides taken recently while he was head of a team of anthropologists in the Pacific. The presentation will be the second in a series of lectures presented in the Adelaide Church memorial room, known as the Browsing room, in the Student Union.

The area of which Barnett will be speaking is known as the Trust Territory of the United Nations—including the Marshall, Caroline and Mariana Islands. He will tell of his experience from June 1951 to January 1953 with the Trust Territory administration, which was concerned with the health, education, economy and promotion of self-government for the native people.

Barnett spent a year in the Palau Islands in 1947 making an anthropological study while he was with the United States Navy. He also has done field work with the Indian people in Oregon, Washington, British Columbia and New Mexico.

Nominations Held for Young Demos

Nomination of officers will be held tonight at the meeting of Young Democrats tonight at 7 in the Student Union. The meeting is open to the public.

Plans have also been made for a number of well-known speakers, both in and out of politics, to address the club frequently during the year. Forums, debates and social functions have also been scheduled.

HOMER BARNETT
"Micronesians—
Our Responsibility"

UO Enrollment Hits 4000 Mark

Enrollment at the University of Oregon passed the 4000 mark Saturday noon with a total figure of 4013. This is a 4.3 per cent drop from the 4231 reported at this time last year according to Travis Cross, director of information for the State System of Higher Education.

Oregon State college enrollment had dropped one per cent to 4859 as of noon Saturday. Portland State increased enrollment to 1607, a raise of 19.2 per cent, for the only increase in the state system of higher education.

HO HUM

Yankees Take Fifth Series Title

NEW YORK (P) - The New York Yankees clinched their record fifth straight World Series today by beating the Brooklyn Dodgers, 4-3, in the sixth game of the annual fall classic. And then both rival managers hinted strongly that their virtual monopoly on World Series play would be resumed again next season.

Manager Casey Stengel of the victorious Yankees said he would be back to try for a sixth straight world championship. And Skipper Charley Dressen of the vanquished Dodgers repeated the phrase that has become legendary in Brooklyn, "Wait 'till next year."

Stengel quashed reports that he might retire after winning an unprecedented fifth straight flag when he said he would be back again next year. Since Stengel is a wealthy man and had previously said he would manage only until he won five in a row, his statement that he would continue as Yankee manager came as a surprise in some quarters.

The final victory didn't come quite as easy as all that. In fact, the game went into the bottom of the ninth inning with one out before matters were settled. With Clem Labine on the mound and the score tied at 3-3, Hank Bauer opened with a walk. Yogi Berra flied out and Mickey Mantle beat out a scratch hit. Up stepped Billy Martin, the hitting hero of the entire series. Martin looked at a fast ball for a strike and then lined a sinker ball pitch into center field for a record-tying hit.

Hank Bauer scored all the way from second with the winning run and Dodger centerfielder Duke Snider didn't even bother to fire the ball to the plate.

Board to Interview Prexy Nominees

Members of the state board of higher education will meet as a committee-of-the-whole in an informal executive session Wednesday in Portland to interview "fewer than five" nominees for the presidency of the University of Oregon, Chancellor Charles D. Byrne announced Monday.

President Victor P. Morris said Monday that "two men from the East will be here Wednesday and Thursday to look over the University." Last week Byrne reported that three top candidates for the presidency of the University would be interviewed early in October. It is possible that one local man would join the "two men from the East" in being interviewed Wednesday, making the total of three.

While on the Oregon campus, the two eastern guests will be interviewed by the Board of Deans and the Advisory Council, and in addition, they will be entertained by the faculty during informal coffee hours in the Dads' Room of the Student Union. Morris stressed that "the relationships which must exist between a president and his faculty are close and must be based on mutual respect and understanding. Selection of a president must therefore be on a democratic basis."

The three or more men to be interviewed by the state board Wednesday have been picked from a list of 20 nominees according to sources close to the University administration.

Dr. R. E. Kleinsorge, Silverton, board president, said no decisions would be reached on the presidential selection Wednesday. He described the interviews as "exploratory and the first we have conducted for the vacancy." The next official board meeting is scheduled for Oct. 27.

Talent Show Tryouts Slated For Oct. 14, 15

Tryouts for the traveling talent show will be Oct. 14 and 15 at 7:30 in the Student Union ballroom. Oct. 14, the tryouts will be for specialty acts — singing, dancing, monologues, etc. The following night is scheduled for those interested in speaking and dancing parts. Both men and women are needed; experience is not necessary.

Rubber Checks Plague Canadian

By Dick Lewis
Emerald Reporter

You've heard of rubber checks? Ask Canadian John Woyat, sophomore in liberal arts, about his ordeal.

Tuition paying time rolled around so Woyat went over to Emerald Hall and wrote a check. Then he went to the Co-op, bought some books, and wrote another check.

A week passed: John received a letter from the business office marked RETURNED ITEM. "Ha," thought John, "they want to return some money to me." Glee-fully he rushed over to the business office, only to have a young lady inform him that the bank couldn't read his writing. John printed his name on the check. "Looks good to me," said the young lady. "Me too," said John. Couldn't Be Found

In the meantime the phone at the Sigma Chi house, where John lives, started ringing steadily. A lot of people wanted John, but he was playing football and couldn't be reached.

Then a lady from the Co-op called. "Read off the names of all the Johns in your house," she ordered, "I want one!" John was finally given the message and hurried over to the book store. Here he was informed that he either didn't have a bank account, or the bank just couldn't read his name. John again printed his name, insisting that he had a bank account.

Get There Pronto
Emerald Hall called again. In a terse voice John was told that (Please turn to page two)

Oregon Fraternities Pledge 332 New Members

The 332 pledged by the 21 national fraternities on the University of Oregon campus last Saturday at the end of the first fall term rush week in four years was twice the number pledged during the previous two winter term rush weeks, according to figures released by the Inter-fraternity council.

The largest individual pledge groups were Sigma Nu, 34; Sigma Phi Epsilon, 32; Alpha Tau Omega and Sigma Chi, 30 each; Phi Delta Theta, 24, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 22.

The official fall term pledge list for men is as follows:

Alpha Tau Omega—Ronald Anderson, Douglas Basham, Lee Bond, Richard Jaick, Monte Johnson, Donald McClain, Michael McMuth, Jack Nance, Robert Nordquist, Sotere Notos, Ernest Pascuzzi, Jerry Ross, John Vahl, Roger Williams, Sid Woodbury and Joel Lucia, all of Portland; Gerald Jones, Eugene; Robert Campbell, Canyon City; Stanley Lewis, Coos Bay; Robert Hankinson and Donald Jones, both of Hillsboro; Raymond Bell, Klamath Falls; Edward Bingham, Jack Moad and Larry Quackenbush, all of Medford; Ronald Cunningham, Oswego; Charles Martinsen, Prineville; Charles Huggins, Salem; Floyd Burright, Springfield, and Willard Moore, The Dalles.

Beta Theta Pi—John Gaylord, Jack Holman, Donald Peck and Richard Young, all of Portland; Robert Holmes, Jr., Gearhart; Owen Halvorson, Jerome Pool and Marvin Vanderzanden, all of Hillsboro; Edwin Balsiger, Moro; Fred

Foley, Roseburg; John Caughell, Salem; Kenneth Kesey, Springfield, and William Garner, Victoria, B. C.

Chi Psi—Richard Allen, Alfred Herman and Ronald Travers, all of Portland; Travis Cavens, Beaverton; Ronald Tippetts and Edwin Wegener, both of Bend; Lonnie Kellenberger and Fred Luper, both of Coquille; Neil Butler, Hillsboro; Jerry Coffin and Robert Shepherd, both of Medford; Paul Murphy, Oswego; William Hettick, Pendleton; Elvin Reeves, Springfield; Albert Evans, Clayton, Cal.; and Wallace Ramsey, Camas, Wash.

Delta Tau Delta—Paul Wiggins, Neil Peek, Richard Stenberg and Larry Kromling, all of Portland; Robert Hostick, Eugene; Philip Selby, David Stemples and John Reynen, all of Ashland; John Harmon and Robert Inman, both of Hood River; William Hanzen, Oswego; William Hallock, Redmond; Thomas Thompson, Roseburg; Gary Straus, Talent; Daniel Frank, The Dalles; B. Charles Lamb, Tillamook; Norman Rickert, Van Nuys, Calif.; Donald Hyatt, Boise, Idaho; David Moivat, Honolulu, T.H., and William Larsgaard, Waialau, T. H.

Delta Upsilon—William Beck and Franklin Smith, both of Portland; John Oney and G. Grant Smith, both of Eugene; Wallace Telford, Boring; Gary Gallow, Carlton; Michael Burke and Cecil Enman, both of Klamath Falls; Ronald Tyler, Lakeview; Wesley Stewart, Monroe; Harold Backen, Steve Danchock and Jerry Fildkamp, all of Roseburg; Murray

Jensen, Salem; William Bambrick, Auburn, Calif.; James Greene, Yreka, Calif., and Robert Wadman, Pullman, Wash.

Kappa Sigma—Ralph Bernards, Portland; Ralph Kingman, Eugene; Robert Gast, Corbett; Dennis Olsen, John Day; James England, Thomas O'Connell, Phillip Richter and Richard Raudy, all of St. Helens; Gerald Blank, Salem; Robert McNeil, Seaside; William Shanahan, Warren; David Stringer, Los Angeles, Calif., and Allen Bottomley, Orinda, Calif.

Lambda Chi Alpha—William Wilson, Portland; Frank Evenson, Roger Larsen and James Nave, all of Eugene; Thomas Drugan and Richard Hartman, both of Dexter; Paul Orwick, Junction City, and William Pakulak, Springfield.

Phi Delta Theta—John Alstock, Ronald Clark, Richard Costi, Larry Hibbard, James Larpenteur, Roger Martin, Philip McHugh, Kenneth O'Hallaron, William G. Roberson, Jr., Edwin Snow, Ralph Vranizan and Howard Zenger, all of Portland; Norman Fogelstrom, Earl L. Hammerquist, Ernest Laing, Theodore Larsen and Michael Nosler, all of Eugene; C. Gregg Lininger, Ashland; Jack Courtemanche, McMinnville; Gary Guyll, Pendleton; David Earle, St. Helens; John Lundell, The Dalles; Fred Haswell, Auburn, Calif., and Dennis Ryan, Redding, Calif.

Phi Gamma Delta—W. Howard Blackwell, Donald Greene, Robert Kellogg, John McIntyre, Kurt Rossman and Raymond Giansanto, all of Portland; David Ebsen, Astoria; Jack Smith, Dallas; Gibson Kingsbury, Lake Grove; R. Van

Wheeler, Milwaukie; Creed Brinton, Burlingame, Calif.; Robert Graves, Kerman, Calif., Jefferson Davis and Warren Sweeney, both of Visalia, Calif.

Phi Kappa Psi—Mel Govig, Portland; Winston Maxwell, Eugene; Harvey Woods, Jr., Ashland; Lawrence Anderson and Robert Rees, both of Astoria; Fred Bollinger, Crescent Lake; Richard Hilton, Thomas Moore and George Vlahos, all of Klamath Falls; Michael Thomas, Salem; Larry Barnes, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho; Fred Bell and James Pingree, both of Lewiston, Idaho; Michael Starling, Longview, Wash., and Edward Luedtke, Trentwood, Wash.

Phi Kappa Sigma—Sanford Milkes, Keith Shepard and Clarence Sorenson, all of Portland; John Dunckley and Gary Young, both of Lebanon; William Van Slyke, Milton-Freewater; William Clarenbach, Roseburg; Richard Chamberlain and William French, both of Salem, and Elton Engstrom, Juneau, Alaska.

Phi Sigma Kappa—Larry Chapman and Richard Crisera, both of Portland; Gerald Williams, Longview, Wash., and Jon Hall, Vancouver, Wash.

Pi Kappa Alpha—Allan Clark, Oakridge, and Kenneth Whitmore, Veneta.

Pi Kappa Phi—Robert Jorgenson, San Diego, Calif.

Lee and Jack Pietarilla, both of Astoria; Robert McEacheron, Forest Grove; Gerwin McFarland, Grants Pass; James Chapman, Hillsboro; Fritz Framfelder, Hood River; Stanley Dvorak, Howard Messmer and Otis Phillips, all of Salem; Jack McClenahan, La Crescenta, Calif.; Lloyd Maynard, Los Altos, Calif.; James McDonald, Orinda, Calif., and Allan Burns, Honolulu, T. H.

Sigma Alpha Mu—William Falley and Gary Weinstein, both of Portland, and Harry Asch, Long Island City, N. Y.

Sigma Chi—Milton Rice, Donald Scott, Donald Soesbe and Fred Wilcox, all of Portland; Thomas Bowen, Harrison Bryant, Arden Christenson, Donald Smith, Gary Stewart and Frank Wingard, all of Eugene; Keith Barker, Grants Pass; Jack Cozard and Jack Hancock, both of Springfield; Thomas Crabtree and Darrell Tyberg, both of North Bend; George Gildersleeve, Baker; Reanous Cochran, Spike Hillstrom and James Leht, all of Coos Bay; Clayton Hannon, Klamath Falls; Larry Lund, Seaside; William Mainwaring, Salem; David Newland, Gold Hill; Martin Pedigo, Hermiston; Richard Sherrel, Arlington; Robert Anderson, Longview, Wash.; Daryl Bond, Camas, Wash.; Frank Werner, Spokane, Wash.; Edward Johnson, Kelowna, B. C., and John Woyat, Vancouver, B. C.

Sigma Nu—Larry Davis, Robert Helber and James Woodyard, all of Portland; William Brown, Danny Burgess, Royal Cook, Donald Dudley, Lawrence Newton, and

(Please turn to page four)