

Rugged Drill Starts Frosh

Freshman football opened with a bang Oct. 5 as Coach Bill Hammer put the Ducklings through a stiff calisthenics drill before finding out what they looked like.

The whole squad showed a good bit of hustle as they went through their various specialties. It looks like a husky line for the Ducklings this season and there are quite a few of the big boys to choose from.

The line worked on blocking and form. Besides the tackling dummies they pushed the sled all over the field and had some rough body contact. Hammer says they seem to be in pretty good shape for the first work out, and says he is pleased with the turnout.

Fifty-one men showed up for the turnout and most of them have varsity experience in high school. They don't intend to spend a lot of time on fundamentals and will have to catch on quickly. Hammer is grooming them for Len Casanova's T-formation.

More than 20 men are out for backfield slots and the competition looks tough. According to the coach, there is a good assortment of running backs, but a possible weakness in the quarterback department. There are a few good pass catchers but not enough good passers.

The backs ran through a body contact tackling drill and ran a few power plays from the T. Punters are out in force, and some of them got off long kicks.

The boys thought the practice was a tough one. Most of them worked off a few pounds during the two hour practice, and a few dropped as much as eight and ten pounds.

Hammer said he liked the condition of his men and thought they had a good approach to the practice, as he sent them through a mile run to wind up the drill.

MURAL ACTION

Fijis, Phi Delts, Sig Eps Notch Football Victories

In intramural action Monday, Barrister Inn beat Philadelphia House, 13-0; Hale Kane tripped Alpha Hall, 18-0; Phi Gamma Delta defeated the Delts, 12-0; Sigma Alpha Mu edged the Pi Kaps, 8-0; Phi Kappa Sigma outscored the Betas, 13-0; SAE walloped the PiKA's, 33-0; Phi Delts won over Phi Psi's, 19-7; and the Sig Eps trounced Lambda Chi Alpha, 27-0.

Barrister Inn took an early lead in the first quarter on a thirty yard run with an intercepted pass by Jim Thean and then relied on their strong defense to overcome Philadelphia House 13 to 0. Bob Hedgecock passed to Bill Detherage for the extra point after the first score, and threw to Dick McDaniels for the final tally in the second quarter.

Hale Kane Victorious

Hale Kane rolled to their second win of the season as they downed Alpha Hall 18-0. Sandy Kam passed for all three scores to lead the victory. The first score came in the first quarter when Kam passed to Wilfred Watanabe who lateraled the ball to Herbert Nakano. Later in the quarter, Kam again passed to Watanabe who carried the ball 55 yards for the touchdown.

Alert defensive play by both teams produced scoreless second and third periods. Then, in the final period, Kam passed 9 yards to Charles Oyama in the end zone.

Phi Gamma Delta broke up a scoreless game late in the third quarter when lanky Jack Lally picked an errant Delt pass out of the air and scrambled 50 yards to score. An 8 yard pass from Rodger Zener to Joe Kirkwood iced the games for the Fijis.

The Delts dominated the first half, twice driving to first downs inside the Fiji 10. Each time, however, the Fijis' defensive line stiffened and held.

Sammies Trip Pi Kaps

The Sammies scored enough points to win the game on the fifth play from scrimmage as Howard Sussman ran 45 yards to score.

Late in the third quarter, the Sammies blocked a Pi Kap punt, and Don Rotenberg fell on the ball on the Pi Kappa Phi 8 yard line. The Sammies lost the ball on downs, but Rotenberg broke through to down Andrews in the end zone, scoring a safety and running the final count to 8 to 0.

Phi Kaps Over Betas

Phi Kappa Sigma pounded out a 13-0 triumph over the stalwarts of Beta Theta Pi. The game was played on IM field 3 at 3:50 yesterday.

Both teams went scoreless until the third quarter, when Bob Hinman, of the Phi Kaps grabbed a Beta punt and went 50 yards into the end zone for the first six points of the game. The conversion was unsuccessful. The second and last score came only a few minutes later, when Don Edwards flipped an aerial to Gene Beck who scored. This play was later disputed on an officials error. The conversion went from Hinman to Beck.

SAE Walks Away

On field 2 at 3:50, Sigma Alpha Epsilon rolled to an impressive 33-0 victory over the Pi Kappa Alpha house. The scoring plays were too numerous to mention, but those who did the scoring were Bob McEachern; Bob Britton to Bill Hail twice on passes; and Rex

Davis and Jack Davis and Jack Kreiger, who each ran back intercepted passes for individual TD's.

Phi Delts Triumph

Phi Delta Theta, paced by the accurate passing Dick Scholsstein, went to another victory today on field 2 at 4:45. The final score in the rugged contest was 19-7.

Scholsstein passed for two of the Phi Delts three touchdowns, and made the other himself on a kickoff return. Their one conversion came when Scholsstein ran for the extra point. The receivers for the Phi Delts were "Spider" Farnum, and Bob Mausschartt. Phi Kappa Psi's lone TD came when Ev Stiles flipped a tremendous aerial to Bob Kubas.

Sig Eps Win, 27-0

Sigma Phi Epsilon rolled over Lambda Chi Alpha to the tune of 27-0 in the second game yesterday, on IM field 3. The big gun for the Sig Eps turned out to be Jim Ekstrom. He scored one TD on an interception, was the receiver on one touchdown pass, and passed for two more. Jim's receivers were Al Opplinger, and Don Sullivan, while Bob Gray was the passer that flipped to Ekstrom for the final score of the game.

UCLA Coach Praises Ducks; Shaw, Pheister Win Comment

(P) - High praise for beaten Oregon was expressed in Los Angeles by Football Coach Red Sanders of UCLA. Sanders said his team played the best game this year against Oregon.

"We had to play great," Sanders went on, "because they are a tough, fast and exceedingly good team."

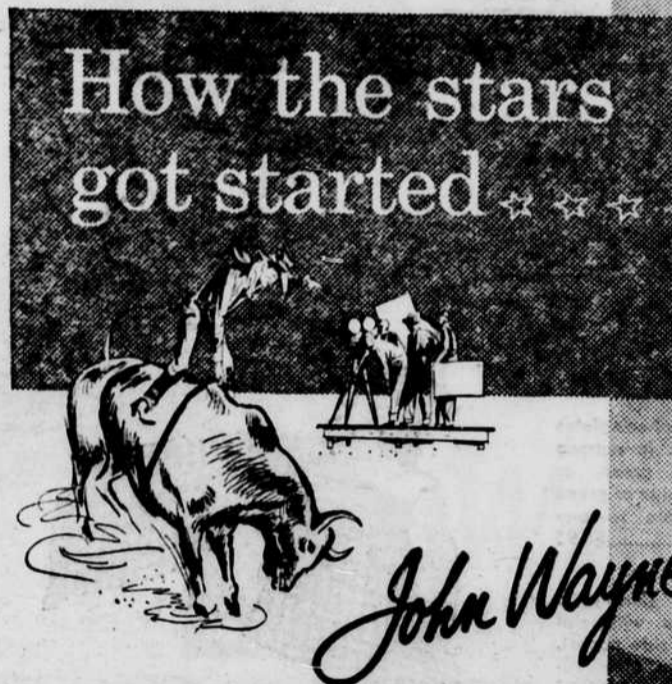

Sanders said Quarterback George Shaw of the Webfoots is perhaps the best T-quarterback and passer he has seen in a long time. He also said Oregon Center Ron Pheister is the best in the conference.

UCLA defeated Oregon 12-0 last Saturday in Eugene, after the Ducks held the Bruins to a scoreless tie for three quarters.
