

Ducks Polish Aerial Attack

University of Oregon gets back to playing teams its own size this weekend, when the Ducks travel into the Palouse hills to engage the up and down Cougars of Washington State college.

After a fine showing against the Pacific Coast conference Goliath, UCLA, last Saturday, Coach Len Casanova's Webfoot eleven will be out to add another win to their 1-2 slate.

"Cas" sent his charges through some more passing drills Tuesday, in anticipation of a possible full scale aerial attack against the air minded Cougars.

George Shaw, who had plenty of accuracy but poor reception on his passes Saturday against UCLA, hit his receivers consistently, as did Barney Holland.

The local eleven also polished up its ground attack against a simulated WSC defense. Halfbacks Dick James and Farrell Albright, fourth and seventh place, respectively, among PCC ball carriers, will probably be called on often against WSC.

Coach Al Kircher's Washington State ball club is the big question mark in the northern half of the conference. At the first of the season, WSC was tabbed for a seventh place finish by most of the so called experts.

However, the Cougars looked good, losing to powerful Southern Cal, and came back the next week to dump College of Pacific, who had beaten Stanford, which in turn defeated Oregon.

Last Saturday, however, the Pullman eleven traveled to Iowa, where it was pitilessly trounced by former Coach Forrest Evashevski's Iowans, 54-12. Maybe this was just a pour-it-on attempt by Evashevski, but it certainly didn't fit in with WSC's two previous performances.

UCLA DOMINATES

Oregon Air Defense Tops; Webfoots Third In Rushing

LOS ANGELES — UCLA'S sharp-blocking running attack is out-distancing its eight Pacific Coast foes, while Washington and Washington State are struggling for the passing supremacy, statistics from the PCC Commissioner's office show.

Red Sanders' Bruins have piled up an average of 265.3 yards per game in their first three outings for a big bulge over Southern California, which has averaged 215.7, and Oregon, 182.7. Washington has netted 157.7 yards a game in the air for a narrow lead over Washington State which has 152.3. California is third, 131.

Four teams are over the 300-yard mark in total offense with Southern Cal leading the pack. The Trojans have gained 105.3 yards passing in addition to their solid running game, for 321 yards. Washington has 318.7; UCLA, 311.0; and California, 301.3.

UCLA'S defense also ranks at the top. The Bruins have given up but 172 yards a contest. Their rushing defense is the best, too, 111.7, while they're second in pass defense, 60.3 yards a game. Southern Cal ranks second in total defense, 220.3, and Washington, third, 274.3.

The Trojans are second in rushing defense, 123 yards, and Cal, third, 169. Oregon has allowed the fewest yards in the air, 55, followed by the Bruins, and then Stanford, 80.3.

California has the top marks in kick returns with an 18 yard average on punt runbacks and 24.8 on kickoffs. Washington leads in interceptions with eight for 60 yards while UCLA has seven. UCLA has the best punting game with a 45.2 average, trailed by California, 38.1.

Three Conference games are slated Saturday afternoon, Southern Cal-Washington in Seattle, Oregon-Washington State in Pullman and Stanford-Oregon State in Portland. California meets Pennsylvania in Philadelphia and Idaho and Brigham Young tangle at Boise. In a Friday night game in Los Angeles UCLA hosts Wisconsin.

Theta Chi Blanks DU's; Sigma Chi Beats Sigma Nu In IM Tilts

Six games were played Tuesday afternoon in intramural touch football. Theta Chi defeated Delta Upsilon, 6-0; Delta Tau Delta blanked Chi Psi, 6-0; and Hale Kane won from Campbell Club, 30-0.

Sigma Chi shut out Sigma Nu, 14-0; Stitzer hall edged out Susan Campbell I, 4 first downs to 3; French hall out-first-downed Merrick hall, 2-1; and French hall won a playoff game from Stitzer hall.

Alpha Tau Omega won by forfeit over Pi Kappa Alpha; and Philadelphia house walked off the field victorious when Sigma hall failed to field a team.

Theta Chi Wins, 6-0

Theta Chi had to wait till only one minute remained in the game to score the lone touchdown over the DU's. Gus Keller threw a long 30 yard pass to Al Murray on the goal line.

The ball bounced out of the hands of Murray, but teammate Charlie Phillips grabbed the ball before it hit the ground.

Sigs Top Sigma Nu

Sigma Chi's powerful legions remained undefeated and unscored upon, after three games, with a 14-0 decision over the Sigma Nu seven. Lefty Howard Page nailed Bob Newburn and Alex Byler with tosses of 10 and 20 yards for the Sig's two scores.

Page was also responsible for the two extra points, flipping passes to Gordon Sloan and Newburn.

Stitzer Wins on Downs

The Stitzer hall-Susan Campbell I game was tied 6-6 at the end of the regulation distance, but the Stitzer crew won the game on the basis of 4 first downs to 3.

The Suzies scored first on a 25 yard run by Jack Alstock. A pass-run play that covered 40 yards set up the score. Stitzer tallied its six on a jump pass from Cliff Halvorson to Larry Anderson. Anderson juggled the 30 yard aerial on the goal line but finally regained control of the ball to tie up the game.

Delts Blank Chi Psi

Delta Tau Delta fought off a late Chi Psi rally inside its own 10 yard line in the closing minutes to protect a slim 6-0 margin. The Delts had scored earlier in the fourth frame on a 10 yard toss from Paul Peterson to Ron Ricktries.

French Squeaks By

French hall rolled up a first down on the last play of the game to edge out Merrick, 2 first downs to 1. In a playoff game which had ended in a deadlock a week ago, French hall slipped past Stitzer.

French hall was given four downs and rolled up 15 yards. Stitzer lost three yards in its four tries.

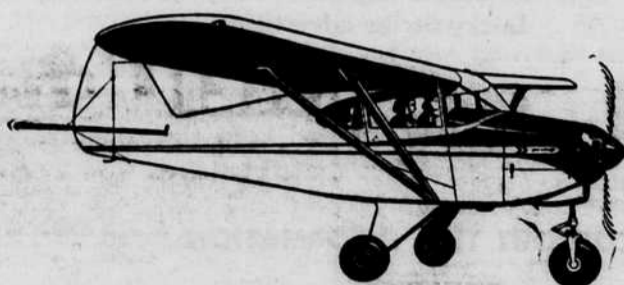

Hale Kane Victorious

Hale Kane scored at will over Campbell Club, after the Campbell boys had held the score to 6-0 at the half. Two of the Hale Kane scores came as a result of intercepted passes.

Little Sandy Kam did the passing for the Hawaiian squad. One of his tosses went 42 yards to Wilfred Watanabe. Another score came on a 10 yard fling to Bob Takano.

Yosh Terada also caught a Kam aerial for six Hale Kane points.
