

Gals Warm Up

FIVE CO-ED BOWLING enthusiasts warm up for the round-robin bowling tournament for women which gets underway Thursday, October 15, on the Student Union alleys. The tournament will last through December 3.

WRA Making Plans For Bowling Tourney

Women's Recreation association is now making plans for the fall intramural women's bowling tournament. The round robin tournament is slated to get under way Oct. 15, and run through Dec. 3.

There will be room for only eight teams in the competition so all interested houses, dorms and co-ops should get their entries in as soon as possible.

October 13 Deadline

The house entries should be turned in to Lucia Knepper, at the Alpha Chi Omega sorority, or to the athletic cage in Gerlinger hall. Deadline for the entries is Oct. 13. The first eight entries to be turned in will be the ones which make up the tournament.

Each squad will bowl each other team once. There is room for six players on a team, four regulars and two subs. No previous experience is needed to qualify for a spot on a team.

Any questions regarding the tournament should be directed to the WRA house representative or Miss Knepper, at A Chi O.

Interest has always been high in the tournament. Last year ten women's squads competed for the championship, with Zeta Tau Alpha winning out. The ZTA's won the playoff match from Highland House, who had tied with Gamma Phi Beta in one of the leagues.

Handy Outstanding

Jane Handy was the outstanding bowler in the 1952 tourney averaging a 140 game.

This year's matches will be rolled off Thursday afternoon, starting at 4 p.m. The teams will roll three lines a day.

Phi Psis Bump Kappa Sigma

In intramural action Wednesday afternoon, Phi Kappa Psi walloped Kappa Sigma, 25-0; Sigma Nu had little trouble dropping the Tekes, 23-0; Hale Kane rolled up another lopsided score over Barrister Inn, 26-0; and Theta Chi ran roughshod over the Legal Eagles, 38-0.

French hall blanked Susan Campbell I, 13-0; Sigma Alpha Epsilon defeated Beta Theta Pi, 18-0; Alpha hall won over Sigma hall by forfeit; and Nestor defeated Stitzer when Stitzer failed to field a team.

Oregons Prep For Cougars

Buzz Nelson
Emerald Sports Writer

Coach Len Casanova ran his footballers through a rugged defensive scrimmage Wednesday afternoon in an effort to sharpen the squad for the Saturday clash with the Washington State college Cougars at Pullman, Wash.

The defense, however, looked quite unimpressive against the WSC plays directed at it. Casanova described it as ragged and stated it would have to improve to hold the Cougars, who are reputed to have a potent offense.

Burkhart Top Threat

Heading the touchdown threats is senior Quarterback Bob Burkhart, 5'11 and 195 pounds. He passes, runs, and kicks, and has been one of the coast's top offensive stars for three years. Because of injuries he played little against Iowa but is expected to be ready to go against the Ducks.

Other WSC stars are Left Half Wayne Berry, who tossed for two touchdowns against Iowa, and coming crowd, and will be eager to atone for last week's loss. Sterling also made reference to the USC and COP games as more likely tip offs on the Cougar's ability.

giant End Howard McCants, who stands 6'8 and weighs 225 pounds.

While the Cougars have shown a good offense thus far this season, their defense has been extremely porous. They lost to USC 29-13, beat tough College of Pacific 26-20, and then were swamped by Iowa 54-12.

Cougars Not Easy

Lest the Iowa score should lead some people to believe the Cougars will be pushovers against the Ducks, Oregon Line Coach Vern Sterling, who scouted the WSC-Iowa contest, stated the score of that game by no means gives a true indication as to the strength of the Cougars.

WSC, he pointed out, will be at home against Oregon and will be playing before a Dad's Day-Home-
