Wesley Foundation

Carlisle Moore, associate professor of English, continues the series on "This I Believe," this Sunday evening. Taking advantage of the fall weather, Wesleyans will leave from Wesley house at 5 p.m. for Armitage park. The 25 cent supper will be a Swedish barbecue.

At the potluck at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday Clare Hamlin, architect for the planned Wesley Foundation building, will present plans along with a talk on "Architecture in the Church."

Thursday noon students will meet for a luncheon fellowship period, followed by a student-led chapel at 12:30. That evening at 6:30 the Wesley choir will have its regular practice.

A spiritual life retreat is in the planning for Wesleyans Friday evening, Oct. 16, through Sunday afternoon, to be held at Camp Magruder.

Christian Science

The regular meeting of the Christian Science organization will be held Tuesday at 7 p.m. in the men's lounge of Gerlinger hall.

Christian House

Those attending the fall retreat at Belknap Springs resort on the McKenzie river should meet at Christian house Saturday morning and be ready to leave at 7:30 a.m. Elizabeth Gloyd is general chairman for the planning retreat. Assisting her are Nancy Daniels and Joan Wilson, publicity, and Doug Calef, transportation.

The regular Donut Hour will be held at 9:15 a.m. Sunday, followed by the Bible study class taught by Victor Morris, acting president. Transportation to the First Christian church will be provided after the class. Guest speakers for the evening program will be Omnya Suelem, Egypt, and Jalal-Diean, India, who will discuss Islam. Worship service leader will be Bob Griffith.

At 6:15 p.m. Wednesday the executive council will meet for a dessert and regular business meeting. The group will go calling after the meeting, under the direction of the membership committee, of which Donna Plymale is chairman.

Newman Club

Father Leander, O.S.B., graduate student in education, will lead a discussion on "Religion in Education," at Newman club's meeting this week. The meeting will start at 7 p.m. with Benediction of the

Spanish, Portugal Teachers To Meet

The Oregon chapter of the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese will hold their first meeting of the year this Saturday in the Student Union. The luncheon meeting will open with a tour of the new Eugene high school at 11:00 a.m.

Immediately following the luncheon will be a talk by the new Spanish-American literature professor, Edmundo Garcia-Giron on "La risa util de un lugareno: Ruben Romero." Romero was a prominent contemporary Mexican novelist.

Violations Tried By Student Court

Two traffic violation cases were brought before the Student Court at the regular meeting Wednesday night. Sam Vahey, sophomore in journalism, was fined $1 for parking in the service drive of the Student Union.

Bob Pillmer's ticket for parking in the service drive of the SU was voided as he had sufficient evidence to prove he was making a delivery, according to Carl Weber, chairman of the court.

Blessed Sacrament in the chapel of Sacred Heart hospital. Following the discussion there will be a short social hour.

Lutheran House

Lutheran student house, 1376 Alder, is taking part in the all-Oregon Lutheran student retreat at Camp Westwind on the coast. Cars will leave the house Friday afternoon and Saturday. The retreat will be topped off by a turkey banquet Saturday night, and students will return Sunday afternoon. Reservations may be made by calling 4-7373.

Sunday, at 5:30 p.m. there will be a supper at the house after which students will move to Emmaus Lutheran church for the formal installation of Jim Kallas as student adviser.

A noon luncheon will be served Wednesday, free of charge. The group will adjourn at 12:50. Thursday night a study of Isaiah, 9 p.m. with a coffee hour following will be featured.
